THE DALLAS QUARTERLY

PUBLISHED QUARTERLY BY THE DALLAS GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
P.O. BOX 12648, DALLAS, TEXAS 75225

MADILYN L. (COEN) CRANE
EDITOR

THE DALLAS QUARTERLY welcomes manuscripts of TEXAS material and material of an unusual but useful nature for proposed publication. All manuscripts should be sent to:

Editor, THE DALLAS QUARTERLY, P.O. Box 12648, Dallas, Texas 75225

Manuscripts should be typed on standard-sized paper with the author's name on each page, and each page should be numbered. Please include a cover letter giving permission of the author to publish the material in THE DALLAS QUARTERLY. When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please include a typed transcript.

Some types of records suitable for publication include Bible records, Dallas and surrounding county court records (i.e. marriages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts etc.), Texas cemetery inscriptions, "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular repository, etc.), abstracts from Texas newspapers and brief family genealogies with Texas connections. The Editor makes the final decision on material to be published. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Dallas Public Library. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but the Dallas Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by contributors.

The DALLAS GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY is a non-profit, federally tax-exempt organization. Individuals, libraries, or societies may apply for membership. Annual dues are $10.00 for the calendar year if paid by January 31, after January 31st they are $11.00. All members receive the quarterly journal and the monthly newsletter with membership.

QUERIES: Queries do not require a Texas connection and are free to the members of the Dallas Genealogical Society. Non-members should include $3.00 for each query. To eliminate correspondence and delay we reserve the right to abbreviate and condense.

BOOK REVIEWS: Upon receipt of a gratis copy donated to the Dallas Genealogical Society, books which are currently in print and available for sale will be noticed in The Dallas Quarterly. After review, the publication will be placed in the Dallas Public Library. All books to be reviewed should be sent to the Dallas Genealogical Society along with complete ordering instructions.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

The year 1986-87 was one of continued growth and achievement for the Society, and I am pleased to have served as your President. Members of the Board have served ably and dependably; other members and committees have aided in some of the activities and contributed to a successful year. And you--the membership--by your support and participation have made it not only possible but worthwhile.

The year began with the unsettling news of proposed budget cuts which would impact, possibly to the extent of closing, the Genealogy Department of the J. Eric Jonsson Central Library. Interested persons met, shared ideas, became informed, and expressed opinions. Perhaps as a result the adopted budget was less painful than it might have been, but nevertheless cuts included a reduction in book and periodicals budgets and elimination of bookbinding and book repair.

A unique event in the history of our Society was our co-sponsoring with the State Fair of Texas in October a genealogical writing competition and exhibit of Texas ancestors in conjunction with the Sesquicentennial. Resulting publicity was widespread. Not only was the display viewed by countless persons at the State Fair, but the fifty entries included one from Hawaii and subsequently a Pennsylvania genealogical Society reported our activity in their publication. Also in October, a group of members prepared and hosted lunch for about thirty members of the Texas State Genealogical Society here for their convention. For this the library received a contribution.

The Beginners Workshop in November and the Annual Workshop in March were both very successful. Board and Society members conducted the fall workshop, while Dr. James R. Johnson, author, lecturer, and department head at Memphis and Shelby County Public Library, was the featured speaker at the spring workshop on the Trans-Appalachian Frontier: Arkansas, Kentucky and Tennessee. Although there were entries in all categories, judges selected only one recipient for the Annual Book Award, presented at the spring workshop; named was Mozella Wright Goni for THE RIGHT TO WRIGHTHOOD, THE JAMES WILLIAM WRIGHT FAMILY HISTORY.

Late in the fall our publication INDEX TO MEMORIAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL HISTORY OF TEXAS was introduced. In the spring, our new membership roster, the first in four years, was made available. The census and pedigree forms with Dallas Genealogical Society logo which we have available for sale were redesigned and professionally typeset.

Continuing to exemplify a high standard of professionalism, THE DALLAS QUARTERLY detailed 97 pages of acquisitions (September through June), together with the series of marriages and deeds and other items of interest.

