THE SAMUELL FAMILY OF DALLAS
PART II
by
COL. EDWARD W. SAMUELL, JR. (Ret.)

Washington Samuell, Kentucky famer and father of the first Dallasite Samuell, was born on 1 December 1796 in north central Kentucky. (1) He was the son of Cornstalk Militia Captain, William Samuell, Junior, and Judith Dupuy Samuell, (2) whose antecedents may be traced to the Crusader warriors of Godfrey de Bouillon and a grand chamberlain of the Holy Roman Empire. (3) He was to never know his mother for she died within two years of his birth, probably during the childbirth of his sister Mary in 1798. (4)

Following this tragedy, subsequent events suggest that his father sought the help of their grandmother, the widowed Mary Mottley Dupuy, (5) who was to exercise strong influence over the two children during their adolescence. Within two years their father married a second time to Ann Clark Marshall and started a second family near Newcastle, Henry County, Kentucky. (6)

Tragedy struck again with his premature death in 1804, leaving the two infants completely in the care of their grandmother. In the same year, the two children became joint owners of 450 acres in Woodford County, Kentucky, as the result of the settlement of the estate of their grandfather, Bartholomew Dupuy, a veteran of the campaigns of George Rogers Clarke. (8)

Washington and Mary remained under the care of their grandmother at least through the year 1812; during which time the settlement of the estate of their father resulted in their receiving three slaves and a sum of $982.75. (9)

By 1819, Washington and Mary Samuell had left the home of their grandmother in Woodford County and moved to Scott County, Kentucky. The sale of Nelson County land to Alexander McClure that year suggests that the two children spent some of their adolescence in that county between 1812 and 1819. (10) During this period, Washington may have lived in Henry County because he acquired 70 acres of land there. However, by 1823 he had settled in Scott County on Cane Run in the bluegrass country of Kentucky. (11)

On 13 November 1825, Washington Samuell married Nancy F. Gray, daughter of Colonel Presley Gray of Gallatin County. (12) Nancy's father, a veteran of Yorktown, had fought extensively in the Indian Wars of 1790-94, and like Washington's father, held a commission in the Kentucky Cornstalk Militia. In the War of 1812 he mobilized and trained a battalion of Kentucky militiamen for Andrew Jackson's Army in the South. (13) Her mother, Agnes Singleton Gray, daughter of Samuel Singleton of Loudoun County, Virginia, is descended from the DeVere Family of England, the Earls of Oxford. (14)

Washington Samuell took his new wife to the farm on Cane Run, which by now had reached a value of $1,500. (15) In 1827 Washington expanded his land holdings with the purchase of over 600 acres along Barebone Creek from Sheriff Richard Barbour of Oldham County, Kentucky. (16) By the end of the decade, Washington's property had increased in value by another $1,000. (17)

About this time, Washington's sister Mary married David Castleman Suggett. It appears from the records that the Dupuys referred to Washington's sister as Polly, but later records suggest that Mary was actually her given name. David Suggett appears to have preferred to call her Mary. (18)

In 1832, the first child, daughter Eleanora, was born. (19) The next family event, an important one for this history, was the marriage of Eleanor Gray, sister of Nancy Gray Samuel, to Hazael B. Offutt in 1833 and the latter's move with his new wife to a neighboring Cane Run farm. (20) In the following year, 1834, a second daughter, Edmonia, was born to Washington and Nancy, (21) followed by the first son, Richard Presley Samuel in 1836. (22) In 1838 son James was born, followed by Joel four years later. (23)

As his family grew in number, Washington's land grew in value. By 1837 his property was valued at $26,000 which now included 360 acres on Cane Run, ten male slaves over the age of 16, horses valued at $625 and cattle valued at $400. (24)

On 20 June 1844 the future Police Commissioner of Dallas, Hazael Offutt Samuel, was born. His mother's sister, Eleanor Gray Offutt, and her husband were childless. In a manner not unusual to the times, Nancy turned the child over to her sister, Eleanor and Hazael Offutt raised the boy as their own, even to the extent that his foster father bestowed his own name on him. (25)

From 1852 to 1867 the value of Washington Samuel's property continued to rise, increasing from $28,300 to almost $45,000 at the time of his death. (26)

Hazael Offutt Samuel was followed by two more brothers, Washington, Junior, born in 1847, and William C. Samuel, born in 1852. Even before the latter was born, Washington and Nancy's children began to marry. Edmonia married Richard West on 15 December 1851, and Eleanor was betrothed to Marcellus Polk in 1854. Richard Presley married Annie Elizabeth Smith on 30 October 1856. However, these happy events were interrupted by the early passing of Joel at the age of 19 on 11 April 1861. (27)

For the first time, Washington decided to hold a public office and in September 1862 he took the oath required by law as Deputy Clerk of the Scott County Court. (28)

Two years later on 23 August 1864 James married Margaret A. "Puggie" Patterson. (29) This was the last family wedding Washington and Nancy were destined to see; for Nancy passed away on 15 October 1865 and Washington died within two years on 6 January 1867. Both were buried in the Samuel plot in the Georgetown Cemetery, Georgetown, Kentucky. (30)

By this time Hazael Offutt Samuel was heavily involved in live stock raising on his foster father's farm. With the heavy demand of the Northern Army for meat, it appears likely that he was able to breed a large herd in the blue grass country along Cane Run. (31)

For another nine years he was to remain in this part of Kentucky, travelling infrequently to Newcastle, Henry County. (32) Then on 30 August 1874 his foster father, Hazael B. Offutt, passed away, leaving his entire estate to his wife, Eleanor Gray Offutt. (33)

On 29 October 1876, Hazael Offutt Samuel married Sallie Worthington of Leota Landing, Mississippi, located a few miles south of Greenville, on the Mississippi River. She was the daughter of Dr. William Waring Worthington and Elizabeth Payne Thomson Worthington. (34) Dr. Worthington was the son of Judge William Worthington of MacLean County, Kentucky, and veteran of the War of the Revolution who had escaped a British prisoner of war camp following his testimony for the prosecution during the court-martial of the camp commander for maltreatment of prisoners. (35) Elizabeth Payne Thomson was the daughter of Charles Thomson and Sallie Payne Thomson of Scott County, Kentucky, whose Thomson ancestors can be traced to Ayrshire, Scotland, and whose Payne lineage is distinguished by Brigadier General John Payne of the Kentucky militia who successfully fought the Miami Indians and the British in the War of 1812. (37)

Several months following the birth of their first son, Will Worthington Samuell, on 13 January 1878, H. O. and Sallie Samuell packed their belongings and departed the Cane Run farm of Aunt Eleanor Gray Offutt and headed for Dallas, (38) where six years before Sallie Worthington had acquired 145 acres of land. (39) They settled near New Hope on the outskirts of Dallas.

