BOARD ACTION: All announcements, presentations and business to come before the meeting shall be made by the Presiding Officer, from information to be provided in writing 24 hours prior to meeting.

WORKSHOP REPORT: Adrienne Jamieson expects to present a complete financial report on the workshop at the June meeting. Preliminary estimates show a profit of at least $1,000.

The workshop was a success due to the efforts of the following DGS members:

Betty Armstrong	Lee Lambeth
Lloyd Bockstruck	Helen Lu
Grace Clowe	Pat Schrader
Rubyann Darnell	Helen Stinson
Michal Farmer	Margaret Ann Thetford
Jo Lambeth	Polly Wilds

The Board of Dallas Genealogical Society

DGS BOOK AWARD: Helen Lu and Gwen Neumann for "Revolutionary War Bible, Family and Marriage Records Gleaned from Pension Applications" Vol. 1. For those members who did not attend the Workshop or have not read Margaret Ann Thetford's column in the Dallas Morning News, we would like to call your attention to this book. Several additional volumes are planned for future years. 3,700 full name index. Order from Lu & Neumann, P.O. Box 4276, Station A, Dallas, TX 75208. $15 includes postage and handling but Texas residents should add 5% sales tax.

THANKS - - - - We wish to thank Don Francis, DGS member from New York, who has donated a box of books to the Society. We are very pleased to have them and will place them in the Dallas Public Library.

EXPLORER SCOUTS: DGS is considering sponsoring an Explorer Scout Post. Each Explorer Post has its own area of specialization and this one would be in genealogy. Are there any DGS members who have experience in working with Explorer Scouts who might be interested in supporting such a post with their skills?

RICHLAND COLLEGE: Richland College is sponsoring a group tour to the World Conference on Records on August 12-15 in Salt Lake City. The Conference "Preserving our Heritage" will provide nearly 300 seminars on family history, genealogy, oral history, folklore, publishing family history, demographics and many more topics.

Alex Haley, the Osmond Family and noted speakers from throughout the world will speak and/or present seminars. In addition, commercial, cultural and ethnic exhibits will be featured. Optional evening entertainment (including the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, Utah Ballet and Utah Symphony) and a separate spouse program of tours will be provided.

Lorraine Towles, Instructor/Librarian at Richland College, will conduct two pre-conference sessions at Richland on July 18 and July 25 from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. These sessions will be an introduction to the 300 seminars and the faculty and to the Mormon Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City.

Travel will be via Anthony Tour Service on August 11, returning to Dallas August 15. For further information, call 746-4444.

No News Letters for July and August. No Meetings for July and August. A Happy Vacation to All and if the energy shortage has not completely curtailed your traveling to research, we hope you will find that missing piece of evidence.

I have enjoyed being your Editor but will be moving from Dallas on July 1. I would not want anyone to be disappointed by trying to reach me and finding a disconnected phone.
