EDITOR'S PAGE

This has been a great year, so far, thanks to many of you and your help and contributions. We still have some backlog, but we can use material, such as documented original research, courthouse records that you have copies of, and any genealogical material that is not copyrighted. The material becomes the property of the Society and cannot be returned. So do not send your only copy.

We need Queries for the Quarterly. This is your quarterly and the queries are free to members. Why not take advantage of it? Send in as many as you like and build up the query section. Remember, our quarterly is sent out to over 600 individuals and institutions all over the United States.

When you publish your books, we would like a copy to review. You need not be a member to get a free book review. Just send me a copy. It will be reviewed and then the book will be donated to the Dallas Public Library.

RECOLLECTIONS ON FOUNDING A

SWEDISH COLONY IN SOUTH TEXAS

Presented by: Gwen Newmann

While going through some old papers of my father, I found a copy of a speech made by my grandfather, C. F. Blomquist, on the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Swedish Colony on the Wilson Ranch in Karnes County, Texas. The celebration was held on Saturday, October 29, 1932 in the Lutheran Church in their settlement which they had named Cadillac. The church was filled to overflowing, according to accounts written at the time. There were several speakers, including two pastors of the church, Ohlson and Bergman. Judge Thomas B. Smiley, Harry & Gus Blomquist and their father C. F. Blomquist spoke, also. C. F. Blomquist had moved to Austin, Texas by this time. His speech gives us a good idea of what it was like to start a new settlement in Texas in the early 1900's. His speech is as follows:

It is a great pleasure to me and my family to be with you this evening at this celebration. We are celebrating tonight the 25th anniversary of the beginning of the Swedish settlement near Kenedy. It requires a good memory to give a history of events which happened 25 years ago. While it is impossible to mention all happenings, I will try to recall some of them.

On October 29, 1907, we landed in Kenedy with our work stock, implements, cattle and household plunders. The first night we slept in one of our immigrant cars in the Kenedy railroad yards. We did not get much sleep as we had important problems to study and discuss. The next morning when we went down to the Junction hotel for breakfast, I met on the platform my sister, Ester, and a young man named Frank Carlson who came direct from Sweden the same morning. In the dining room we enjoyed a hearty breakfast and made ourselves acquainted with John Cannon who had just taken charge of the hotel and was serving his first meal there.

Now the real work began in unloading our cars. We had three of them. Our good neighbors from the settlement with their teams and wagons helped us move the first day, but it took us several days to finish moving. After we settled down we associated with our neighbors. They were few but very congenial. Two families we knew from Williamson County, J. W. Lister and family and John Gaunt and family who were sixteen years ahead of us. They gave us advice as how to make a living in Karnes County. Together with families of A. H. Karbach, Lewis Haverlah, Perry Wolf, Henry Benke, and William Esse, we lived pretty much like one family--Happy days they were.

Our women folks were discontented and lonesome, but no wonder, as they had left their parents, brothers and sisters back in Williamson. At times I tried to encourage them, and I had to use some convincing language. I told them when land sells for thirty or more dollars an acre you will see some newcomers, and like always, I was right.

Our greatest trouble was how we would get hands to grub part of the land anyhow. We were assisted by John Sumner who got the first bunch. They wanted to work by the day, and it suited me fine. The boys had no idea I would stay with them. Little did they know I was an experienced grubber. My orders were to start at 7 a. m. and quit at 6 p. m. Everything went smoothly until Friday noon when they told me that they did not want to work by the day any more. I told them "very well, let us contract by the acre, but they said, "No Sabe" and off they went. In about 15 minutes brother Munson came over, and asked me if I didn't have any work for my Mexicans as they came over inquiring about work. Right there and then we two made an agreement to the effect that we will hire each others hands, and believe me this bunch of hands changed about on the two farms until the first part of April and grubbed 90 acres on the two places.

I have wondered many times how it was possible for us to do what we did, but the banks and business men of Kenedy, without exception, stood by us. Our credit was good with them.

We had enough money to make a first payment on our land; and to do a little building. We always remember with gratitude our friends in Kenedy. We owe due credit to two land firms, Free and Williams, who sold thousands of acres on Wilson Ranch and about Green and Kenedy. Another land firm, Knape and Nordstrom, sold many farms in the Pawnee settlement where afterwards the town of Pawnee was built.