Three years later on 22 October 1881, son Joel Samuell was born. He was followed on 15 September 1883 by his sister Elizabeth Thomson Samuell, and on 14 June 1885, the third son, Edward Worthington Samuell, was born. Within three years, a fourth son, Hazael Offutt Samuell, Junior, arrived on 22 May 1887. Sadly, he lived only a short time, passing away on 23 September 1888. (40) His grave is beside that of his grandfather, Dr. William W. Worthington, in the cemetery at Georgetown, Kentucky.

Following his arrival in Dallas, H. O. Samuell continued to participate in live stock raising as he had done in Kentucky. However, in Texas he specialized in blood-ed shorthorn. As his herd expanded so did his land holdings and he became involved in the buying and selling of land. (41)

Tragedy struck on 29 December 1903 when his second son, Joel, by now a young lawyer, was killed in a hunting accident near Leota Landing, Mississippi, the site of the Worthington home. (42)

Less than three years later, in April 1906, H. O. Samuell became Police Commissioner for the City of Dallas. (43) Within three months he was named to the executive board responsible for handling all matters relating to the distribution of the county road laws. (44) On 20 August 1906 at a meeting of the Municipal Commission, attended by H. O. Samuell and Mayor Curtis P. Smith, the two gentlemen approved a city ordinance granting to J. Mercer Carter and Associates a franchise for an interurban electric railway. This city ordinance was passed in spite of strenuous opposition on the part of the railroad companies. (45) However, less than three weeks later, he was overruled in the Municipal Commission when the Mayor and the Fire Commissioner voted for awarding the contract for the material and construction of the Ervay Street storm sewer, Samuell felt that the council was not acting in good faith when it decided to use street improvement bonds for sewer construction. His strong opposition to the diversion of funds for the Ervay Street storm sewer was based on his feeling that most of the city streets needed improvement and that the limited funds available for street maintenance should not be diverted for other uses. (46) In spite of his being overruled in this instance, he initiated on 12 September 1906 an effort to obtain additional funds for street improvement in the amount of $600,000. In order to obtain these funds he proposed an amendment to the City Charter to permit the city to modify its limit on bonded indebtedness to permit it to float the $600,000 bond issue for street improvements. (47)

On 29 October 1906 his only daughter Elizabeth (Bettie) Thomson Samuell married Harry Williams. (48) The family of Harry Williams arrived from England and settled in Lincoln County, North Carolina, at the middle of the 18th Century. After fighting in the War of the Revolution, the family moved westward to Tennessee and Missouri and then to Dallas. (49)

By this time, the oldest son, W. W. Samuell, had completed his medical education which included attendance at the University of Texas, a medical degree from Tulane University, and two years study in Europe. (50)

On 28 December 1911, the first grandchild of H. O. and Sallie Samuell was born -- a granddaughter, Hazael Samuell Williams. This blessed event was followed within a year by the marriage of Dr. W. W. Samuell to Anne Lovell on 2 September 1912. (51) Anne Lovell, born in Brownwood, Texas, and obtained her registered nursing degree from St. Paul's Training School of Nurses, was the daughter of Thomas Lovell and Teresa Bagley Lovell, both of whom were born in Glasgow, Scotland. (52)

In less than two years, Dallas saw the passing of Sallie Worthington Samuell on 8 July 1914. She was laid to rest beside her son, Joel, at the Oakland Cemetery in Dallas. (53)

By now, the youngest son, Ed Samuell, had completed law school, established a law practice, and worked as a public defender at both the Dallas City Hall and Dallas County Court House. Just prior to America's entry into World War I, he headed west to Arizona where he met Bonnie Raymond Tolleson Cover and married her on 25 August 1917 in Phoenix.

World War I was to see the two sons of H. O. Samuell called to active duty in the U. S. Army. Ed Samuell enlisted on 1 June 1918 and served three months as a private in the 14th Infantry and three months as a second lieutenant in Company 35, 9th Battalion, 168th Depot Brigade at Camp Dodge, Iowa, from where he was honorably discharged on 2 December 1918. He was subsequently to serve for a short period as a captain in the Arizona National Guard in 1923. (54) Dr. W. W. Samuell entered the service as a captain in the U. S. Army on 1 November 1918 and served as a medical officer with the Surgical Division, Base Hospital, at Camp Travis. (55)

On the last day of 1917, Elizabeth Samuell Williams, the second daughter of Harry and Bettie Williams was born. Within a year and a half, the third daughter, Anne Samuell Williams, arrived on 19 May 1919. (56)

By this time, Dr. W. W. Samuell had become widely acclaimed in Dallas as a physician and surgeon. As a young doctor and ambulance surgeon, he opened his practice at 213 Main Street in 1904. Within two years he moved his medical office to the Wilson Building where it remained until he established the Samuell Clinic in 1923. It was primarily during this period of his career that he accumulated the property which was to form the basis of his gift to the City of Dallas. (57)

In the meantime, his brother, Ed Samuell, had expanded his involvement in the community affairs of Phoenix and increased his ranch holdings in Arizona. In 1924 he was a candidate for governor of Arizona while serving as Secretary to the Board of Directors of State Institutions. He was also Chairman of the state Democratic Party during this time. In addition to these two positions he was the Purchasing Agent for the State Highway Department. (58)

At the time, both of his sons were gaining prominence, one in Dallas and one in Arizona, Hazael Offutt Samuell passed away at 3409 Worth Street on 20 February 1922. (59) The last of his grandchildren, Edward Worthington Samuell, Junior, was born in Long Beach, California, on 1 August 1923.

