HARMONY RIDGE CEMETERY

San Saba County, Texas

Submitted by Mr. Larry J. Gage

11319 Sharpview Drive, Houston, Texas 77072

(All legible markers copied July 28, 1969)

Harmony Ridge Cemetery is 10 miles east-northeast of San Saba and is three miles north down a gravel road from U.S. Highway 190. It lies a mile west of the Colorado River.

The cemetery is on land donated by two brothers, Mark and Andrew Oliver, in the 1870s. Harmony Ridge Cumberland Presbyterian Church was built on adjacent property in 1880. The church building also served Harmony Ridge School until 1923. The remodeled building still stands.

The church, school and cemetery are named for Harmony Ridge community, which was named shortly after the church was completed. The community is on a ridge and the "harmony" came from a pioneer's comment that he had never seen such harmony among people working together on a church building.

The cemetery is fenced, well cared for and still used.

EXCERPTS FROM THE JOURNAL OF ARA WILLIAMS SABIN

Submitted by Mrs. H. D. Welch

2513 Crestbrook, Grand Prairie, Texas

My ancestors were of Scotch and Dutch in origin: My father, Salmon Sabin, was the youngest son of Josiah Sabin, who was the second son of Israel Sabin, a Scotchman; my mother, Sarah Miller, the third daughter of Garret Miller of Saratoga County, N. Y., was married to my father in the year of our Lord, 1816.

After residing in the town of Bath six years, I was born August the 4th, 1822. I was the fourth child. My father still resided in the town of Bath, Stueben County, N. Y., until I was fourteen years old and removed to Ontario County, N.Y. living there three years and then removing to Ohio, Huron County, in which time nothing of importance passed my observation. At the time I lived in Ohio I very well recollect hearing about the persecution of a religious society known by the name of Mormons. All manner of slander that man could invent was hurled at their leaders, and even the whole society was banished from the state of Missouri in the cold and dreary month of December in the year of our Lord 1839, to the state of Illinois, where they commenced building a city called Nauvoo.

By this time the country not suiting my father, he moved back to Bristol, Ontario County. I stayed with my father until I was one and twenty years old, and in the fall after, I returned to the place of my nativity. Here I became acquainted with one of the Elders of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, by the name of William Hyde, and by his preaching I became acquainted with the doctrine of the Church and convinced of its truth, I thought it my duty to become a member of the society.

I was baptised February 18, 1844, by the said William Hyde, in Allegany County, in the town of Ossian, N. Y., while on a visit to my uncle, William Card's. I then went to work in that place for the sake of having the privilege of attending the meetings that I might gain instruction in the great plan of salvation and other points of doctrine.

In June I visited my parents for the first time after I had connected myself with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and found them enjoying good health and apparently glad to see me, but not to hear that I had joined the Mormons, as they called them. After I talked with them on the principle and plan of salvation as I believed it, they held their peace.

In the fall of 1844 I commenced fixing to go West with a company of Saints to gather with the Church of Christ in Nauvoo. The company consisted of four families, myself, and Brother F. A. Brown, in company with them. Doctor McIntyre and family, Brother West and family, Brother Basset, and family, and Brother Beach and family, in whose family I belonged while on the journey. The company consisted of twenty-one souls.

While living in Ossian I became acquainted with some that I shall always think of as friends, for such I found them to be in time of need, and my prayer is for God to bless them with many blessings.

A journal of the proceedings and places through which we passed in going from Ossian, Allegany County, N. Y. to Nauvoo, Ill.

We started from Ossian Sept. 11, 1844. We arrived at Mr. Olney's the first day, distance ten miles. Nothing of any importance to me passed my observation except the parting with friends which we did not expect to ever see again while here on earth. On the morning of the second day we left Mr. Olney's and that day we passed through Portage where we viewed the wonderful works of nature and the far famed Genesee, winding its way through the mighty rocks which are piled upon each other to the height of about two hundred feet perpendicular, and also the mystic works of art where numbers of men have worked and - - -

Nothing of any importance happened until Dec. 17, 1847, when we had something of a snow storm. The snow fell about two feet on the level. That day Brother Joseph France and Brother C. H. Bassett arrived from the Bluffs where they left the saints in good health, generally speaking.

I saw Brother Bassett at old Mr. Canfield's and had some little conversation with him about the saints in general, and I also saved some of the saleratus which was found on the route to the valley and this side of the mountains in the great American desert. Nothing worthy of notice transpired during the winter. Time glided swiftly by, and 1847 soon passed into eternity.

March 19, 1848, I was married to Miss Sally Canfield of Ossian, Allegany County, New York, with whom I was acquainted for three or four years. All things necessary for the occasion were prepared and we had a first rate time.

April 10, 1848, I started in company with Brothers F. A. Brown, C. H. Bassett, and J. France with our effects to the valley of the great Salt Lake. We hired wagons and teams to carry us to Pittsburgh and there we shipped aboard the steam boat for St. Louis.

We had a very good voyage, nothing of any importance took place on our route thus far. At St. Louis we took a boat for Weston in Missouri. We arrived there without any accident, then we took a boat for St. Joseph, to which place we arrived in safety. From this place we travelled in wagons for the Bluffs, distance 140 miles

While travelling to this place my wife took sick, though we still pursued our journey, difficult as it was for me. It was a great deal of care on my mind seeing the health of my wife on the decline and the long journey before me. It made my heart ache within me to think of staying at Council Bluffs or at the Point, but as fortune would have it, I was obliged to stop at Council Point at which place my wife stayed in company with her sister in care of Bro. William Hyde.

Labor being scarce here, myself and Bro. Brown went away to work to get means to go to the valley the next spring. About the first of August I was attacked with a bilious fever. After that, I received a letter from my wife informing of the delicate situation of her health and a wish for me to return home.

My feelings better felt than described, altho I started immediately for home. I arrived home about the 20th of September, my health rather impaired, and my wife's very poor, not able to sit up more than two or three hours in the course of the day.

I had the ague and fever in all its horrid forms and shapes. In November I broke it up. My wife being at Dr. Luke Johnson to be doctored about this time, I moved my things to the house where I calculated to stay until spring and then go to the valley. About the middle of December my wife was taken worse, and began to run down in spite of all we could do for her. Nothing that I could do was left undone, but all seemed to no purpose. She lingered along until the sixth of January at 25 minutes past 11 o'clock in the evening, the Lord God of Israel took her home where sickness and sorrow never comes.

