NOVEMBER MEETING: Date: Thursday, November 18, 1982*
 Place: Dallas Public Library - East & West Room - First Floor
 Time: 6:30 P. M. Social Gathering
 7:00 P. M. Regular Meeting and Program

The program will be presented by Ted Campbell, Director of the Ector County Library, Odessa, Texas. Mr. Campbell, formerly of the Mississippi State Library and Archives, is President of the Permian Basin Genealogical Society.

"Working Around the Yellow Fever Epidemics of Western Tennessee" will be the topic of the November DGS program. Memphis, Tennessee was the scene of five yellow fever epidemics between 1855 and 1897. During the 1878 epidemic, over 30,000 people fled the city, the filth of which equaled that of a medieval village. Before relief came with killing frost, 18,000 of the 20,000 remaining inhabitants had had the fever; and over 5000 had died. Business came to a standstill and the streets were empty. The State Legislature abolished the Charter of Memphis and established it as a Taxing District of the State. These tragedies pose many problems to the genealogical researcher.

* Note: Meeting will be one week earlier than usual, due to Thanksgiving Day.

In this November Newsletter, we want to wish you a great Thanksgiving -- not only a wonderful dinner, but the companionship and love of all who partake around your table and true Thanksgiving in each heart.

There will be no meeting or Newsletter in December, so we add a wish that you have a Merry Christmas, that you receive the gift that most pleases you, whether it be material or the gift of Peace in your heart, or both, and, hopefully one blessed hour when people everywhere have compassion and love for all mankind, ---

And, on January 1, a Happy New Year -- we hope your resolutions will include one: to attend all the DGS meetings in 1983 and that you will bring a friend. Let's try this and watch our Dallas Genealogical Society grow, and grow and GROW!