Several additions to the library collection were completed as Society projects, along with bookbinding donations. The set of COMPILED SERVICE RECORDS OF SOLDIERS WHO SERVED IN THE AMERICAN ARMY DURING THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR microfilm begun last year was completed (499 of the 1,096 rolls), as well as the McCubbins Collection (76 rolls). Acquisition of the INTERNATIONAL GENEALOGICAL INDEX (IGI) was begun with the purchase of the microfiche for Scotland and quickly completed by Jean Tabb's gift of the major portion of the set. The current project of completing the microfilm census collection was launched in April.

Meetings covered a cross section in interests, and were well attended. A highlight was the reception in February for Lucile Anderson Boykin upon her retirement. Membership reached an all-time high of 653 at the end of May, with four more memberships on hand for processing. The exchange list remains at 94.

My personal project has been reorganization of the President's files. With the approval of the Board, original records for the past ten years, bound by year, were transferred to the library for safekeeping and as a part of their collection, with copies of selected material retained for the use of the President.

Recognized at our May meeting with a life membership were two of our charter members. Judge Dee Brown Walker helped secure the charter of our Society in 1955 and has been a legal resource over the many years. He served two terms as President, in 1963 and 1964, and his wife, Anna Lee Gandy Walker, served as the first Secretary.

The annual gift of the Society to the Genealogy Department--$3,000--was designated in memory of Mrs. Harry Joseph Morris, whose many accomplishments in genealogy deserve this recognition. Additionally, the annual gift of $150 to the Genealogy Department was given as a memorial to deceased members.

Both the Genealogy Department of the Dallas Public Library and the Dallas Genealogical Society have come a long way in the thirty-plus years of their association. The Genealogy Department, which began with a few books and a large measure of enthusiasm and service to others, is becoming one of the prime collections in the nation. Although the Society must still budget carefully, Board members can now undertake commitments without anxiety for personal financial jeopardy, a consideration which occurred at times in the formative years. In this year, assets (cash, funds reserved for life memberships, book inventories, prepaid expenses, and equipment) increased $3,290.19, from $28,483.00 to $31,773.19, after all bills were paid.

Best wishes to the incoming officers. I am looking forward to another successful year!

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH USING THE DALLAS PUBLIC LIBRARY

by Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck

Located in the center of Dallas at 1515 Young Street in the vicinity of the Dallas Convention Center and the Dallas City Hall, the Dallas Public Library is open to the public without charge. Parking is available in the library's subterranean garage entered on the Wood Street side of the building with rates comparable to other locations in the area.

The library is normally open 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM Monday through Thursday, 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM Friday and Saturday, and 1:00-5:00 PM Sunday. Exceptions would include inclement weather conditions during the winter. Official city holidays include New Year's Day, Martin Luther King's birthday, President's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day (and the Friday following), and Christmas. The library also closes on Easter.

The central library building is the largest public library structure in the nation. Opened in 1982, the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library consists of nine floors above ground and two below, occupying an entire city block. Located on the eighth level is the Genealogy Section and, on the seventh, the Texas/Dallas Archives and History Division. The genealogical materials housed there in are some of the richest in the southern half of the nation. With more than 48,400 volumes in the genealogy section, the collection is the largest book collection in the southern and southwestern United States. Complemented by more than 47,200 microforms, the materials comprise an especially vast array for genealogical research. Because Dallas area residents hail from virtually every state in the Union, the staff of the genealogy section endeavor to collect material representative of the entire nation. The southern and midwestern states and the thirteen original colonies have always been emphasized and remain stronger than the western, northern, or northwestern states.

The genealogy section strives to acquire all printed census indexes and owns all of the federal decennial census records on microfilm for the country from 1790 through 1860; the 1880 soundex for every state and territory; the 1900 census for the entire nation; the 1910 census for Mississippi, Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Missouri, Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Tennessee; and the censuses for numerous other counties for 1870, 1880 and 1910.