The decade, coming to an almost violent end with the beginning of the depression, brought a finish to the political activities of Ed Samuell in Arizona. Nevertheless, he responded to this adversity by joining the Civilian Conservation Corps and rose to be its regional director throughout the State of Arizona by the end of the Thirties.

As Dr. Samuell's fame as a surgeon spread beyond Texas during the first half of the Thirties, he experienced a deep loss in the passing of his wife, Anne Lovell

Samuell, from amoebic dysentery on 12 January 1934 in Dallas. (60)

Dr. Samuell was one of the most prominent men in his profession in Dallas. Besides his extensive training and experience, he was a member of the distinguished medical staffs of Methodist, Baylor, and St. Paul's Hospitals. According to his colleagues, he normally required not more than six minutes to perform an appendectomy and by the time of his passing he is estimated to have performed more operations than any other surgeon in the country. His time was not totally devoted to medicine. Like his father, he was active in the Baptist Church, and like his brother, a member of the Democratic Party. He enjoyed playing golf and fishing and he was an expert with both handguns and rifles. Like both his father and brother, he was interested in cattle, his Shorthorn herds being the first in the State of Texas to be accredited tuberculosis-free by the Federal Government. He took pride in his city as evidenced by the medical services he performed for the Dallas Police and Fire Departments. (61)

The last few years of his life he spent with Adelaide Keating Bradford Samuell, whom he married on 22 January 1935. (62)

On 12 December 1937, Dr. Samuell, passed away following a short illness. His legacy to the City of Dallas is best expressed in his own words as they were written in his will, scribbled on a piece of his office Stationery, on 9 November 1936: "Real estate to City Dallas Park Board -- for park purposes -- not to be sold -- Bal to Park Board, or permanent foundation First Nat Bank, administration. W. W. Samuell." (63)

This succinct bequest amounted to more than one million dollars in property and money including nearly 1000 acres of raw land, now developed into parks. (64) Today the legacy of Dr. Samuell is valued in excess of fifteen million dollars which includes six parks covering an area of 2,000 acres. The properties included in or acquired as a result of the bequest are these:

Samuell-Grand Park between Samuell Boulevard and East Grand Samuell-East Park, 600 acres on Interstate 20 in Mesquite east of Belt Line
Samuell-New Hope, 120 acres just north of Samuell-East Park on Belt Line
Samuell-Garland, 120 acres at Garland Road and Northwest Highway
Elm Fork Nature Trail, 900 acres west of Interstate 35 in North Dallas
Samuell-Lake Cliff, 4½ acres between Zang and Colorado Boulevards
Samuell-Elam, 200 acres near Prairie Creek and Elam Roads in southeast Dallas

Following World War II, Ed Samuell left Arizona and moved to Santa Barbara, California, where he became first involved in home development and later he worked with the Santa Barbara Water Department. He passed away on 7 March 1972 and was laid to rest in the Santa Barbara Cemetery. (66)

Harry and Bettie Williams raised their daughters in Dallas, saw them married and have children. They saw their grandchildren raised and have their children. By the time of Harry Williams' passing on 13 July 1970 in Dallas, he had known six of his great grandchildren. The family of Harry and Bettie Williams is as follows:

"It is a popular superstition that a visitor to the more distant parts of the United States is spoken to as 'Stranger.' But when I went to Texas I was called 'Captain'; when I got to the center of the country (Texas) I was addressed as 'Colonel'; and, on arriving at the borders of Mexico as 'General'." -- Oscar Wilde

JACOB ROUTH - SPRING CREEK CEMETERY

Plano, Texas

compiled by
Betty Butler, Peggy Oliver and Dorotha Russell

In "The Saga of Jacob Routh" written by Henry Coit and published in the "Richardson Echo" and the "Richardson Daily News" in October of 1964, he wrote:

"The Burial Ground. When Jacob Routh arrived at his new farm in November, 1851, there were two graves on a small plot of ground in the tall prairie grass, one having a stone in memory of the wife (Nancy) of William Beverly who had died in June that year. The other grave, unmarked was that of the child of an immigrant who was camped at the Spring Creek camping place. Jacob Routh then set aside an acre for a public burial ground and after the 20th of October buried his mother there. The marker is still easily read. Most of the early pioneers of the section were buried here - Becks, Yanceys, Bunches, Moores, and Greens of near Allen; Skiles, Rowlands, Fouches, Greers and Drakes from near Richardson; Dr. Baird and wife; Capt. Harris and wife, the wife of Jesse Chinn and the Halsells from near Dallas and from the Duck Creek community Moremans, Leak, Wainscott and Wheeler families. It was a resting place for near neighbors, Washington and Jefferson Routh families, the Lyles, Kennedy, Sandifer and Lively families. Many graves are unmarked; some had had markers of the native white rock that later dissolved into soil."

This cemetery, just east of and on land adjoining Highway 75, is now enclosed with a high chain link fence which has a gate that is kept locked. On March 5, 1972, Betty Butler, Peggy Oliver and Dorotha Russell obtained a key from a member of the Skiles family and went to the cemetery and copied all the information possible from the stones. The names have been listed alphabetically for publication.

There is a smaller Routh Cemetery nearer the highway. It is surrounded by a four feet high chain link fence. Information from it is also being printed as it was copied.

ROUTH CEMETERY

Small Fenced Cemetery near Highway - Copied by Betty Butler, Peggy Oliver and Dorothe Russell
5 March 1972

JACOB ROUTH	22 Dec. 1818	30 Apr. 1879
MRS. L. A. ROUTH	16 Nov. 1833	8 Oct. 1916
ROSE ROUTH	18 Sept. 1874	24 Sept. 1954
CLARA ROUTH	7 June 1876	1 June 1962

(Rose Routh and Clara Routh are listed on one large stone)

Outside the fence are three small stones marked:

SHARON
THEDA

We learned from Mrs. Henry Coit that these stones marked the graves of the horses, cat and dogs of Rose and Clara Routh.

ROUTH - SPRING CREEK - PLANO - FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

by Henry Coit

In 1853 Jacob Routh felt that he was called to preach and was ordained a minister of the Baptist Church. He conducted church services in the little log school building on his farm, most of his early congregation members being of the Routh families. He continued these services at Spring Creek Baptist Church until 1872. The congregation decided to move to Plano, a mile and a half north.

