Place: University Park United Methodist Church - Preston & Caruth
Time: 10:00 A.M.
Program: "How To Ask Questions That Get Answers"
Presented by Dr. Gerald Saxon, oral historian.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE BY-LAWS OF D.G.S.

By an amendment to the By-Laws, all permanent records and proceedings will be stored in the Archives Division of the new Dallas Library. Proposed to amend: Article V - Duties of Officers. Section 1. President. (last sentence) "He shall keep the proceedings and permanent records of the Society." 28 January 1982

ANNUAL BOOK AWARD CONTEST:

Requirements: The author must be a member of the D.G.S., and all entries must be submitted to Lloyd Bockstruck before 15 April 1982.

Categories:

- 1) Book with a minimum of 50 pages. Subject - family history or genealogy
- 2) Book with a minimum of 50 pages. Subject - local history or genealogical interest
- 3) Manuscript with a minimum of 5 pages (single space) or 10 pages (double space). Subject - family history or genealogy
- 4) Manuscript with a minimum of 5 pages (single space) or 10 pages (double space). Subject - local history or genealogical interest.

There will be one award offered in each category. All entries will become the property of the Dallas Public Library.

YOUR FAMILY SURNAMES WILL BE IN THE QUARTERLY -

If you send in your queries and Bible records ! For one 20¢ stamp your query will be published and then housed in many libraries across the nation. Even with today's inflation, that's a bargain. Also ... do you have any items dealing with the local Dallas area ? Send these good things to Margaret Hudson at the P.O. Box at the top of this newsletter.

ARE YOU RESEARCHING AN ITALIAN SURNAME ?

A letter from Emma Urban, 2970 Chippewa Way, Provo, Utah, 84604, states that she is a native Italian, has researched for eight years, and plans to go to Italy in the spring of 1982. She will research records there for a reasonable fee. The D.G.S. does not know Ms. Urban, nor can it recommend or endorse her. If you need research in Italy, contact her, then check her references.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A TAX DEDUCTION ?

Donations to the Genealogy Dept. of the Dallas Public Library are tax deductible. Be sure to mark your check "For Genealogy Department".

WE RECEIVED A COMPLIMENT AFTER DONATING TO THE MONTGOMERY CO., TX. PUBLIC LIBRARY:

From the Genealogy Librarian, Mrs. Imogene Kennedy, "I commend your group for being one that every society should be - a caring and sharing society... I invite any of your members to come to see our collection when they visit this part of Texas ... Thanks again."

CONCERNING DECEASED MEMBERS:

If you know of the death of one of our members, please send the information to D.G.S. at the P.O. Box at the top of this newsletter. Our Society is so large that we do not know everyone, so please keep us informed. At the end of the Society year, June 30, 1982, a donation will be made to the Genealogy Dept. of the Dallas Library in memory of all D.G.S. members who died between 1 July 1981 and 30 June 1982.