The genealogy section is the depository for the lineage papers of several hereditary societies in Texas, namely, the Order of Founders and Patriots of America, the Sons of the American Revolution, the Society of Colonial Wars, and the Society of the War of 1812. The only set of membership applications of the Sons of the Republic of Texas available to researchers is here. The Dallas Genealogical Society, the oldest genealogical society

In the state, has been a long-time force in the growth of the genealogy section. Through the efforts of the society, the support of hereditary societies in the area, and the interest of genealogical researchers across the nation, the genealogy section has become one of the centers for genealogical research in the country.

While the library's holdings contain few unique items, the collection of military related records is one of the most complete in the nation. All of the service records, pensions, and bounty-land applications files for the Revolutionary War, both army and navy, are available on microfilm. The papers of the Continental Congress, the ledgers of payment (1818-1872), the Virginia half-pay pensions, the South Carolina audited accounts, the Virginia public service claims, the North Carolina Revolutionary Army accounts, the Massachusetts Archives Revolutionary War service appendix, and the numbered records books relating to both military and civilian personnel enrich the potential for Revolutionary War research. The genealogy section also has all of the service records of volunteers who served from 1784 to 1811. It has the index to those in the War of 1812, the Indian Wars (1815-1858), the Mexican War (1846-1848), and the Confederacy (1861-1865). Moreover, the library also has the registers of enlistments in the United States Army from 1798 to 1914. The indexes to pensions for the War of 1812, the Indian Wars, the Mexican War, the Old War series, and the Union Civil War veterans are also available. There are indexes for volunteer Union soldiers from Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Dakota, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oregon, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. There are indexes for Confederate pensions for Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, and Texas.

The collection of passenger list indexes is strong for a state somewhat removed from the Atlantic seaboard. There are indexes for the ports of Baltimore (1829-1897, 1833-1866, and 1897-1952); Boston (1848-1891, 1902-1906, and 1906-1920); Galveston (1846-1871, 1896-1906, and 1906-1951); New Orleans (1850s-1900 and 1900-1952); New York (1820-1846 and 1897-1902); Philadelphia (1800-1906 and 1883-1948); miscellaneous Gulf, Atlantic, and Great Lakes ports (1820-1874); Providence (1911-1954); New Bedford (1902-1954); Gulfport (1904-1954); and Portland (1893-1954). For some ports there also are quarterly abstracts of the lists (e.g. Baltimore from 1820-1869) and/or the lists themselves (e.g. New York from 1820-1897).

Among frequently consulted sources are the Arkansas Gazette and its index (1819-1870); the California death index (1940-1979); the California marriage index (1960-1981); the Barbour and Hale collections of Connecticut vital statistics; the archives of Spanish West Florida and the Spanish land grants of Florida; the Hollingsworth Collection for Georgia; the public domain land sales index for Illinois; the Indiana biographical index; the Kentucky tax lists; the records of the diocese of Louisiana and the Floridas; the Maine Old Cemetery Association records; the Torrey collection of New England marriages prior to 1700; the genealogies of Cape Cod families; the Corbin Collection for Massachusetts; the Charles E. Banks manuscripts for New England; the Massachusetts vital records on microfiche from the Holbrook Institute; Mississippi marriages prior to 1926; the index to the fur trade ledgers at the Missouri Historical Society; the Seversmith manuscripts for New York; the North Carolina marriage bonds prior to 1868; Starr's Old Cherokee families and genealogies; the Oklahoma Confederate pension applications; the Oregon death index (1903-1970); the South Carolina will transcripts; the South Carolina memorials; the WPA tombstone inscriptions index for South Carolina; the Tennessee State Library Bible collection; the probate and land records of Dallas County, Texas, prior to 1900; the index to Texas deaths (1903-1945); the Washington death index (1907-1979); the Bowman Files of the Mayflower Society; the Biographical Dictionary for Early Virginia; the Vosburgh Collection of New York church records; the McCubbins Collection; the International Genealogical Index of the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; genealogies of the Singers of the Declaration of Independence; the South Carolina Council Journals (1734-1773) and the county will abstracts of Pennsylvania.