Our efforts were crowned with success and people began to move in. Buildings began to spring up on farms around us, and many acres of fertile soil added for cultivation. One need was felt keenly and that was the fact that we had no place to worship. At first we had meetings in our homes and in our school houses. Dr. J. A. Stamline from Round Rock visited us once a month, and in the fall of 1912 our Lutheran Church was organized. In the winter and spring of 1913 and 1914, we agreed to build a church. From subscriptions among members and our people in Central Texas, we were able to do so. Again Kenedy merchants came to our rescue with liberal donations. The church was dedicated in May, 1914. Rev. O. H. Sylvan from Hutto took charge of Kenedy and the mission field in South Texas. He worked faithfully and with enthusiasm in this field until 1922. During 1922 the parsonage was built, and Rev. Gustav Bergman with family moved into our settlement, faithfully taking charge of our spiritual needs with much success. I admonish you young and old--stay by the pastor and his family in upbuilding the kingdom of God. Our church although modest as she seems bears witness of faith and energy of the first settlers. The church property stands here as an inheritance of coming generations. A prayer to God that you may keep her in good repair, but above all things come here for worship, meet your God in prayer and thanksgiving. Always be loyal and faithful and God will greatly bless and reward you.

I think it is fitting at this time to mention Mr. Arthur Swenson the architect and constructor of this Temple. With the assistance of the membership of the congregation, the church was completed in thirty days.

It seems there always comes a time when we must part. I shall never forget the solemn moment when one afternoon we gathered up our tools and with a brotherly handshake and tears in our eyes we bid one another goodbye.

But just the same we feel this is our home, and we enjoy to pay you visits.

EXCERPT FROM THE JOURNAL OF TULLIA JOHNSON HAYNES

Submitted by: Leonard Meyer

This diary was written by Tullia Johnson Haynes when she was about 17, approximately 1873. She had just moved to Lavaca Co., Texas from East Feliciana Parish, Louisiana, with her mother Sarah Jane Cole and her step-father J. M. Cole and several brothers and sisters. The "Leo" mentioned in this excerpt is Leonard Meyer whom she married on July 26, 1874. She died following the birth of her second child on July 30, 1877.

Note: Evidently some man had asked her if she had ever seen an angel or spirit, and she answered --

"No, have you?" "Yes,um, I saw one here the other night when I was passing." "You don't say so?" (I was in earnest and never suspected his meaning.) "What did it look like, where was it?" I asked. "It looked like an angel, and was sitting at the window with her little hands folded resting on the window-sill" - a pause, then - "Miss Tullia, it was a spirit no lovelier than thine". Oh, me, I came very near running, but was brought to myself by his saying, "Miss Tullia, I have waited so long for an-opportunity to ask you a question, and as it has come I will ask it. When I go into the world and make a name, may I hope to claim your affection?" "No, Mr. Scallom, I will be candid, and tell you that you can never claim my love. I am very sorry you should have encouraged such a hope, for I can never return your love." It hurt my to tell him this, but I was honest, he asked me if I loved some one else. I answered yes, and it was that love that prompted me to be honest. I believe he cried, or at least he pretended to. I could tell persons before this that they might hope to win my love, but then I did not love any one, but now I do, and for that sweet loves sake I was candid with Mr. Scallom. Oh, no, not for worlds would I act contrary to this love, ay, this mighty love has metamorphosed me, it is more devoted than the idolatry of Mecca, and more priceless than the gems of Golconda. No one knows that I cherish this love, for I try to hide it, yet I love him, love him, love him. I believe he loves me, he has never said so, but my heart tells me he does. Perhaps it is "Hope" that says so, and hope engenders faith. Perhaps it is only one of my day-dreams, but if so, then will dreams stay forever. I will not stir lest I throw the veil off, and see my idol thrown from its pedestal. If it should fall, would I in time forget it? Is time the conquering Iconoclast? No, the love I have is of divine origin, and it must stay with me, until I reach that beautiful home among the angels. Mr. Leo -- is angry with me, what for I don't know, and care less than I know.