At that time I was not able to cut my own stove wood after it was drawn to my door. I was taken with a relapse about a week before the death of my companion. The relapse of ague stuck to me till the next May. I saw some hard times that winter and spring. I lived about from place to place. I lived about two months with Brother Rosel Hyde and near three months with Brother G. R. Grant. While at Bro. Grants I received a visit from Messrs. Addison and George West. I parted with them seventeenth day of May 1849. They were bound for the gold regions of California. (To be continued)

PARISH/PARRISH NOTES

Made by Ione Nolan on Parish/Parish/Parrishes of North Carolina

Submitted by Mrs. R. E. Dishman

10609 Longmeadow Dr., Dallas, Texas

1. David Parrish - will dated August 20, 1789, of record in Oxford, Granville County, North Carolina, named:
wife: Juda (Judy)
sons: David Parrish
Claburn Parrish
Baseker (Boocker ?, Booker ?) Parrish (not one of the heirs, but named as the father of 2 granddaughters who were heirs.)
daus: Salley (Sally) Parrish
Judy Parrish
Betty Parrish
Anne (Ane) Parrish
Sabry (Sabra) Waldrup
Sucke (Sukey) Whicker
gr. daus:
Dicy (Dicey) Parrish) (Daus. of Baseker (Boocker ?, Booker ?)
Taby (Tabby) Parrish) Parish
Nancey (Nancy) Parrish (Parents not identified)

Judith Parrish, dau. of David Parrish, m. Claiborn Parrish, February 4, 1779; David Parrish, bondsman.

Claiborn Parrish died in 1795, and on November 23, 1799, Judith, his widow, m. Zachariah Dutton.

Names of 3 children of Claiborn and Judith Parrish are known; if others, no data is available for this record. They are:

Joseph Parrish, b. May 4, 1794. On February 10, 1809, George Daniel was appointed his guardian.

Oney Parrish, m. John Dutton, son of Zachariah Dutton, Judith's second husband.

Humphrey Parrish - in 1804, Jesse Hays was appointed his guardian.

On November 4, 1805, Zachariah Dutton was appointed his guardian.

Claiborn Parrish left some sort of a contract to protect Judith's property, which contract was made a part of her marriage agreement with Zachariah Dutton. A copy of this instrument has not been obtained for this record.

Who were the parents of Claiborn Parrish, the first husband of Judith Parrish?

2. Claburn Parrish, son of David Parrish who left the will dated in 1789.

What happened to this Claburn? Did he marry, if so, whom? Did they have children and if so, who were they?

In connection with the settlement of David Parrish's estate, a sale was held in 1792. Among the purchasers were: Robert Jeter, William Parish, Clebe (Claburn) Parish, Bishop Hicks, Judith Parish the younger (wife of Claiborn), Mrs. Judith Parrish (the widow), Lewis Parish and Joseph Booker.

(The instrument pertaining to this sale is recorded in WB-2, P-324, in Granville County.)

3. Claiborn Parrish, in 1832, while living in Granville County, N. C., made an application for a pension for his Revolutionary Service. He stated in the application that he was uncertain about his exact age, but thought he was 7 years old when he had come to Granville County in 1767 with his father; that he, Claiborn, had served in the Revolution while he was living in Orange County, N. C.; had moved back to Granville County around 1813 and that about 1803, his father had moved to Georgia and had taken all the family records with him. He did not mention his father's name. Who was he?

Attached to the pension paper was an affidavit of Allen Parrish which identified him as a brother of Claiborn Parrish.

The amount of Claiborn's pension was $20 per annum, starting March 4, 1831.

4. Claiborn Parrish left a will of record in Granville County, which was dated 1834, with a codicil dated 1836, and named:
wife: Polly (A name often used interchangeably with Mary.)
sons: Sihon Parrish
William Parrish
daus: Christian Forsythe
Nancy Worsham
Polly Mangum
Beady Umstead
Eady (Caty) Jones
Patsy Moore
gr. dau:
Rheaney (Reeny) Parrish

(Christian Forsythe, named as one of Claiborn's children in this will, was his dau. Christian who m. Samuel P. Forsythe, August 4, 1835, in Granville County, N. C.)

5. Claiborn Parrish - estate settlement, included:
Cash income of $8.25 received from pension.
This item undoubtedly identifies this Claiborn as the same one who made the application for the pension whose father left Granville County about 1803 and moved to Georgia.

The copy of the instrument pertaining to the estate settlement as obtained from the courthouse in Oxford, N. C., omitted the following details:

Capt. Alfred Jones was the administrator for the estate of Claiborn Parrish, deceased, and also was the administrator of the estate of Mrs. Mary (Roberts) Parrish, Claiborn's widow, who died 3½ months after Claiborn died.

Cash paid for moving Mrs. Parrish to Frances Worsham (2 days with wagons and horses)

Cash paid Nancy Roberts for her attendance

Cash paid Mary (Roberts) Parrish, widow of Claiborn Parrish

Cash paid Robert Mebane

Cash paid F. H. Worsham for keeping Mary for 3½ months

Cash paid William Parrish for helping save the crop

Cash paid to Samuel Forsythe for spirits

Cash paid to Mr. Wortham for coffin and shrouding clothes

Cash paid to William Parish for burial expense
Cash paid to F. H. Wortham for hauling the deceased, Mary Parish, 17 miles, and going to Worthams 40 miles back and forth 2 days to haul the widow's property back to be sold in accordance with the terms of Claiborn's will Cash paid to Mark Roberts for holding the sale - August Court 1837

6. Sion Parish m. Sura Pettigrew, August 20, 1805, in Orange County, N.C.;
Hansel Pettigrew, bondsman.
Sion Parish died in 1817, in Granville County; Susan, his widow was appointed administratrix of his estate on May 8, 1817; Wit: Charles Pettigrew. Sion Parish who married in 1805, was evidently the same Sion who died in 1817.

Who were the parents of this Sion Parish? Did he have children, and if so, who were they?

7. Sion Parrish m. Celia Robards (Roberts), December 9, 1808, in Granville County, N.C.; George Roberts, bondsman.
This Sion Parrish died in 1826, and George Roberts, evidently the father of Celia, was appointed by the court in Granville County, in 1826, to be guardian of the orphans (minors) of Sion Parish, deceased.

The orphans were:

Jeremiah Parrish
Temperance Parrish
Polly Parrish
Claiborn Parrish
Brodie Parrish
George Parrish

Who were the parents of this Sion Parish? What happened to Celia, his widow?

8. Sion Parrish m. Sarah Adams, November 22, 1823, in Granville County.

The two old marriage bonds for Sion and Celia and for Sion and Sarah were definitely signed by two different Sion Parrishes.

Who were the parents of Sion Parrish who married Sarah Adams?

Sion and Sarah had several children born to them in Granville County and these they took with them to Carroll County, Tennessee, when they moved there around 1828. They also took along the orphans of Sion and Celia.
What was the relationship of the two Sions? Did Sion and Sarah adopt the orphans? Or did Sion get appointed their guardian? Did Celia go along with them?