There it became known as the Plano Baptist Church and later as the First Baptist Church of Plano. For the new church building, Jacob gave $625 and a house and a lot in Plano. Until his death he was an active member of this church and served as pastor at various times. It was a basic principle with him that he never accepted pay for his services until finally, other preachers objected. Then he accepted pay but passed it on to needy people. At times he kept these people in his home.

In 1874 the first building for the church was erected. Bidders on the little 40 x 60 foot building were Howell & Thompson of Dallas and a Mr. Cothard of Panola, Mo. In April 1874, E. F. Bates issued his receipt to Jacob Routh for the payment of $398.50 to cover 15,942 feet of lumber at $25 per 1000 feet. Cost of the building is not known. Since that day, this First Baptist Church of Plano has been one of the strongest churches in Collin County, always taking care of its financial and spiritual responsibilities.

LAKWOOD COMMUNITY ORAL HISTORY

You are warmly invited to join the Lakewood Branch of the Dallas Public Library in a program designed to capture and preserve on tape the "good old days" of the Lakewood Community. This is our Oral History Project.

Two categories of participants are needed. On the one hand, we will need interviewers. Your only investment is time, in small or large quantities. Recorders and tapes will be provided from funds contributed by the Friends of the Dallas Public Library. Instruction in the use of the equipment, basic techniques of interviewing and background information on the history of Lakewood and Dallas will be available.

On the other hand, we must have those who have lived this history and are willing to share it. If you have lived in Lakewood for twenty years, you qualify as a source of information. Interviews will be conducted by appointment and may be held in your home or in the Lakewood Library Auditorium.

The Lakewood Community is the geographical area from Northwest Highway to Haskell, from Central Expressway, circling White Rock Lake, to R. L. Thornton Freeway. Within these boundaries we find one of the city's last concentrations of families who can chronicle the growth, the breaking down, the building up, the changing patterns of life. This is history.

If you share our interest, please call 821-5128, or write Mrs. Dorothy Anderson, Lakewood Branch Library, 6121 North Street, Dallas, Texas.

DALLAS COUNTY HERITAGE SOCIETY LIVING HISTORY VILLAGE

by Mrs. Max Clampett

The Dallas County Heritage Society has announced its Master plan for a living history village depicting life from the city's founding to the turn of the century. Using the restored Millermore, which was removed to City Park in 1969, as the cornerstone of the "Living Museum", the Society expects to add other structures such as a church, a store, a railway station, and other houses which would afford all people and especially our school children a graphic picture of early Dallas.

The Society is a citizens group organized to preserve examples of life in our community. It has a dual purpose of removing to City Park and restoring structures which are examples of early days and of fostering the maintenance of significant structures on their original sites if such is feasible. City Park Museums are open Tuesday through Friday 10:30-1:30 and every Sunday 1:30-4:30 throughout the year.

Mrs. J. B. McEntire, Jr. is working at this moment on the membership campaign. Anyone interested in joining the Society should contact her. It is with the money raised in the campaign that the Society is able to remove and restore completed structures and turn them over to the City of Dallas at no cost to the taxpayers. Mrs. Reuben Adams is in charge of Millermore Museum, maintenance, staff volunteers, and booking of all tours. Mrs. Angus Wynne, Jr. and her committee are keeping constant watch throughout the county and Northeast Texas for structures about to be razed which should be saved. Anyone knowing such a structure should notify her.

GENEALOGICAL NEWS NOTES

United States of America

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

National Archives and Records Service

Washington, D.C. 20408

A facelift for the 1972 Institute of Genealogical Research is the National Archives' current major genealogical news item according to Archivist of the United States, James D. Rhoads. The Institute, to be held July 10-21 in the National Archives Building, Washington, D.C., will include classroom, project, and field-trip instruction. A revised lecture schedule and some topical changes combine to give this year's program a new look. Further information is available from Frank B. Evans, National Archives and Records Service (GSA), Washington, DC 20408.

Dr. Rhoads expressed appreciation for the widespread response to the 1971 appeal to genealogists, societies, and publishers for donations to the National Archives published indexes to Federal census records. Significant contributions consist of indexes to the following records: 1800 New York, 1830 Middle Tennessee, 1840 Ohio, and many others, including county indexes for twenty-four various Illinois counties for 1830, 1840, and 1850. The indexes are available in the new Microfilm Research Room to both the NARS staff and the public.

A new form is now available for requesting copies of passenger list entries from passenger arrival records in the custody of the National Archives. GSA Form 7111, Order for Copies--Passenger Lists, can be obtained from the National Archives, Central Reference Division (NRC), Washington, DC, 20408.

A PRELIMINARY REPORT TO SOME DESCENDENTS OF SAMUEL SMITH

by Dr. Ben L. Smith, Jr.

Samuel Smith was born in the County of Northumberland in the State of Virginia on 19th April of 1763. (1) This part of Virginia is in the neck of land between the two great rivers, the Potomac and the Rappahannock, known as the Northern Neck. Here were found the homes and estates of the intellectual and well-to-do families - the Washingtons, Lees, Allertons, Lewises and Carters. In token of their worth and culture it has been called the Athens of Virginia. Whether or not our Smiths were considered part of this elite group has not been established, but at least they lived in a good neighborhood!