I suppose Mrs. Me--- is angry with me, for she said if I let Leo go on until he proposed and then rejected him, that she would never do any thing for me as long as I lived. I know he has told her that, he was angry and she wif. I think it was me I can't help what she thinks, but if she supposes he proposed she is very much mistaken. Well, as I am tired I will close. Tullia Haynes Oct. 25, 1873

It only lacks two days of being a month since I last wrote in my journal, but I have been so busy going to church there has been a large meeting here, serving, studying etc. I am going this evening by Mr. McGruber and missed (illegible). I am excited from home to teach. Sometimes I wonder at myself. I am so young to leave Ma and go into the world alone. My life seems a dread. I do everything mechanically, I have no idea concerning anything. I used to be so different, nothing wearied me, nothing disconcerted me, but now I have no confidence in myself, and have lost all the independence I ever had. What is the matter with me I don't understand myself, and if I don't, who does? I sometimes think I will wake up and find my life since I have been in Texas a dream. What if I should be dreaming, and wake and find myself in Jackson. I think I had rather dream one part of my western life than wake and find it a vision. For one part is sweet, in one person I see all the friends I left, and the consciousness of that person's nearness makes me happy (and sometimes sad). From some cause I dislike to go out to school, because then it will be so pleasant to come home.

Dear Sallie,

As I have a chance to send it I will pen you a few lines and let you know that I am very well at this time. I had a chill last night but I feel very well today all to a slight headache Sallie I want to see you and Hen mighty bad You must be good children and don't forget your books. We live very well here now but it is on the strength of our money we buy pork at 20 cts and 25 per pound I say well it is by no means good living but it is better than living on poor beef. It is a hard matter to get meals victuals in this country and then they charge a dollar just for a little meat and bread and it is almost impossible to get washing done. We have to pay from ten to fifteen cents a garment for all the washing we get done we wash some of our clothes ourselves I must close write to me often.

Dear Mother

I don't know what I can write to interest you except that I am well and have been in very good health lately every body is in very high spirits now about peace they all seem to think that we will have peace in the spring. Mother it is very hard times here now.

Pork is worth 50 cts per pound and is hard to get at that though we have always managed to have plenty as yet I have never suffered but very little as yet though I have had to eat mighty poor beef sometimes. Mother tell pa that I want him to get some body to make Bud & Steve & myself a Palmetto hat made for each one of us and send to us if ever he has an opportunity of sending them. I am almost without a hat and I can't get one for less than twenty five Dollars and I don't feel disposed to give so much prices. Mother I must now close tell Sis and Bill to please write to me as often as they can. I remain as ever your loving Son

Dear Sister,

As Mr. Gamplin did not leave this morning as we expected I will pen you a few lines. I have nothing to write more than has been wrote to the rest. I am well. Steve is up today but not well. Sis if you have got any cotton socks already knit I would be glad you would send me & Steve about two pair between us. Don't send them if you have not got them knit, for if you were to knit them and then send them it would be to late. Don't send but two pair. We will always let you know when we want anything and exactly how much of it we want. We have got any quantity of wool socks. Jesse's time expires to day. No certificate has come from him yet. I shall look for him or a certificate from him in a few days. I am very anxious to hear from you all now. We have had no letters since Rains (?) came. Sis we are having a good deal of good news now about The Confederate States being recognized by France, Spain and Belgium. I don't believe much if anything I hear now. I have been fooled too often by such rumors. Sis about two thirds of this Army is whiped now. It vexes me to hear them talk as some of them do. I can't see that we are whiped now any more than we have been all the time. If we are whiped now we have been whiped all the time. The fact that Vicksburg has fallen is no evidence that we are whiped. A nation with 4 or 5 hundred thousand of the best troops in the world, talk about being whiped. It is most too great a sacrifice for some of these old hicks to give up all for their country. I am in for resistance as long as the least gleam of hope can be seen glimmering above the dark horizon of war. Sis I am anxious to see you. You must write to me often. Give my love to your children and all the family. I am as ever.

Your Brother

CHARLES BINGLEY MOORE

WILL

Charles Bingley Moore was born 6 August 1822 in Sumner Co., Tennessee the oldest of six children born to Ziza and Theresa Stewart Moore. In 1819 Ziza married Theresa Stewart. She died in 1848 and he married Matilda Guest in 1856 but there were no children by this marriage.

Charles Moore and his brother Henry became millwrights and built mills in Ohio and Missouri but returned to Tennessee after a few years. Some of their Wilson relatives had moved to Collin County, Texas, and word of the good land to be had here encouraged them to move. They bought land north of McKinney and after the Civil War they brought Ziza, Matilda, their sister Elvira, and a married sister Sabina Moore Rucker and her family to the land they had purchased.

In 1875 Charles went back to Tennessee to find a wife and after a whirlwind courtship of three weeks, he married Mary Ann Dodd and brought her to Texas. Three children were born, only one of which lived, Linnet Moore.