PINKARD LETTERS

Submitted by Mrs. J. R. Macdonald
6415 Meadow Rd., Dallas, Texas 75230

The letters excerpted below were written by Benjamin J. Pinkard to his half sister, Lucinda Pinkard Adams, who lived in Iuka, Tishomingo County, Mississippi. B. J. Pinkard was born in Georgia, lived for a time in Tishomingo County, and moved to Hill County, Texas sometime after 1880.

The N. J. or Nancy of the letters is his wife; Churchy and Furnie are sons of Lucinda P. Adams. Lou is Churchy's wife; Churchy drowned in 1892. Jonah is Benjamin Pinkard's half brother.

The letters date from 1885-1893; nothing is known of B. J. Pinkard after 1893. In 1894 Lucinda Pinkard Adams moved with her son, Furnie, to Louisiana.

Mrs. L. C. Adams

My dear sister,

I seat myself to answer yore kind and most welcome letter that I received a few days ago. I was glad to here from you and to here that you was well. Me and Nancy are both well and hope you all are the same. I haven't any news to write that would interest you. We will begin planting week after next if we don't have too much rain. We have gardened some. We have set out one galon of onion sets and planted irish potatoes and english peas and parsnips, sowed mustard and letus. We have one row of multiplying shalotts about 20 steps long. I aim to eat onions this year and potatoes and greens of all kinds.

Cinda, it is a hard matter for a man to tell just precisely what kind of a country this is in a letter, though it is a fine country of a seasonable year. It is no trouble to make one bale and more of cotton to the acre and 50 bushels of corn to the acre and more some times, and of a dry year no less than half bale to the acre if it is broke deep in winter and worked well in spring. Corn if managed well in spring and summer, it will make 35 to 45 bushels to the acre. A man has to stir his stumps in the spring. Land must be broke deep in faul or winter. This is a great deal better country than any I have ever seen for farming.

Well, Cinda, I wish you was out here. I believe you would be better satisfied though you might not. I wouldn't advise anyone to come out unless they were perfectly satisfied to come.

Well, Cinda, we would be so glad to see you and Lou and her fine boy and Churchy and Furnie. I believe I would feel verry near 20 years younger. Perhaps we may see each other some day, I hope so any how. If I ever get able I intend to come to see you all. This letter is from me and Nancy to you and Lou and Churchy and Furnie. Mattie and Caline send there love to you. Tom Long's wife is dead. I hope to here from you all soon. Mr. and Mrs. McMurray send there lov and respects to you all. From yore brother and sister.

Mrs. L. C. Adams

My dear sister,

I tonight seat myself to write you a few lines to let you know that I haven't forgot you yet. I wrote to you some time ago a letter in answer to one I got from you. I wrote eight pages of this kind of paper. I recon it was too much. I will not write so much this time.

Me and Nancy are both well and Mr. McMurray and family are all well. We hope these few lines will find you all enjoying the same blessing.

Cinda, we have a fine prospect for a crop. People are verry late this year about planting their cotton. We finished planting our cotton last Saturday, the 16 of this month. That was the last Saturday it hadn't rained in about 4 or 5 weeks. Me and Mr. Mc. has 25 acres in cotton. 5 acres is up and the balance is coming up and we have 25 acres in corn.

This is as fine a country as a man need to want to see. It is a splendid farming country and it is a healthy country. The water is not like the most of people say it is. It is true enough the black mud sticks bad in winter season. It don't bother much in spring and sumer for the top of the ground soon dries off.

I most know that old country looks verry badly worin. I know I couldn't never content my self back there. Mattie told me to tell you that she had the prettyest little girl you most ever saw and as smart as she can be. Mattie talks a heap about you sometimes. Says she would like the best kind to see you. I haven't saw George Moody in a long time. I live four miles from him.

We have got a fine garden, plenty of vegetables of all kinds and we are raising lots of chickens. We have bought two milk cows. We get plenty of milk and butter. Write soon and fail not to tell all to write and to tell everything.

Mrs. L. C. Adams

My dear sister,

It is with pleasure that I seat myself to answer yore kind and most welcome letter that I received yesterday. I was glad to here from you and to know that you all was well. We are all well and hope you all the same. It has been a long time since I have herd from you. I thought you was not going to write any more. It does me a heap of good to get a letter from you.

Cinda, I want you to come out here and live with me and Nancy a while and take a view of Texas. It is a fine country and a first class farming country and as healthy a country as a man ever lived in. If a person will come here and wean themselves from there old home and be satisfied and set there head to make something and be contented with there situation it will be no trouble to make a good living. But it is no use for a person to come here unless they intend to stay. I am better satisfied than any man you ever saw. Texas just suits me. I consider that I am getting along splendid, I come here without any thing at all only one dollar and seventy five cents and I am still holding my own except the change I got here with I soon spent it. But I still live in hopes like all other people.

I am writing like I wanted you all to come out here which I do, but I will tell you one thing. If a person goes to a new country they must go to stay and be satisfied. If they think they cain't be contented it is best to stay where they are at. But I know this is away ahead of the state you live in. That country is verry poor for it was that way before I left there and I know it is wors now. A person can never promise themselves much back in them old states. Though I am this way about things, if a person has got a poor home and it is paid for and plenty around them and they are well satisfied, it is best for them to stay with it. I don't want to persuade any bddy against there own will. I don't have any idea that my writing to you all to come out here will do any good at all, but I have told the truth about this country. When it rains here the mud is verry bad to stick. It sticks sorter like sweet gum, but it don't last long, not more than one day at the time, sometimes a little longer and some times not that long, but that does not hurt anything, it don't stick so bad. A man can pick more cotton here than they can back there. I averaged 250 pounds every day last fall. The most I picked in one day was 301 pounds. I picked verry near 300 several days.

I am cultivating 43 acres, 10 acres in corn and I am going to sow 3 acres in millet. I am going to plant 30 acres in cotton. I bought a good share of mules and a wagon and a southern cliper turning plow and a souldtivor and corn and cotton planter all combined. I can ride and coultivate all my crop. I bought all of those things on 2 years time the whole outfit for farming cost me $296.00. I think I can certainly pay for them in that length of time, don't you think so to. Cows are tollerable high, from 25 to 35 dollars. I bought one last fall for 30 dollars. She is a splendid cow.

I think a heap of that little picture that Lou sent us. You said you thought he was pretty, if he looks like his picture I think he is good looking. He is just like Churchy was when he was little. Well, Cinda, you didn't know that we had a little girl. She is seven months old today, she was born the 25 of September 1885. She is as smart as a cricket. She is teething and she is a little fretful she has only one thooth that is through. I will have her picture taken as soon as I can and send it too you. I know you would think she is pretty for she favors Lou's little boy's picture. What is his name.

