The Mini-Workshop held on November 13th was very successful with 105 registered. This Workshop was organized by Jeanne Tabb and those who helped make it such a cardinal success included instructors as follows: Helen Lu, Jeanne Tabb, Mary Helen Brengel, Margaret Ann Thetford, Margaret Hudson; and those who helped in other capacities were: Charles Blackard, Chan Edmondson, Sue Harris, Robert Yates, Jr., and Adrienne Jamieson. Many thanks to each of these dedicated members.

We hope that in 1983 each member will learn the joy of helping with the work of the Dallas Genealogical Society. Whenever calls go out for volunteers for any project, if you will offer your services, you will learn the pleasure of working with others toward the common goal, that of furthering the work of the Dallas Genealogical Society. Closer friendships are made and greater interest is created. This is YOUR SOCIETY. Let's all become more active!

We are interested in receiving copies of unpublished Bible records, wills, old letters, diaries, old ledgers, short articles, copies of data from small cemeteries and similar material for publication. If you have any such material that you would like to offer, send a good, clear photocopy of it to DGS, P. O. 12648, Dallas 75225. These should be of local genealogical or historic interest, sufficiently clear to be reprinted. These will be used from time to time in our DGS Quarterly, at the editor's discretion. Do not send the original as these cannot be returned.