Charles B. Moore died in 1901. He and the others named above are buried in the family cemetery on the Moore farm. Linnet's husband, Claude White is also buried there as well as a small child who was visiting with relatives. His will is an interesting document in that it is written in poetry. It is written in three stanzas, the last one of which is dated 8 August 1888.

Will of Charles B. Moore, Collin County, Texas, December 8th, 1883.

I have worried but little for fame or for wealth
I have had a fair share of contentment and health
And I hope a few years of enjoyable life
Is awaiting me yet with my daughter and wife
But I'm fully persuaded by sixty-one years
Of good health and bad sickness, or rapture and tears
Have so worn on my system that far past my prime
I am down-hilling life to the end of my time
And right now in full view of the foot of life's hill
Unadvised and unbiased I'm writing my will
Which is simply that Mary Ann Moore will be free
When I'm dead as she was ere mated with me
Shall possess absolutely and hold from that date
As we jointly do now all our little estate
For herself and our (now) prottling babe Linnet Moore
The offspring of our union just climbing life's shore
For whose welfare our labors of love are designed
To develop most fully her body and mind
Were I younger I'd hope I might see her the wife
Of some thrifty good farmer, well settled in life
But admonished by age I hope less than I doubt
And must cheerfully yield to what time brings about.

January 8th, 1884.

But should other offspring to our union appear
Or to some future union to Mary as dear
I shall leave her unbound by decree, but suggest
That she care for her offspring as she may think best
Educating and training for life's busy run
Till the offspring shall marry or reach twenty-one
Where if wanted on equal division might give
A pro-rata to each one and then they can live
All apart their own interest to hold and direct
Or commune as full partners as they may elect
And to simplify business avoiding all friction
I direct that the Court shall have no jurisdiction
Any further than simply this will to probate
And file schedule appraising the worth of estate
I leave Mary to choose her advisers and fill
All the legal demands executing this will.

Witnessed:
S. H. Cole
J P A Wallace
J M Pearson

August 8, 1888.

I shall hope when I wind up my duties of life
To leave nothing unsettled to generate strife
And that Mary will as soon as the law may direct
Without bonds give this will all its legal effects.
I am proud to be classed with the tillers of soil
Who are feeding the world on the fruits of their toil
In the class whence have sprung the world's great benefactors
I'll leave Mary and Linnet as practical actors.
Tho' too poor to be idlers, too rich to be slaves,
Too well posted for dupes and too candid for knaves,
Too high strung for dependents, too just to oppress,
Too humane to see want and not try to redress
And as long as they live may mankind be their debtor
And they find as I've found this grand world growing better.

BURNHAM FAMILY LETTERS

HORACE B. BURNHAM to GEORGE BURNHAM

Melbourne March 25th 1835

Dear Brother

We are extremely Anxious to hear from you particularly mother as there is trouble in the southern States & WM states in his of the 1st Sept in Clinton Parish of East Florida Louisiana that he had not heard from you since you parted and did not know where you was and we have not heard from you since yours Dated June which was before the hot seasons altho Father answered immediately on receiving yours and wrote WM where to Direct to you however it gives great satisfaction to hear your health is better.

I think father is anxious to locate himself either in the western or southern States but most probably in the State of Illinois therefore if you can with WM make some arrangement with some of your acquaintances to whom we can direct the care of your letters it will be best for in case of removal there would be too much danger of loosing the communications for if Father can stipulate for £3,000 he is resolved to leave the ensuing spring or season and write we had better both (as I shall remain at home for some time) conclude to write as often certainly as once in three months for our interest for you is greater than you imagine or have an idea & now I wish you to write immediately on receiving this and give some description where you think Father may do best to move to and particulars of your own health and prospects.