Well, Cinda, I recon you will think I am verry hard up for a little paper. I finished the other side and went out to get in some stove wood to get diner with and Nancy taken the baby and was going to read it and she gathered the paper that was on the table and I left the bottle of ink open and she jerked it over and spilled it on the paper that I had write on but you can read it well enough. I have to pick my chance to write my letters for I have to write for every body on this farm and others besides. There is 34 newcomers here all from Kentucky and not one of them can write a scratch and they bother me a greddeal all wet weather and Sundays and a heap of nights through the week. It worries some to and don't you forget it.

Cinda, I do wish you would come out here, you don't know how glad me and Nancy would be and you could visit around here as much as you do there. George Moody lives about 4 miles from us. Billy Malone lives about 12 miles from Hillsboro and Tom Castlebery lives about 8 miles from Hillsboro and several others live around here that I know. I live about 2 or 2½ miles southwest of Hillsboro on Bailey Harris farm. I live on the pararie. I can see as far as my eyes will let me see.

Well Nancy has got 27 young chickens and 3 hens sitting on her eggs and one on turkey eggs. We haven't had much rain though we had a big rain last night and night before and this morning and it is clearing off now so no more.

Yore devoted brother and sister.

Mrs. L. C. Adams

My dear sister,

It is with pleasure that I seat myself to answer yore kind and most welcome letter which I received a few days ago. I was glad to here from you and to know that you all was well. But you didn't write half enough. Write a long letter next time.

I was verry sorry to here about Churchy getting hurt I hope he will be more careful here after, him and Furnie both. Cinda, you all ort too see our 2 sweet little children. Our little girl will be 4 years old in September next and weighs 34 pounds. Her name is Alice May. The baby was 8 months old the 18 of this month and weighed 23 pounds. He is a rooster, don't you forget it. His name is James Thomas. It may be that I told you there names in the other letter. Alice May is a bad Papa girl.

Cinda, we want you too have yore photograph taken and sent it to us. You never have give me one of yore pictures yet. You have got 2 or 3 of mine. We will as soon as we can go to town and have all of our pictures taken and will send you one of them. You said that if I would come too see you that maybe you would come back with me. I could not leave Nancy and the children here by themselves. But I would love for you to come out here and stay with us a long time. I believe you would enjoy yoreself splendid. I got a letter from Jonah a few days ago. They are all well. Shelby was at my house last spring. I recon you head about Henry being dead. He died about 2 years ago. John's folks are all well.

I have begun to farm a little again. I finished planting corn the 13th of this month. I have got the most of my cotton land in fix for planting. The wind is blowing quite a gale from the north today almost cold enough too freeze. I believe it will freeze to night. Sometimes in midwinter we will have days that is so warm that we can't wear a coat and perhaps the next day it will be freezing cold. We are living on the Bald Pariare. I have too haul my wood about 5 miles from the cross timbers. Cinda, if you ever take a notion too come out here too see us write and let me know so I can meet you at the train. It would give me a heap of pleasure for you too come out here and stay this summer but I know you wouldn't want too leave yore 2 little grandchildren too stay long. I know that you love them verry dearly but then you could come and stay a while anyhow. Well I have wrote enough. I want you all too write too us and fail not. I am young and suple yet not a grey hair on my head yet. I am 34 years old and I don't look any older than I did 15 years ago. So no more.

From yore brother and sister

B. J. and N. J. Pinkard

Grandview, Texas
March 2, 1893

Mrs. L. C. Adams

Dear Sister,

We received your kind and most welcome letter and was glad to here from you. I was in hope you would say you was coming to see us this summer but you did not. I think sometime I will go to see you all but when I think of leaving Ben I get out of the notion and I could not let him come and leave me here for we do not know how long we will be together.

Well, I was so sorry to hear of Churchie's death but we will all have to go sooner or later. The Lord's will be done, not ours. We should live in hopes of meeting in a briter world where parting comes no more.

We had a letter from Furney last Friday. He said he would finish a job in 8 or 9 days and he thought he would get off to come to see us. I look at every train comes to see if he gets off. I do hope he will come, it will be so much pleasure for Ben. I would be so glad to see you all if you ever get to come again. I hope you will come to stay longer than you did before. I want to see you worse now than I did before you come.

Well, Alice and Jim talks about you and Tomie and Blanch. Alice said tell you to come and bring Tomie and Blanch to see her. She is going to school and rits with her left hand. I will start Jimmie to school soon.

Well, I don't expect you can make this all out as I am not verry well. I have been sick but I am about strait now. I hope this will find you all well.

With love to all of you by your sister, N. J. Pinkard

The Texas Wesleyan Banner was already in its third year of publication and has its second name when the Wednesday, April 17, 1850 issue was published in Houston, Texas with Chauncey Richardson as Editor and John W. Fields, Corresponding Editor, Vol. II, No. 1.

The following abstracts were made by members of The Local History and Genealogical Society.

Letter to the Editor from W. P. Smith of Pleasant Grove, Fayette Co., Texas. Mr. Smith enclosed a letter from his son, James A. G. Smith, which recounted the death and burial, while enroute to California, of Major John Murchison. The inscription put near the grave of Major Murchison read: "Here lies the remains of John Murchison, commander of the company of adventurers to California, organized in LaGrange, Fayette County, State of Texas, in May, 1849, and which he had conducted thus far towards its destination to the entire satisfaction of every member, when on Saturday, 28th July, A. D., 1849, he was unfortunately and accidentally killed by the discharge of his own gun. He was a pure, humble Christian, a worthy member of the M. E. Church, South, a good Freemason, and an honest man."

Obituaries:

"Death of William Jones of Anderson Co., Texas. He died on Wednesday, 20th February, in great peace, on board the Steamer Jack Hays, at Liberty, on her late trip up the Trinity. His body was interred at Washington Mound, but has since been brought up, and after a funeral and procession of the order of the Sons of Temperance, he was buried at Palestine, 24th March. His disease was of pulmonary character, perhaps an aggravated form of pneumonia. Every kindness by the physician and captain of the boat as well as of his companion (who was with him) was shown, but all was vain. The stern messenger had come, and called for his victim; and the summons must then be obeyed."

"Mrs. Sarah Dixon. Died, near Union Chapel, Robertson County, Texas, February 12th, 1850 in the triumph of the Christian faith; sister Sarah Dixon, wife of James M. Dixon, formerly of Williamson County, Tennessee; aged 33 years and 11 days.

JOHN FLANARY

By Donald Lewis Osborn

322 Willow Way, Lee's Summit, Missouri 64063

John Flanary was my great-great-great-great-grandfather--at least there is considerable evidence that he was and I feel quite certain he was. I am descended from him as follows: John Flanary (circa 1750-circa 1840), Thomas Flanary (circa 1782-circa 1870), Silas Flanary (1812-1898), David Crockett Flannary (1842-1915), Paris Clingman Flanary (1865-1949), Elsie Lydia (nee Flanary) Osborn (1903-1949), Donald Lewis Osborn (born 1933).