Research to date has failed to disclose the parents of Samuel Smith. I presume, but have not proven, that his father was Spencer Smith who married Elizabeth Williams in August, 1758 in Northumberland County, Virginia. Several clues in the will of Spencer Smith of Cople Parish, Westmoreland County, Virginia cause me to make this assumption, but more conclusive proof is needed. (2)

Samuel entered into the service of his country as a private in the militia company commanded by Capt. Daniel Morgan in 1779 from Westmoreland County. Living on the margin of the Bay near the mouth of the Potomac (Smith's Point), (3) he was called into service at the age of 16 to repel the incursions of the British who often landed on the coast and pillaged the country, bearing off all the movable property they could. As the attacks of the enemy could not be anticipated and their visits on the land were of short duration, he and others were frequently called on to guard the coast. In August 1781 in the County of Westmoreland, he enlisted and joined the company of horsemen principally raised in Northumberland County, commanded by Capt. John McAdams. The enlistees furnished their own horses and equipment. Capt. McAdams' company of horsemen belonged to Col. Webb's regiment and served on the Gloucester side of the York River, ranging up and down the river above and below the town of Little York during the siege by Cornwallis of that town. Samuel was in the engagement with the British commanded by Col. Tarleton when he attempted to retreat from Little York to join the main army of the British to the north. General Weedon and Colonels Innis and Nelson were in command on the Gloucester side of the York River. Samuel never received other than a verbal discharge from his officers for his services, which totaled about nine months. (4)

After the Revolution, Samuel moved to Frederick County, Virginia, then to Scott County, Kentucky. Before 1800, he moved to that part of Warren County, Kentucky that was formed into Allen County in 1815. His homeplace was just west of Fort Oliver and on a bluff that overlooked the Barren River at a point that was later known as Irwin's Ford near Meadow, Kentucky. In Allen County, he was a farmer and also, in partnership with his sons-in-law, Charles Settle, French Settle and Felix Settle, opened and operated a saltworks. The well that furnished the salt water from which the salt was evaporated, was drilled on the north side of the Barren River in Barren County on land belonging to French Settle. The kettles for boiling the water, 50-200 gallon iron kettles, were on the south side of the river in Allen County. The salt water was piped across the river in wooden pipes. (5) At the death of Samuel, the saltworks were sold to the Irwin family. According to Collins' History of Kentucky, the saltworks in 1846 was manufacturing 300 bushels of salt per week. (6)

Under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 7, 1832, Samuel applied for a pension as a veteran of the Revolution on February 11, 1833. It was approved and he was awarded a pension of $30 per year. (7)

Samuel may have been married more than once, but we only know of his wife, Sallie Catlett. (8) He died in Allen County, Kentucky in 1839. He left no will, but a Deed of Conveyance in Allen County names his children: (9)

Washington Smith who married Polly D. Settle in 1816
Elizabeth Smith who married Dr. Charles Settle in 1811
Cathrine Smith who married Josiah Ashley in 1838
Matilda Smith who married Fench Settle in 1821
Sally Smith who married Felix Settle in 1823
Hiram Smith who married Mrs. Elizabeth Everett Fields in 1853
Thomas F. Smith who married Elizabeth Jane Lewis in 1844
Newton Smith
William N. Smith
Presley Smith

Legend tells that five Smith brothers, Kentucky Longriflemen, migrated from Kentucky to Missouri and that some of them returned to Kentucky. At the time of the settlement of Samuel's estate, records do show that Hiram, William N. and Presley Smith were living in Washington County, Missouri and Newton was living in Lawrence County, Alabama.

In trying to reconstruct facts about the next in line of our direct ancestors, Washington Smith, I've had to do considerable calculating to determine important dates. From his age as recorded in the Kentucky censuses of 1820, 1830, and 1840, it seems he was born about 1793 in Virginia. He came to Kentucky with his parents before 1800 and married Polly D. (6) Settle in Glasgow, Kentucky on December 5, 1816. (10) Polly was born in Fauquier or Culpepper County, Virginia in 1795, a daughter of William (5) and Elizabeth (Huffman) Settle. Washington appears on the Church rolls as one of the 36 original members of the Hanging Forks Baptist Church in Barren County which was organized 25 July, 1838 at Old Rocky Hill. (11)

Promissory notes he signed to Franklin Settle in 1842, and to Felix Settle in 1844 have been photocopied from records in Barren County's Courthouse. His wife and children issued a bill of chancery to the heirs of Samuel Smith 19th April, 1845, so it would appear that Washington died about 1845. One of his sons, Perry J. was appointed administrator of his estate in 1850 and listed the personal inventory at a value of $30.35. (12) Among the items listed were the following:

one sorrell mare	$10.00	set of cooper's tools	$1.25
bull yearling	2.00	grub hoe and weeding hoe	.50
one rifle gun	5.00	one pot, large size	1.00
one bedstead	5.00	cooper's adze	.50
one old hand saw	.10	one press	4.00

It is also of interest to us that Washington's son, Charles L. Smith, bought the sorrell mare, rifle, handsaw, weeding hoe, and large pot.

The 1837 Tax Book in Allen County lists him as owner of 70 acres of land in that county valued at $900. He has been listed as a farmer. The cooper's tools noted in his inventory indicate he had a knowledge of barrel-making and it's for conjecture how the $4.00 press was used.

The children of Washington and Polly D. Smith are given in the chancery suit mentioned above and also in a chancery suit No. 1973 filed in Barren County in October 1853:

Emily b. ca 1817, married 1835 Thomas L. Morris, a tanner.

Their children in the 1850 census - John, James William, Hezekiah. (13)

Perry J. b. 1 May, 1819, married Mary A. Holman 31 January 1858; died June, 1859. (14)

Harriet b. ca 1820, married Richard H. Hawks 9 September 1846. Their children: Mary E., LuAnn, George, Amanda, Emily, F. Davis, Richard, Jr., Felix, Hallie, Page (15)

LuAnn b. ca 1822, married Allan Settle (6) in 1846, a son of Dr. Simon Settle and Sally (Dodd) Settle. Their children: Charles H., Nathaniel Perry, Eugene Joseph, Mary Susan, LuAnn. (16)

Elizabeth b. ca 1825, married Alexander Christopher C. Landrum 18 July, 1858.

Their children: Lucetta Jane, Mary Elizabeth, Condee Hackney, James Nathan, Robert Perry, William Washington. (17)

Charles Lewis b. 20 November 1826, married Melissa B. Hawkins 9 December 1847.

His history and children will be covered more completely later.

Morton b. ca 1830 (18)

Felix Jewell b. 11 May 1833*, married California Elizabeth Fant 23 December 1866, died 25 October 1895 Prosper, Texas. California was a daughter of Gustavus H. and Sarah Elizabeth (Settle) Fant. She was born 10 February 1848, died 15 December 1932. Their children: Florence, William Harry, Mary Elizabeth, Lewis M., Kathrine, Jewell Calvin. (19)

(* Landrum Family Bible indicates he was born in 1834 instead of 1833 as his tombstone reads.)