Many of our Primitive Inhabitants sold last season to both emigrants and the Company and more will sell the next season. They commonly move to Illinois where George Goodhue and Charles have been for the last year and the Father ~~will you~~ Mrs. Rich Aunt Sally and many others will goe next spring. Mr Dormans Montreal affairs are settled by his lumber for their agreement was to take the timber & was to pay if it did not amount to a cent and to the west as soon as possible Mr Pennoyer has sold to Mr Chamberlins Father for £600 Mr Swan sold for 2000 Dollars. All our Friends are here Charles Clark returned one year since and on the place but the estate is not settled. Uncle Brainard Died of Consumption 1st Jan but affairs will be soon settled Horace is at home but the 3 next are at trades Thodore with Pierce who is (turn)tively since spring & doing well Clement is a smart and they have another daughter named Emma Doct Perkins brother was burned out as well as himself in Ohio but still a great practice in that state Doct^r Brainard went there and from there to Texas as surgeon C Benton was taken in Texas with 175 others from Boston as Pirates but since released to join them The Gallups have returned from the west Mr Tait fills Mr Tisdales place who failed here leaving Betsy with an (looks like Hiss) but it soon died and he was turned out with the fire in New York and B. Wright is clerk in Shipton and poor Poor Esep Thomas after galanting some time was under the necessity of marrying an Irish servant girl and claims the heir as his altho she is the same that made battle with Matthew Clark and 2 other Families in fact a commoner. Mr Felton has been reported unworthy of public confidence by Parliament for selling and receiving pay for Government lands which he with Whitiker and the Judge will be ousted out of office P Felton condemned for unlawful fees and last faul was rolling ~~fer~~ Barrells on Bear vessels in Burlington Our governor Gossford sides with the French and our Tories with him in the sea but times will be more tranquil now than they have been.

Father directs his letter to WM of same date of this to East Felisiana in Louisiana and wish you to write him where he may find his letter if he is not there My lumber last did not amount to anything and leaves father to pay $200 to Burroughs but it is paid into $40 without hurting much as our business has very much increased this season and probably will more for the ensuing spring and cash is far more plenty than when you was here and if we do not sell shall pay a part of Mrs Barnards demand and hire the remainder for another term of time. Henry learns well but his health is not the best

My own health was poor this summer but good now and my demands on others are no more than those that others hold one altho has been obliged to pay some of mine however there was no cost.

Mother's health has been good and she worked hard and Father has never been more pleasant than this season Your most affectionate Brother Horace Burnham

Mr. Hunt left here Aug^t and I have not hear^d from him since the week he arrived there, he spoke of fetching goods and of Uncle's being well pleased with our proceedings.

Our still is now Ready but untill I hear from him shall not start it, corn is higher than last year but will probably fall by spring. now business with me is dull and I am not trying to do much until I hear more but little business on the River and no money Our legislators are trying to do something for the currency and arranging land claims and I shall no doubt Rec mine and by management get some more without costing much one half of a soldiers claim for 2,000 who was killed with Fanning and can be proved by Henry Branard the heir is one of our workmen. My Health is good but the new Year passed rather dull and cold for we had no steam we have now finished building and shall have no more expense ~~for~~ untill we buy corn our Town improves some and probably it will be the county seat as Red River Co is divided into 3 counties Texas money passes in the interior at N Orleans quotations but our Congre(torn) are divided in Retrenchment and Reforms the probability (torn)d in by our enormous and taxes and tariff

There has been s(torn)d campaigns for in one for the Indians we stood a draught which took myself & 3 of my regular labours but fortunately it fell through for the want of means and now they have volunteered 300 to go and pilage Chewawow a mexican province 1200 miles across the western prairie this is made up entirely of volunteers from Clarksville a town in this county but this will fall through. The commissioners will commence the boundry line in a few days and some extreme provisions respecting those settled near it getting their land

I direct this to Yazoo City not knowing when it may find you, I have not heard from you for some time and can easily account for it in your delicacy but let me say I do not ask a description of her person &c--it is sufficient for me that she is yours (looks like you--yet?)--I would like to hear from you as--if you expect to reside in Yazoo &c &c--Bro. BRITTINGHAM (BRETENHAM) FAMILY HISTORY

Presented by Mrs. Dorothy Brown

The name Brittingham means "house in a big field." Brettenham Manor, located in the County of Norfolk, England, was granted to the monks of Ely in the ninth century, such grants being confirmed by King Egbert, the first ruler of all England, he ruling in 827. It was afterwards divided before William the Conqueror's time but the name hung or rather clung to a part of the land. In the Domesday Book of William the Conqueror, issued about 1080, the name is spelled Bretham.