Thomas was definitely my ancestor; the family tradition is too strong for him to be otherwise. A written family source says that "Tommie" Flanary and Martha ("Pattie") Flanary, wife of Neddie Pennington, were brother and sister. Descendants of Pattie and Neddie know from family tradition that Pattie's parents were John and Phoebe Flanary. Then we find in W. M. Paxton's 1897 book, Annals of Platte County (Missouri), that James Flannery's father was John Flannery and that James came from Lee County, Virginia. From these sources then, we have evidence that John and Phoebe had at least 3 children: Martha (born circa 1778 or 1779) who married Edward ("Neddie") Pennington, my ancestor Thomas (born circa 1782), and James (born 1783). James married Rachel Benham (daughter of John Benham) and was sheriff of Lee County, Virginia for a period including 1828. James and Rachel moved to Platte County, Missouri in 1837. Martha and her husband were to become ancestors of most who can trace Pennington ancestry to Lee County.

Likely John and Phoebe had children other than the 3 mentioned above. Some researchers say John had children named Rebecca (married Henry Cox), Daniel, Elijah, and possibly John. There is a chance he also had a son Silas for there is one Silas I have been unable to otherwise identify--and there are 4 southwest Virginia Silases I have "placed."

What is known about John? He was a landowner and farmer, Baptist preacher, a slaveholder, and likely a Revolutionary War soldier. Emily Russell ("Coon") (nee Pennington) Flanary (1862-1951), who lived near Dryden, Lee County, Virginia, could dimly remember her older ancestors speaking of Preacher Flanary. Records prove there was a Reverend or Elder John Flanary at the right places and times to be my ancestor.

An 1814 tax list shows "Rev'd. John Flanary" residing in Lee County and owning 400 acres. It is logical--when church records are considered--that Elder Flanary and the John Flanary who owned slaves in the 1820, 1830, and 1840 Lee County censuses are one and the same man. (Lee County 1800 and 1810 census records are not extant.)

John Flanary and "Cilus" Flanary were in a Revolutionary War militia company commanded by Captain Enoch Osburn (Osborne), according to muster rolls for the early 1780's in Montgomery County, Virginia. Possibly this was my ancestor John and perhaps "Cilus" (Silas) was his brother. The Silas Flanary who died in 1802 in Russell County, Virginia had a daughter (Elizabeth) who was married in Montgomery County in 1793. The Montgomery County of the early 1780's bordered Wilkes County (that part which became Ashe in 1799), North Carolina. Many of the names on the Enoch Osborne muster rolls are identical to names of those pioneers who lived in Wilkes County, North Carolina. Apparently they all moved freely back and forth across the Virginia-North Carolina boundary.

John's daughter Martha (Flanary) Pennington was born about 1778 in North Carolina (according to the 1850 census for Lee County, Virginia). By 1782, John was apparently in Montgomery County, Virginia for his son and my ancestor Thomas was born during or around that year in the part of the county which later became Grayson County (according to the 1860 Lee County, Virginia census). This coincides with the Montgomery County muster roll dates.

In 1790, John Flanary was in the Morgan District of Wilkes County, North Carolina (according to the 1790 census records). Also, minutes of the Yadkin Baptist Association held at Eatons Meeting House, Rowan County, North Carolina in August 1790 show that John Flannery was a delegate from the North Fork Church of Wilkes County (a printed book shows John Vannoy rather than Flannery).

Then sometime before 1806, John likely moved from North Carolina to Lee County, Virginia for his son James had a son John born in Lee County in 1806. Of course this is assuming that James migrated the same time as his father. We can be certain Preacher John was there by 1811 for in October of the year 1811 some churches of the Holston Baptist Association met in Washington County, Virginia for the purpose of forming a new association. Besides the churches who had been in the Holston Association, the Deep Springs Church of Lee County had delegates present. The 3 delegates from Deep Springs were John Flannery, Zachariah Wells, and James Shepherd. They came forward and asked for admission and fellowship and were accepted so that their church was one of the 9 which organized the Washington Association of Regular Baptists. The Washington District Association records show that John Flannery was a delegate from Deep Springs Church in the years 1813, 1814 and 1822.

John Flanary was also active in churches in Kentucky. Probably he was instrumental in organizing some of them. Records of the Oven Fork Baptist Church on the Cumberland River in Harlan County, Kentucky show that it was organized on the 21st day of October 1820 and that the Presbytery was composed of John Flannery, William Wells, and Daniel Duff. John Flannery was chosen to act as Moderator for the day and was also chosen to act as pastor. A letter was written to the Deep Springs Church asking for a part of his leisure time. Oven Fork records show that John was received as pastor in March 1821. When he went to the Washington Association in Virginia in 1822 as a delegate from Deep Springs, there was correspondence with the Burning Springs Association (of Kentucky) and John Flannery was appointed to attend the Burning Springs Association's next meeting.

The Oven Fork Church records further show that John Flannery was a committee member in 1826 and 1831. Also, he was a part of the Presbytery at the Sandlick Church at Whitesburg (then Perry County, now Letcher County), Kentucky when a pastor and a deacon were being ordained there. In 1832, the Oven Fork Church asked John to bear a letter to the Deep Springs Church and in April 1833, John transferred his own letter to the Oven Fork Church from Deep Springs.

Lee County, Virginia censuses for 1820 and 1830 show that John had 4 slaves-- 2 male and 2 female. Three of these slaves became members of the Oven Fork Church for the church's records show in July 1834 that Brother Flannery's Robert, a slave, was received by experience and baptism and that Brother Flannery's Polly, a slave, and Brother Flannery's James, a slave, were received by experience and baptism. Yes, he had a race-integrated church back in the 1830's and people fret about such things today (1969)!

Did John ever tell a lie? He was at least accused of such. In 1835, he refused to sit with the Oven Fork Church because someone made such an accusation; but he proved himself clear, assumed his seat, and the church was dismissed in love. This was in August. Again, in November, William Wells accused John Flannery and David Maggard of false statements but they were cleared by the church.

Let us return to John's slaves. In July 1835, James, a slave, and his wife Polly, a slave, asked for letters of dismissal from the Oven Fork Church. Did John grant them their freedom or did he sell them to someone? In any case, they likely moved away for we find in the 1840 Lee County, Virginia census that John had only 2 slaves whereas he owned 4 in 1830.

The last time that John Flannery is mentioned in the Oven Fork Church records was when, in 1836, he, David Maggard, and William Caudill were appointed as delegates to attend the New Salem Association.