It would be impossible to make much of an outline of the Smith family without devoting some space to the Settle family. Long before F. D. Roosevelt started the "Good Neighbor" policy, the Smiths and Settles had developed their own; for living across the Barren River from each other, five of Samuel Smith's children married Settles. Much of the Settle family history was compiled by the late Simon DeWitt Settle of Bowling Green, Kentucky, and for his records and research, I'm most grateful and give due credit. Briefly, I'll trace this family to bring them to about 1800 when they merged with our Smith lines. The names underlined are those in our line of descent and the ( ) indicates the generation in America.

The first of this Settle family in America was Francis Settle (1), born in Yorkshire, England about 1635, came to what is now Richmond County, Virginia about 1656. His wife's name was Elizabeth and they had four sons: John (2) Thomas (2) Francis (2) Henry (2). John (2) was born about 1660, married Mary Strother and their children were: Francis (3) William (3) Joseph (3) Benjamin (3) Strother (3) Isaac (3) John (3). Isaac (3) was born in Virginia about 1706, married Charity Brown and their children were: Joseph (4) Isaac, Jr. (4) Mary (4) Elizabeth (4) Martha (4) Phoebe (4) Alice (4) William (4) Jemina (4) Francis (4) George (4). George (4) was born in 1738 in Virginia, married Mary Morgan and their children were: Thomas (5) Hannah (5) Elizabeth (5) William (5) Mary (5) John Morgan (5) Isaac (5), Simon Charles (5). William (5) was born in Fauquier County, Virginia, 25 February 1770, married Elizabeth Huffman about 1790 and their children were: Nancy (6) Elizabeth (6) Polly (6) Franklin (6) French (6) Felix (6) Sally (6) Frances (6) Eveline (6) William (6). William (5) came to Barren County, Kentucky, in 1797 and founded the town Old Rocky Hill. He was a planter and gunsmith and made Kentucky flintlock rifles that are today prized collectors items. He died 25 February 1808 in Barren County and is buried in the family burial plot on his old home place at Rocky Hill.

Stated as simply as possible, the results of the "good neighbor" policy resulted in 3 daughters and 2 sons of Samuel Smith marrying Settles. Elizabeth Smith married Charles (5) Settle; Matilda Smith married French (6) Settle; Sally Smith married Felix (6) Settle; Washington Smith married Polly (6) Settle; Thomas Fleet Smith married Elizabeth Jane Lewis - a daughter of Elizabeth (6) Settle and Charles Lewis. Matilda, Sally and Washington Smith married children of William (5) Settle and their sister Elizabeth married Charles (5) Settle, the uncle of French, Felix and Polly Settle.

Charles Lewis Smith, son of Washington and Polly D. (Settle) Smith was born in Barren County, Kentucky, November 20, 1826. (20) He was named for his uncle by marriage, Charles Lewis, the husband of his mother's sister, Elizabeth. He married Melissa B. Hawkins in Barren County 9 December 1847, the marriage being performed by Rev. William B. Edmunds (21). Three of their 10 children were born in Kentucky - Sarah Cordelia, William Bristow and Edith. (22) Charles and his small family came to Texas about 1852 with a pioneer group from Barren County which included the Hawkins, Bates and Button families. They went first to Nacogdoches, staying there about a year before moving on to Collin County. (23)

An excellent account of the first settlement known as the Hawkins Settlement, located near the east Denton County line on the waters of Panther Creek, is given in History and Reminiscences of Denton County by Ed. F. Bates (pgs. 43, 293, 296) and a picture of Charles L. Smith is found on page 54. The following is taken from the obituary written in the McKinney paper at the time of his death and gives a good description of the area as the settlers found it.

"The following in Mr. Smith's own words, written a few months ago:
"This country was a vast prairie with deer in droves feeding on the high grass. We all located on the highest hills so we could see the Indians. We hauled our lumber from and marketed produce at Jefferson. There were few vehicles in those days, so we traveled mostly on horseback. Our neighbors were numbered by our acquaintances. We stood together like brothers - a man's word was legal tender. There were few banks, much money was loaned but without note or security." (24)

In File No. 2565 in the General Land Office in Austin, Texas, is the description, map, and sworn testimony of Charles Smith for 320 acres of land which he claimed by preemption privileges, having complied with the provisions of an Act of the Legislature approved January 22, 1845, granting land to settlers upon public domain. "This 12th day of November A.D. 1856, personally appeared before me, A. L. Robertson, a district surveyor for Collin Land District, Charles L. Smith, who after being duly sworn, deposes and says that he emigrated to the State of Texas about the 25th day of January 1853. That he believes he is settled upon the Public Domain of the State of Texas and that his improvement was commenced about the 20th day of September A. D. 1853. (signed) C.L. Smith
x his mark

A brief description of Charles Smith's service in the Civil War, obtained from the Adjutant General's Office in Washington, D. C. admits that the collection of Confederate States Army records is incomplete. However, the following would suffice for anyone wishing to find out more about his service through Civil War research. He enlisted at Decatur, Texas, on January 1, 1864, as a private of Company B, Second Battalion, (Captain Dortch's) Kentucky Calvary, Confederate States Army. Union prisoners of war records show that he was captured at Kingsport, Tennessee, December 13, 1864; imprisoned at Military Prison, Louisville, Kentucky and Camp Chase, Ohio where he was paroled and transferred to Point Lookout, Maryland on February 17, 1865 for exchange. His name appears on a Muster Roll of a detachment of paroled and exchanged prisoners at Camp Lee, near Richmond, Virginia dated February 27, 1865.* A different report is given in the obituary notice in the McKinney paper. "Mr. Smith was a gallant soldier in the Confederate *I suspect an error here as his daughter Capernia (Kay) was born 3 July, 1865.

Army, enlisted in Carpenter's Company, I Martin's Regiment, Gane's Brigade. He fought in the battles of Diamond Grove and Fort Smith, Arkansas, was a prisoner of war and later an exchange prisoner."