Malcomb III of Scotland, in 1080, signing a paper said "and for the mair fuith I byte the white wax with mey tooth". When William the Conqueror divided the lands, he gave Brettenham Manor to Audo. At this time surnames were taken. We next find this manor owned by Richard de Brettenham of Clare Honor. In 1297 William de Brettenham and John de Brockiloth owned it. In 1314 William de Brettenham was lord of the manor Rathburg Hall. In 1820 Henry de Brettingham, a learned writer, died in county of Norfolk. In 1734 Mr. Brettingham of Norwich of Norfolk County was architect of the Earl of Leicester palace named Holkham House. "He was allowed to equal, if not to excel, all the professors of his time." Mrs. Brettingham of Ditchingham House, Norfolk County, is mentioned in a book of date 1864. There exists the parish of Brettenham in Norfolk County. William Brittingham, for whom all the family known living in America have come, came from England in 1659 and settled on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

 - vi. Roger an infant, who was baptized on the day of his mother's funeral, 22/3/1654 Hempstead.

It can only be assumed there was an epidemic in 1654/5 as a son, aged twelve, was buried 14 January and John (the Elder) was buried 21 January and Elizabeth the 22nd of January 1654/5. The death of John Brittingham and his wife, Elizabeth, left his children orphans; the youngest, Roger, an infant.

William Brittingham did not appear to claim his inheritance, therefore it was passed to Christopher, his uncle and executor of his mother's estate. William must have felt there was no opportunity for him in his native country and his mind started wandering... to the far plantations of Virginia and Maryland which were at this time only twenty-three years old.

WILLIAM BRITTINGHAM, IMMIGRANT

William Brittingham was about nineteen years and unmarried when he came to Maryland in 1659. He apparently learned his trade of cordwainer (leather shoemaker) there, which was one of importance in the colonies.

16 August 1667 William Brittingham was granted seven hundred acres for transporting the following: William Greene, Thomas Oxford, John Brickhill, Edward Hart, Robert Hall, Abram Mackington, Thomas Lanford, William Murry, Henry Marke, Edward Bream, James Grimes, Jean Roxford, Robert Busley and Jean Broadway.

Subsequent purchases and grants extended his property to the Pocomoke River in Maryland. He owned a cypress swamp and cypress wood was in demand in the west Indies where Eastern Shore planters obtained their sugar, rum, coffee, and molasses.

William Brittingham's first Maryland grant was from Cecilius Lord Baltimore, on 2 September 1675 and covered 119 acres. 9 June 1686 William acquired 700 acres of a tract of land named "Cowley" in Somerset County, Maryland, for which he paid Mark Manlove of Kent County, Penn. 11,000 lbs of tobacco. 12 Nov. 1690 he paid Joseph Staton 4,000 lbs. of Tobacco for 50 acres of "Line Lott" in Somerset County, Maryland. Little is known about William Brittingham's business enterprises except that his land acquisitions indicate success.

William's wife, Elizabeth (Williams) Brittingham, was the mother of all his children. Elizabeth was the daughter of John Williams, planter, who died Charles County, Md. ca 1709. He married secondly, a thirty-two year old widow, Mary (Roach) Martin (1668/9, living 1708/9)

In 1707 William Brittingham and his wife, Mary, exchanged 150 acres of his Accomack land to his son, John, for land in Somerset County, Maryland. From there on he lived out his life on his Virginia plantation where he died between March 18 and April 5 1708/9. He had lived a good life. His industry had gained him land and other possessions and he carved out plantations from the virgin forest for his children and future generations.

In his will he left to his son Samuel the Plantation where Samuel lived, and 100 acres of "Winter Quarter" in Somerset. His son Nathaniel, inherited the plantation where William lived in Accomack, and half the marsh adjoining the testator's dwelling plantation in Va. Nathaniel also inherited "all the chairs which came over the Bay". The testator's son, John, was mentioned but his bequest was not named in the will abstract; the daughter, Rebecca, inherited 150 acres where William Brittingham, Jr. lived. William, Jr. received 400 acres in Somerset, part of the 700 acres called "Winter Quarter". Other children were Joseph, who inherited 200 acres of "Winter Quarter" in Somerset; Sarah (Mrs. Isaac Horsey) whose legacy is not named, Isaac, who received 5 shillings; and Ann (Mrs. Francis Thorowgood) whose husband received the other half of the marsh on William's plantation.

THE LETTER BOOK OF CHARLES B. MOORE, 1855-1859

This letter book was kept by Charles B. Moore (see his will, also in this quarterly). He kept a record of the letters that he sent and the letters that he received. Every part of it should be easily understandable, except the last column. He used the words Friendship or Business to designate the type of letter. Due to lack of space, the letters F & B have been substituted. The spelling he used has been retained.