David Maggard was licensed to preach May 1837 and became pastor of the Oven Fork Church October 10, 1841. He and James Dixon had served as Moderator-for-the-day two or three times a year from 1836 to 1841. Probably they filled in for John in his declining years and he probably died in late 1840 or in 1841 so that the church had to call a pastor in 1841. The last we see of this John Flanary in census records is 1840. At that time he was living in Lee County, Virginia, aged 80 to 90. In his household was a female aged 80 to 90 (apparently his wife Phoebe), a female aged 10 to 15 (perhaps a granddaughter), a male slave aged 24 to 36, and a female slave aged 55 or above.

Lee County, Virginia deed records show that in 1815, John Flanary, Sr., and Phebe, his wife, sold 100 acres on the south side of Stocker's Knob for $400. In 1826, they sold 333 acres for $788.66 to Elijah Flanary.

Much of the above information about John Flanary's church affiliation was obtained from Dr. Billy M. Adams of Louisville, Kentucky who has, along with his father, G. Bennett Adams (deceased), done considerable research on certain early leaders of the Primitive Baptists of Virginia, North Carolina, and Kentucky.

In 1837 William Deupree wrote a letter (still preserved) to his two daughters far away from home. At that time he was 78 years old and felt there was just one step between him and the grave, but he lived to be 96 years old. Thinking our readers might be interested in times and conditions of 132 years ago we are giving excerpts from the letter as follows:

Charlotte Co. Va. Oct. 22, 1837

Dear Daughters & Families:

I intended to write to all seperately, I am so bad off with Rheumatics in my right arm its with difficulty I can. I waited for a leisure time, did not expect, he - Brooks, would leave us so soon -- till Saturday, they sent me word he was to start Monday morning, as such I write one letter hoping it will answer you both as well as if I had seperate letters as I have nothing to say to one more than the other, and that you live in friendship with each other; James told me you were all well and intended to write by him but that he started sooner than was expected..... I enjoy as good as I could expect have a good attitide to eat and sleep for which blessing I do sincerely wish I could feel humbly thankful, for experience has taught us all without health we have no real satisfaction in the things of this life, as such let us try and beg the Lord not for us to not set our affections on the fleeting things of this world, because we cant tell what day or even a moment may bright forth, for when we say peace and safety sudden destruction cometh, as such try to use the blessings he has given us so as not to abuse them

The Lord has been so good to us to place our lots in the land of liberty where we may worship him and as we think best and none to make us afraid. Let us take our Savior's counsel, Search the scriptures daily to see if these things are so, & may the Lord give each of you grace in your hearts to read and understand.

I dont know whether girls will write. Julia is improving some I think but is very poor and weak I rather think she would be willing to go to Missouri; The rest of the family tolerable well, Henry is to be married next Tuesday to a Miss James in Halifax and expects to live over there next year, your Cousin Susan is to be married next Wednesday to a Henry Jennet a very good looking youth, and your brother William next Tuesday week to a Miss Moore over the River, I have never seen her he tells me she is about thirty-eight years old and the family is to be thot to be very respectable, his family was well and Mary & her little family four days ago. Prudence keeps about but not very well, the children all well as common, Coleman going on selling croods but not very fast; they have a Post office there called Duprees Old Store, if you write letters direct them there, to save me trouble and tell the friends of it; Lucy and her children well; Polly and her family no complaint a few days ago as to the rest I heard a few days ago old friend Harmon was complaining pretty much he has not been very well thro the summer the ; have not heard how Osbourne comes on; Peps has rented two old plantations in Lunenburg as poor as any in the County I think - dry through the season - crops very short, corn woth from $2½ to $3 it so dry we cant sow our wheat, our crop of corn tolerable for the year.

Dr Daughters you will see my hand trembles so sometimes I can hardly write a word & the time so short I could not write separate to each; I hope you will receive thse lines wrote to you all in love and friendship as I hope you all live, so read in therewith as much comfort as if they had been separate, we both wish you to receive them as a token of love to each member of the families, be sure to give my respect to each of the other dear Children in particular, and to old Mr. Gregory and wish the Lord may bless you all in time and that you may be prepared for Eternity dont forget us as a throne of Grace as there is but a step between me and the Grave Farewell

TEXAS ALMANAC - 1858
DESCRIPTION OF THE COUNTIES

COLORADO

Is bounded on the North by Austin and Fayette; East by Austin and Wharton; South by Wharton and Lavaca; West by Lavaca and Fayette. The Colorado runs through the centre of this county, with a number of small tributaries from the county. The water for drinking purposes is poor. The surface is undulating, about one half covered with post and live oak. The soil away from the river is sandy; on the river it is very rich and productive. There is an abudance of peaches, though little of any other fruit, as yet; health is very good, the river bottoms being generally high, and dry; there are as yet but few well established churches and schools. Lavaca has hitherto been the seaport and market, being distant some 100 miles from Columbus, the County Seat. The recent construction of the B.B., B. & C.R.R. has a tendency to draw the trade by way of Richmond and Harrisburg, to Galveston; this road is now in rapid construction to Columbus, little hope being placed upon the Colorado as a highway. This county was created December 20th, 1836, from the Municipality of the same name.

COMANCHE

Is bounded on the North by Erath and the unorganized territory North of Pecan Bayou; East, by Bosque and Coryell; South by Coryell and Lampasas; West by Brown county. The Leon flows through it, with a few tributaries. For drinking and stock purposes the water is excellent. The surface is undulating, about one-third supplied with post-oak, elm, hackberry and ash. In the bottoms the soil is excellent, elsewhere dry and poor. The seaport and market will be Lavaca, distant from Camden, its County Seat, some 310 miles. The S.P.R.R. will pass along its northern point. This county was created in 1856, and it is too new to occupy as yet more than a small place in any notice of Texas.

TEXAS ALMANAC - 1858

COMAL

Is bounded on the North by Hays and Gillespie; East, by Hays and Guadalupe; South, by Guadalupe and Bexar; West, by Kerr, Bexar and Gillespie, the Guadalupe, with many tributaries flowing into it as it rolls through the centre of this county; the Cibolo skirting its northern boundary. For drinking and stock purposes, water is abundant and most excellent; the surface is rolling, and even mountainous in parts, about one-third supplied with scrubby live oak and mesquite; the soil is excellent in the valleys, but good for nothing besides grazing elsewhere. In the valley land, the peach, pear, grape and other fruits have been successfully cultivated. Health is excellent. In the towns some attention is paid to churches and schools. Lavaca is both the seaport and market, being some 150 miles distant from New Braunfels, which is the County Seat and principal town in the county, located in the rich valley of Guadalupe. The county was originally settled by a colony from Germany, and was created March 24th, 1848, from Bexar and Travis counties.