The 1870 Collin County census lists his nine children, their ages and place of birth. (They had one other child, but it was born and died June 21, 1853.) This same census records his real estate valued at $4500 and his personal estate at $2800.

Time and space does not permit recording the numerous stories and events that could be told about his uneventful and successful life. He did prosper and accumulated good property and land and livestock. At the age of 87 years, after 2 years of poor health, he died at the home of his son, Edgar Hawkins Smith in Denton, Texas at 12:30 P.M. on Sunday, January 11, 1914. (25) He was buried in the Smith family cemetery, located at his old home place on the Denton-Collin County line. His will dated December 26, 1908 and filed for probate March 28, 1914 gives the value of his estate as $57,901.14. (26) He was a Methodist, and although obituary notices state he belonged to the Masonic Order, the Grand Lodge of Texas fails to find his record.

Children of Charles Lewis and Melissa B. (Hawkins) Smith:

Sarah Cordelia b. 26 January, 1849, Barren County, Ky.; d. 20 November, 1885; buried in Smith Family cemetery; married (1) Moses B. Taylor (2) James C. Hawkins. Children: Paxton Taylor, Nora Taylor, Maud Hawkins, Viola Hawkins (27).

Edgar Hawkins b. 2 April 1862, Collin County, Texas; d. 26 August, 1916; buried in IOOF cemetery, Denton; married (1) Olivia Anzonette Haper (2) Frances Morrison. Children: Charles Harper, Ellen Wear (34)

Capernia (Kay) b. 3 July 1865, Collin County, Texas; d. 17 July 1954;

married William Jasper McCormick, 17 August 1882. Children: Nora Ruth (35)

Callie b. 3 June 1867, Collin County, Texas; d. 27 August 1877; buried Smith Family Cemetery. (36)

It looks like a good place to end this report - with the children of Charles L. Smith. I do have considerably more information on all his children; the family of Washington Smith and the Taylor family; many branches of the Settle family; and related families in Barren County. At this time, I have information on about 100 individual families and over 1200 persons.

While I've made no concentrated effort to trace the Hawkins family, the following may be of interest and helpful to others who wish to pursue the family further. Melissa B. Hawkins, wife of Charles Lewis Smith, was born in Barren County Kentucky 10 April 1826; died 12 December 1889 and is buried next to her husband in the Smith Family Cemetery. (37) She was a daughter of Henry George and Nancy (James) Hawkins who left Barren County about 1846 to come to Texas. With several other families, they went first to Nacogdoches, where they stayed until about 1853, then moved northward to the area around Little Elm. The Hawkins family intermarried with other pioneer families - many of them from Barren County - which made the community very closely united. The Hawkins and Bates families organized the Zion Methodist Church, probably named after their church in Kentucky (38).

Other children of Henry George and Nancy Hawkins:

John Dyer III	m. Sarah E. Button
Samuel James	m. (1)America Ready (2)Alice Ware
John Henry	m. Mary Ann Byrd
Edgar Blumfield	killed in Civil War in Mississippi
Josephus Falvius	m. Sarah Ready
William	m. Jane Rue
Martha	m. Thomas Button
Julianna	m. John Landrum
Elizabeth	m. Willis Hubbard Bates
Mary George	m. William B. Edmunds
Ruth	died early in life

Henry George Hawkins, father of Melissa, was born 17 September 1790 in Virginia, either Orange or Culpepper County, a son of Jehu Dyer and Mary George (Gaines) Hawkins. The family went to Kentucky from Virginia about 1800 - first to Woodford County and then to Barren County about 1810. Henry George married Nancy James, a daughter of John and Clara (Nall) James, 7 September 1811 in Barren County. He died 27 October 1862 and his wife, Nancy, died about 1877. Both are buried in the Zion Methodist Church Cemetery between Denton and McKinney, Texas, just south of U. S. Highway 24. (39).

MT. CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH
Richardson, Texas

Abstracted by Dorotha Good Russell

Many of the people who had been members of the Shady Grove Baptist Church at Franklin, Simpson County, Kentucky came to Texas and located in the Richardson, Dallas County, Texas, area. The following material was abstracted from the old minute book of the First Baptist Church (at Richardson, Texas), originally named the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church of Christ.

On the 19th day of December 1865 at the Elm Grove School House in Dallas County, Texas, the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church of Christ was organized by Elders R. F. Butler and J. J. Butler, ordained ministers of the Baptist Church of Christ, acting as a presbytery for that purpose. The following people went into the organization of the above named Church: Elizabeth H. Butler, Joseph J. Butler, Louisa A. Butler, Amanda Harris, Frederick B. Harris, Mary Hefington, Amanda Huffhines, Georgia Ann Huffhines, James Huffhines, Marthy F. Huffhines, P. W. Huffhines, Thomas Huffhines, William Huffhines, Frances Saunders, Thomas Saunders, Celia E. Stratton, James D. Stratton, Mary A. E. Stratton and George A. Stratton. The Church then received Emily F. Huffhines by experience. Frederick B. Harris was elected Church Clerk.

Elder George Good, son of Noah Good, preached at the January 1866 meeting. Elder J. J. Butler, son of Geo. W. Butler, preached at the February 1866 meeting.

The church continued to hold her regular meetings until the school house was blown down by a tornado on the night of the 26th of May 1867. The house of Frederick B. Harris, the Church Clerk, was also blown down and the records of the church destroyed. The church did not hold regular meetings again until Aug. 1867 at which time Elder W. B. Long was elected pastor. It was ascertained that the records destroyed contained no admissions to nor exclusions from the Church nor any other business of importance. Frederick B. Harris was retained as Clerk.

No change was made in the membership until the November 1867 meeting at which time the following people were received by experience: G. B. Strait, Sophia Stringer, Nancy Ann Huffhines, Havilla Huffhines, John S. Huffhines, Jr., Mary E. Huffhines, Susan Butler, Cindarella Huffhines, William Saunders, John W. Saunders, Stephen Holland and by letter: R. Salmons, Thomas Barton, Joseph Barton, Reuben Stringer and Mary E. Stratton. At the December 1867 meeting the wife of Elder W. B. Long, Jane E. Long, and his daughter, Mary O. Long were received into the Church.

