THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On behalf of the DGS Board of Directors, I want to urge each and every one of our local members to attend the annual business meeting, reception and party on May 22. This meeting truly belongs to the DGS member. It is your opportunity to see and hear how DGS is doing and what has been accomplished this year. It will also enable you to see old friends and meet new ones. 1988-89 has been a very successful year for our Society. Your Board of Directors will tell you all about it at our business meeting. We will also have a few surprises. BE THERE!

As May is my last month to serve as DGS President, I would like to take this opportunity to say some very sincere "thank you's". First of all, thanks to the 1988-89 Board of Directors for their constant support and direction during the past twelve months. No president could ask for a harder working group of dedicated people. Each one gave their time and talent over and over to make this a meaningful year for DGS. I am especially impressed with the flexibility of the board members this year. To a person they were open-minded about change and new ways to do things. Thank you Barbara, Kelvin, Dorothy, Madilyn, Margret, Carol, Bill J., Joan, Bob, Margaret Ann, Bill B., Adrienne, Bruce, Lea and Jeanne.

Also, thanks to the many DGS members who responded to our pleas for volunteers for our numerous projects. Thanks to all those members who came to the courthouse and cemetery to work, who typed or proofread on DGS publications and who helped at our symposium, seminar and meetings. Thanks to Helen Lu for serving as our Arrangements Chairman. Thanks to Pat Hatcher and Bob Johnsey for their computer expertise. These are DGS members involved in their local Society and committed to the job that needs to be done. I know next year's board will be able to continue to count on them.

Of course, I also want to thank the membership for your support and belief in me by electing me to the DGS board for the past four years. It has been my pleasure to have had this experience. I look forward to continuing to serve DGS in whatever capacity comes my way.

See you at the May meeting!
Sammie Townsend Lee

NEW ENGLAND ANCESTORS???

If you are researching New England ancestors, you may want to consider attending the New England Historic Genealogical Society's "Come Home To New England" research seminar being offered in two sessions this summer, June 25-July 2 or August 20-27, in Boston, Massachusetts. Now in it's fifth year, the seven-day seminar offers lectures combined with research days in the NEHGS library with special attention, guidance and individual consultants from the Society's expert staff and volunteers. Extra curricular highlights are a welcome reception and dinner in the Hampshire House, a twilight cruise on Boston Harbor and a goodbye banquet on Friday evening. Each session is limited to 35 participants, so early registration is a must. Seminar tuition with hotel accommodations at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel is $845.00 per person, double occupancy (seminar tuition for commuters, $550.00). A $200.00 deposit for the June session is required by May 31. For further information, call (617) 536-5740 or write NEHGS, 99-101 Newbury Street, Boston, MA 02116.

MIDDLE NAMES

From article in "Harper's Magazine", early 1900s: via Smoke Signals, publication of Ottawa County Genealogical Society, Miami, Oklahoma.

Middle names, hard as it is to credit in this generation, were once illegal. The old English law was very definite as to the naming of children and, according to Coke, "a man cannot have two names of baptism". It is requisite, the law goes on, "that the purchaser be named by the name of his baptism and his surname, and that special heed be taken to the name of baptism".

Royal personages have always been allowed to have more than one given name, but as late as 1600, it is said, there were only four persons in all England who had two given names. In 1620 the Mayflower sailed for America, and there was not a man or woman upon it who had a middle name.

Even a century and a half ago, double names were very uncommon. The English used to dodge the law at times by ingeniously compounding names. Thus an old parish register in England may occasionally show combinations such as Fannasabilia, which is Fanny and Sibyl joined together, and Annamaria, made up of Anna and Maria. Maris is one of the earliest middle names of record for boys. It was given in honor of the Virgin Mary. As much as they dared, beginning along in the eighteenth century, parents evaded the "one name law".

But, even as late as 100 years ago, custom was against the middle name. If the names of the signers of the Declaration of Independence be looked over, it will be found that only three of them had middle names. The first five presidents of the United States had only one name each - George Washington - John Adams - Thomas Jefferson - James Madison - and James Monroe. Before Grant, eighteenth of the line, there were only three double named executives: John Quincy Adams - William Henry Harrison - and James Knox Polk.

When middle names got going and became the fashion, the law having dropped into disuse, parents went to work combining names for their offspring enthusiastically. One custom was done away with in England in consequence of this, the plan of naming the eldest son for the estate, particularly where he succeeds to that estate through his mother. This old practice is still followed to some extent in this country by the mother's maiden name being given to the eldest son, and this identifies the boy when he reaches manhood, and so has some purpose.

THE LAWS OF GENEALOGY

No one in your family tree ever did anything noteworthy, always rented property, was never sued, and was never named in wills.

DO YOU HAVE ANCESTORS IN THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, IF YOU DO,
 THEN THIS PUBLICATION IS FOR YOU.

I would like to introduce you to a new publication, MISSISSIPPI QUERIES. My husband's great grandfather, William Franklin Bell, owned a plantation in Mississippi, and that is all I know about him, so that makes Mississippi a place I need to know more about. What better way to learn than helping others along the way. This publication is devoted to helping those researching their families that have passed through or stayed in the state of MISSISSIPPI.

MISSISSIPPI related queries may be submitted free!!! Queries are such an important part of research that you may submit as many queries as you wish and also as often as you wish. MISSISSIPPI QUERIES will be published on a irregular basis. When enough queries are received, another issue will then be published. Each issue will contain at least twenty-five (25) pages plus the all-important every name index.

MISSISSIPPI QUERIES accepts material for review provided it is Mississippi related. These may be genealogies, periodicals, newsletters, etc. When material is submitted for review by the editor, the submitter will receive a copy of the issue of MISSISSIPPI QUERIES in which the review is first published. Thereafter a list of material reviewed will be printed in each successive issue. When sending your review material, please do note that it is for review, being sure to include all ordering information, such as cost, including tax if any: postage, handling, etc.

Please follow these guidelines when submitting queries:

1. PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE YOUR QUERIES.
2. QUERIES SHOULD BE NOT MORE THAN FIFTY (50) WORDS. Name and address may be in addition to your query.
3. PLEASE DO NOT ABBREVIATE YOUR QUERY. Editor reserves the right to edit queries when space is at a minimum and hold any or all queries over to a future issue.

If you have a MISSISSIPPI related book/publication, etc., that you no longer need, do send me information on them including their condition. It may be possible that we can make some type of exchange arrangement. Any donated material will of course, be very welcome and appreciated.