CORYELL

Is bounded North by McLennan, Bosque and Comanche; East by McLennan and Ellis; South by Ellis and Lampasas; West by Comanche and Lampasas. The Leon flows through it, into which flow a number of tributary streams within the county. The water is pure and healthful. The surface of this county is rolling; about one-third supplied with live and post oak. The soil in the valleys is of a dark, rich loam. The Peach has been successfully introduced. Health is good. As yet, churches and schools are scarce. Galveston is the seaport, distant from Gatesville, the County Seat, some 270 miles. Houston is the market. The Southern Pacific Railroad will run some thirty miles from its Northern line. This county was created February 4th, 1854, and taken from Bell County.

THE REDDEN FAMILY OF TEXAS

Richard S. Uhrbrock, 22 North Congress Street, Athen, Ohio 45701

Little research has been done on the REDDEN family of Texas. In early records the name has been spelled REDDIN and REDDING. Probably the earliest Texas record connected with the name is that which refers to a grant of land to Isaac Reddin (s) in 1838. (1) Of interest are the details of the administration of the estate of James F. Reddin in 1848. The final settlement in favor of P. Witt, Deed No. 568, is recorded in the Courthouse, Dallas. Records read as follows:

April 11, 1848, Judge John Cole, Judge of Probate Court, Dallas County, Texas was petitioned by Pleasant Witt. "James F. Reddin ... about the month of May 1847, departed this life intestate, leaving no relatives in the State of Texas as your petitioner is informed and verily believes, said Reddin left a conditional certificate for the amount of (320 acres) three hundred and twenty acres of Land issued to him by the Board of Land Commissioners of the County of Red River. That afterwards, to wit, in the year 1843 said Reddin executed to Preston Witt, a bond by which he bound himself to procure from a Board of Land Commissioners an unconditional certificate and to transfer the same to said Preston Witt. That there may be due said Reddin from the Government an amt. to your petitioner unknown ... your petitioner prays that your Honorable Court will grant to him, Letters of Administration on the estate of said Decedent." Dallas, Texas, April 11, 1848. (Signed)

Pleasant Witt & J. C. McCoy, his Attorney.

Letters of Administration were issued May 29, 1848. $300.00 bond. "Headright Certificate transferred to Preston Witt by Order of Probate Court, Dallas, Texas." May 1848.

In the July term of Probate Court (1848) Preston Witt petitioned the Court to order Pleasant Witt to convey Certificate to Preston Witt. "... said Pleasant Witt in his capacity of administrator aforesaid since the Death of said Decedent, never has conveyed or transferred the right to said described Certificate or to any part thereof to your petitioner ... doth refuse to do the same, to the great damage of your petitioner, the sum of One Thousand Dollars." (Signed) Preston Witt, by J. C. McCoy.

Final Settlement by Court, February 14, 1849, Jno. W. Smith, Clk. Approved in Open Court, February 26, 1849. On same date Pleasant Witt paid $8.90 Administration fee. McCoy ack. receipt for $10.00 for services.

Although JAMES F. REDDIN filed claim for 320 acres of land with the Board of Land Commissioners in Red River County the land was located in Tarrant County, Texas. The explanation is as follows: "This Board of Land Commissioners was a body which operated while Texas was still a Republic prior to 1846. A good many settlers got their headrights from this Board but located their land in other Counties, sometimes hundreds of miles from Red River County." (2) A letter from the General Land Office, Austin, states: "There is of record in this office by Certificate No. 7, where JAMES F. REDDING (sic) received a grant of 320 acres of land which was located in Tarrant County and patented to the heirs on November 13, 1860. Nothing further is given with reference to this grant, neither is there any record of the date and place of his birth nor the marital status of this party." (3)

The name REDDEN has been well-known in Delaware and Maryland and New Jersey since the Eighteenth Century. JOHN REDDEN married ANNA CLEANE at Old Swedes, Newcastle County, Delaware, June 6, 1756. (4) About 1807 young NEHEMIAH REDDEN and his cousin SHADRACH REDDEN went from Worcester County, Maryland to Kentucky. Many details concerning the REDDEN family are available at the Library of the Maryland Historical Society, Baltimore, the Hall of Records, Dover, Delaware and the Filson Library, Louisville, Ky.

Farquhar

Alfred Washington and Austin Cos., Texas app. 1840-1880. There was at one time a Farquhar genealogy, but it was burned. It has been told to me by older members of the family that the first Farquhars to come to the U.S. came from Scotland after the revolution there. They were John and Alfred. In the late 1700's and early 1800's they lived in North Carolina and then moved to Mississippi and finally to Texas. I shall greatly appreciate any information on any of this family. (James T. Ramsey, Jr., 2007 Althea, Houston 18, Texas OV2-5611)

Farr

Dianna (Bethel?, Georgiana?) married Herrick. b. 1833, Sterling, Illinois or New York. In 1854, a brother and his wife lived for the winter with Dianna and her husband, O. F. Herrick, in Sterling, Ill. Dianna died July 1, 1869. I don't know where. It is possible that the brother's name was Daniel T. and that they were from Seneca County, New York. Daniel T. settled in Maquoketa, Iowa in 1854. (Georgiana S. Robertson, 6118 Glendora, Dallas 75230, 368-0632)

Featherston (E-stun)

England, Virginia (Henrico and Chesterfield 1743-1810) Weakley Co., Tennessee. 1811 til present time. Would like any information on Henry Featherstone of Chesterfield Co., Va. He is said to have been a Methodist minister. Am especially interested in knowing his birth date and date of his marriage to Elizabeth Marshall. Henry was one of three brothers who came to Va. ca. 1743 (other two were Charles and Edward). I believe that his father also came and that his name was Charles. Also believe that Charles, the father, married Phebe Walthall (would like proof of marriage of Charles and Phebe. Phebe Walthall is said to have been the daughter of Henry Walthall, will dated _____, who married Phebe Ligon, dau. of Thomas Ligon of Henrico Co., Virginia). Henry Featherstone d. Fine (Fijn, Fÿn, Fein, Fin, Finn)

On the microfilm of New Netherlands Families, I would like to know what might be available in tying my Fine family. I really need a clue on the use of the name Vinet (Winenot, Winant, Wÿnant, Vinott) as a Christian name. I have found where a Wÿnant Van Zandt was present at the baptism of a child of one Frederick Fÿn and Jannetje Van Zante in the Reformed Dutch Church records published in the New York Gen. & Biog. Record. My Vinet Fine was b. in Virginia according to some write-ups, but I would think it odd if he was the first of that name. Some of the allied families seem to be Lefferts, Van Zandt, Remsen, Skillman, Ten Eyck, Jansse, and Marschalk. They are located at Newtown, Long Island; New York; Bergen Co., New Jersey; and some insolated info in other nearby areas. I did find a reference to a book review of New Netherlands Families, by Wilson V. Ledley, 1958, which refers to Jan Janszen Fÿn as progenitor of Dutch Fine's. If there is a write-up on the Fine name, tell me how much it would cost to get a print made, and maybe we can handle it that way, especially if it is very long. (Donald J. Arnold, 5504 16th Place, Lubbock, Texas 79416.)