At the March 1868 meeting Thomas J. Stratton was received as an ordained deacon; Wm. J. Wheeler and wife, Fanny, were recived by letter and Mary C. Huffhines was received by experience. At the June 1868 meeting they appointed the following to be delegates to the Union Meeting at Scyene on the Saturday before the third Sunday in August: J. J. Butler, W. B. Long, Wm. Wheeler and Thos. J. Stratton.

In October of 1868 the following members were received by letter: Newton M. Harper, his wife, Martha, David Y. Rainwater and wife, Caroline, W. S. Long and wife, Sarah A. This meeting was continued from day to day, having the services of Elders W. W. Harris and J. B. Daniels. On Monday the following were received: Florence White for baptism and Henry McElmurry and wife, Mariah, by letter. On Saturday the following were recieved: Duane Y. Huffhines, James M. Stratton and Eliza A. Huffhines. On Sunday the following: Dallas D. Petit, Edwin M. Mathias, Sarah E. Berry, Liler Huffman and Hiram Wheeler for baptism. On Monday Henry Hatcher, Sarah E. Huffhines, Eunice Moss and Edwin C. Rice were received by letter. At the request of Mary O. Long, daughter of Bro. Long, she was expelled at the November 1868 meeting. In December of 1868 Noah Good, his wife, Sintha-Fyke Good, and daughter were received by letter. Thos. Huffhines and wife were granted letters of dismission. Two days later, the following people were received into the church: Jonathan Holcombe and wife, Emma, Hattie Holcombe, William Good, Martha Ann Good, Nancy H. Good, Mourning Strait, Enoch Strait, William Strait, and Martha Strait.

John Huffhines and wife were received by letter in January of 1869. Mary Jane Lively was received by letter in February of 1869 and William Saunders was granted a letter of dismission. In May of 1869 James C. Heffington was received for baptism and J. H. Shoogart was received by letter. At the June 1869 meeting E. S. Haumes brought the sermon. R. F. Butler and wife, Mary, and Isham Thomas were received by letter. E. C. Rice was granted a letter of dismission. George W. Good brought the sermon at the July 1869 meeting. W. B. Long, J. J. Butler, R. F. Butler and Noah Good were elected delegates to the Elm Fork Association. In August of 1869 Matilda G. Glen and L. F. Glen were received for baptism. Henry McElmurry and wife were granted a letter of dismission at the September 1869 meeting. George W. Butler was moderator at this meeting. At the Nov. 1869 meeting J. D. Stratton, G. B. Strait and Stephen Holland were appointed to investigate reports concerning Jordan Colgin and Charley Thrift. Jordan Colgin and Charley Thrift were expelled at the Dec. 1869 meeting. A. J. Jasper was received by letter.

In 1870 the following people were added to the church roll: Sarah G. Steen, David Gullede and wife, Wm. O. Gullede, John F. Gullede, James W. Griggs, Sarah R. Gullede, Margaret Bratcher, Elizabeth Franks, E. J. Lilly, John Braether, John H. Neal, James Aken (?), Ras. Huffman, John and Frank Long, Elizabeth Jasper, Thomas McKascal, Alison Novell, T. L. Jackson and wife, W. T. Hope, Susan Walker, Wilborn Jackson, Bro. and Sister Ledbetter, Bro. Green and wife, William Stark, R. W. Skiles and wife. Several people moved their memberships.

The minutes for the next few years dealt with the growth of the church. In many instances members were given letters of dismission and then were received by letter back into the church. It is my understanding that some of them returned to Kentucky for awhile and some of them were instrumental in founding other Baptist Churches in the Dallas County area.

J. F. Pinson was pastor from January 1871 through November of 1871. W. W. Harris was pastor from then through January of 1873. J. J. Butler was again called as pastor and served through October of 1873. G. T. Wilburn served from then until November of 1875. In February of 1876 J. R. Masters became pastor and served through September of 1876 at which time C. A. Stanton became pastor and served through September 1881.

It was in September of 1885 that the church voted to change the place of meeting to Richardson, Texas, and on the fourth Sunday in February of 1886, the land for the church building was given by Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Huffhines. Affiliation with the Dallas County Association began in September of 1886 when the Church separated itself from the Elm Fork Association.

BEEMAN - BRYAN - NEELY - DALLAS FAMILIES

Additions and corrections to "The Naming of Dallas" (March '72 Quarterly) by Ruth Cooper

Margaret Beeman Bryan, Mrs. John Neely, was living with her son, John N. Bryan, Jr., at Charlie, Texas when she died September 6, 1919. She was buried in the Thornberry Cemetery at Charlie. John died December 29, 1926 and was buried in the Riverside Cemetery at Wichita Falls, Texas. The following year, 1927, Grandson, Lee, moved Margaret's remains to Riverside Cemetery, Wichita Falls, Texas. Robert E. Lee Bryan died July 20, 1936 and was buried in Riverside Cemetery, Wichita Falls, Texas.

The Beeman family worked as a team. My ancestor was just plain John - if he ever had any more name, I have never found it. In the family Bible, the other sons have middle names but not my John - consequently he is left out of many accounts and credit given to the nephew, (Sam's son) John S. John Beeman was the leader, the one who paid the bills and attended to the business, etc. "Peters Colony of Texas" mistakenly credits nephew John S. with much of the "attributes and/or possessions" that belonged to my plain John! Also, John was in that "welcoming party" at Bird's Fort for Neely Bryan. Grandma always said "Uncle Neely" and the son was "John" - neither used the whole name. But "History" says John Neely Bryan so I generally follow suit.

A descendant of Alexander Janes Dallas says that he was called "Janes" and not Alexander as in many of the accounts.

Clippings from THE OLD SCRAPBOOK

Miss Corrine's Recipe for "Possum and Sweet Taters"

"Scald the possum with lye and scrape off the hair. Dress. Leave on head and tail. Rub with salt and put in a cool place overnight. When ready to cook, put possum in a deep pan with 1 quart of water and place 3 or 4 slices of breakfast bacon across the breast and put in the oven. When half done, remove from oven and stuff with dressing made of bread crumbs, onion, salt, pepper and possum gravy. Return to pan and place around it small peeled sweet potatoes. Bake all until light brown, basting frequently."