TEXAS ALMANAC - 1858

COOKE

Is bounded on the North by Red River, separating it from the Medina territory; East by Denton and Grayson; West, by Young and the Fannin Land District; South, by Wise and Parker. Besides Red River, a number of small streams rise in it, tributary to the Trinity, furnishing a tolerably well watered territory. For drinking purposes, the water is only tolerable. The surface is undulating, one-fourth supplied with a growth of post oak and elm. The soil is black prairie earth, very productive for grains suited to that latitude. Fruits are quite abundant. Health is not better in any county in the State. Schools are numerous and well sustained. The church membership in this county is said to bear a larger proportion than any other county. Galveston is the seaport, distant from Gainesville, the County Seat, some 375 miles. Jefferson is also a market, being some 135 miles nearer. Transportation is by ox-teams. This county was created March 20th, 1848, from Fannin County.

DR. JOHN A. FREEMAN
EARLY PHYSICIAN OF DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS
Submitted by Mrs. Vernal D. Tuttle
1416 South Avenue "B", Portales, New Mexico 88130

John A. Freeman, early-day physician, was born about the year 1821-1822, somewhere in Tennessee.¹ He died in late June, 1871 in Dallas County, Texas. An article in the "Dallas Herald" under date of June 24, 1871 tells of the finding of his body near the Caruth farm, six miles north of Dallas. A later edition of the Herald is being sought as a source of additional information. It is hoped that his obituary may be found and a copy obtained for family records. Traditionally, the Dr. is buried in a family plot located between Oak Cliff and Cockrell Hill. Family members recall a letter asking permission to re-inter those in the private burying grounds and it is believed that his remains may have been moved to a public cemetery. However, no money was ever paid to my informant for the right-of-way that supposedly took precedent over the resting place of our Freeman dead. Letters to the older Funeral Homes in the Dallas area failed to yield a single clue as to the physical location of this old burying ground. I am told that no records were kept concerning these private cemeteries.

Dr. John A. was first married, in the 1840s, and they were the parents of nine children, not all of whom reached their majority. Shortly after the death of his first wife, the Dr. married, in the 1850s, Nancy, believed to have been a daughter of James Mulliken of Virginia and Tennessee. There were nine children born of the second marriage and here too not all lived past infancy and early childhood. There were several sets of twins of both marriages. The dates and places of the marriages have not been determined.

Of the first children, only James M., Simon E., and Grace are known. According to the 1870 Federal Census of Dallas County, James M. was born c1848 in Tenn.; Simon E. was born c1850 also in Tenn. Grace Freeman was already living elsewhere in 1870, perhaps with her known husband, Judge Scott of Cisco, Texas. Traditionally, James M. went to Arkansas and was thought to have owned and operated a Men's Clothing Store in Little Rock. The Little Rock City Directory yields only a James A. Freeman living there 1897-1898 and he operated a saw mill. Simon E. "Sim" was known to have lived in Grand Prairie. Both, James M. and Simon E. were unmarried in 1870 and living with their father and step-mother.

John A. and Nancy's children were: Rachel C. "Kate" born 1857-1858 in Tennessee; John B. "Jack" born 1858-1859, Tenn.; Robert M. b. 1862-1863, Tenn.; Marion Francis and George W., twins, born 14 April 1868, Texas. Marion F. died about age 4 years from chills and fever. The other four children are assumed to have died in infancy or youth.

Rachel C. "Kate" Freeman was first married to Bill Combs, one time County Judge in Dallas County. She married second in her 72nd year. The name of her last husband is not known.

John B. "Jack" Freeman is believed to have settled in Oklahoma where he was a prominent land owner and farmer in "Paul's Valley."

Robert Murphy Freeman was born 30 Oct. 1862, in Tenn. per census, but in Cedar Glades, Arkansas according to his own statement. Cedar Glades was in Montgomery County in 1862 and is now beneath the waters of Lake Quachita which area is now in Garland County. Dr. Robert M. was only age 9 when his father died and when a young man went to live with a French family named Revershon. He was educated by the foster parents and graduated from Baylor University, Medical Department on 27 April 1907. He practiced medicine in Dallas County and was known to have been on the staff at St. Pauls Hospital. He was a member of The Dallas County Medical Society and it was this society who furnished many of the clues that led to factual information concerning Dr. Robert M. Late in life, he married a Frenchwoman named Anne. Dr. Robert M. died 20 Jan. 1935 and rests in a mausoleum in the Oak Lawn section of Dallas.

George Washington Freeman, youngest child of the second marriage, was born 14 April 1868, in Denton or Dallas County. He died 22 June 1953 in the Ranger General Hospital, Ranger, Texas and was buried 23 June in the Bullock Cemetery near Ranger. Volume R, page 484 of Dallas County Marriage Records contains the record of his marriage to Miss Annie Rebecca Long on 2 Oct. 1899. Annie was the daughter of William Samuel and Amanda (Clarke) Long, who were married 31 Dec. 1878 in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

George W. and Annie R. (Long) Freeman had three children: Roberta Eva born 7 July 1900 in Dallas County, Texas; William Lee born 4 June 1902 in Dallas County; and Frankie Mae born 14 Nov. 1906 in Cleveland County, Oklahoma. Roberta E. married Jesse Leonard Miller, William Lee married Louise Blanton, and Frankie M. married Charles Emery Beck.

Only the descendants of George W. Freeman are known.

By 1899, George W. was a partner in the restaurant business in Dallas, as this was his occupation when he married, Miss Annie Rebecca Long. The restaurant adjoined and was connected to a "saloon" with swinging doors. Because of her fear that George would be harmed by a drunk who strayed into the eating establishment, Annie insisted that my grandfather sell out, which he did.

For the next few years they lived in the Oak Cliff and Cockrell Hill sections and it was here that my mother, Roberta Eva, was born 7 July 1900. In 1903 they moved to Oklahoma and it was in Moore, Cleveland County that my mother's only sister was born 14 Nov. 1906. She also had one brother, William Lee, b. 1902 in Dallas. In 1907 they moved into Oklahoma City and lived on Capitol Hill near an aunt of my grandfather's. This aunt, Sarah Kirby Moore was supposedly a sister to Dr. Freeman, but if the death certificate that I have is correctly the Sarah of our family, she was a sister to my great grandmother. This Sarah was born 8 April 1833 in Indiana. Father, James Mulliken b. Virginia; mother, a Forbes b. Kentucky. Sarah was married first to a Kirby and second to a Moore. Not that I hold any great stock in this being helpful but if I ever find a Freeman who married Mullikin, female ... I can be persuaded that I am on the right track.

By the late 1908 George and Annie moved back to Dallas, going over into Stephens County by 1913.