The genealogy section has acquired the Research Publications's micropublications of county histories and atlases for the states of New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, and California. It also has the Cox Library equivalent for Colorado, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Minnesota, Nevada, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, and Washington. Other major sets include the Draper Papers, all U.S. City directories prior to 1861, the Accelerated Indexing Systems microfiche index to censuses and census substitutes, the Family Registry of the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the Documentary Relations of the Southwest, Biofile, and Master Index. The tax lists of every Texas County are available from 1836 or the year of creation of the county through 1910.

Griffith's valuation of Ireland, the British Record Society's publications, the Harleian Society's series for England, the Deutsches Geschlechterbuch and Sibmacher's Wappenbuch for Germanic speaking Europe, the publications of the Huguenot Society of London, and the vital statistics and census of French Quebec prepared by the Demography Department of the University of Montreal are some of the more frequently consulted foreign reference materials.

The library has an excellent representation of genealogical periodicals. Complete runs exist of such important ones as the New England Historic Genealogical Register, New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, National Genealogical Society Quarterly, Publications of the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania, Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey, American Genealogist, Virginia Genealogist, William and Mary Quarterly, Confederate Veteran, and Tyler's Quarterly.

Donations are the life blood of any vibrant library, and are actively solicited. Within the last year, nearly $20,000 in cash has been contributed by supporters of the library, and more than 1,800 volumes have been donated. Without such support from the genealogical community, the library could not offer the resources for all of the nearly 30,000 users who visit it annually for genealogical research. The mailing address is Genealogy Section, J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, Dallas Public Library, 1515 Young Street, Dallas, Texas 75201.

Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck is supervisor of the Genealogy Section of the Dallas Public Library. He has served on the faculty of the Institute of Genealogy and Historical Research at Samford University since 1974 and is currently registrar general of the Order of Founders and Patriots in America. He has been a speaker at several of the National Genealogical Society Conferences and received the Distinguished Service Award in 1983.

Historical Sketches. The oldest church in the Elm Fork Association, Union Church, is fifteen miles north-west of Dallas, Dallas County. It was organized by Elder David Myers, A.D., 1846, May the 10th, on five members, to wit: F. Bowles, J. B. Lee, S. M. Myers, Margaret A. Lee and Letticia Myers. Her pastors have been: Elders David Myers, 4 years; J. A. Freeman, 1 year; J. M. Myers, 14 years; E. Witt, 1 year; S. L. Jenkins, 2 years; J. C. Portman, 2 years; W. B. Long, 1 year; J. J. Butler, 4 years; J. R. Masters, 1 year. This church has licensed and ordained three preachers, to-wit: J. M. Myers, John Fyke and G. W. Good. Noah Good and Thomas Keenam have been her deacons for many years; Brother Keenam has moved away. At the present date Brethren N. Good, D. Nix, C. Longmire, J. M. Nix, E. L. Webb and Jacob Riley are our deacons. A few years ago we have a very large Sunday school in successful operation for two or three years. Union Church has a meeting house 36 by 56 feet, two stories high; cost probably, $2,000. Our church numbers 125; pastor's salary, this year, $150. We take 25 copies of the Texas Baptist; do a little for Domestic and Foreign Missions. Our statistics for the past 30 years are as follows: Received by experience and baptism 220; Received by letter 131; Dismissed by letter 102; Deceased 36; Excluded 55; Total 544. During the past thirty years 544 have stood connected with the church. Our present number, total, according to last minute, is 125. The death rate for 30 years has been only a little over 1 for each year; these figures indicate a very healthy location. J. M. Myers.

EQUAL TIME: THE VIEW FROM THE OTHER SIDE OF THE DESK

Henry R. Timman*

Recent publicity in the publications of the Ohio Genealogical Society concerning the possible closing of Probate Court records to researchers in Ohio is of great importance and concern. There is not a general closing of all records planned; but, rather, some problem with adoption and mental illness records mingled with other records in older Probate Court volumes. Apparently the problem is abated for the time being.

There is always a problem with accessibility of records in courthouses and departments of health, and these should be of concern to researchers. Of course, the prime function of those offices is to do the daily tasks outlined by the Ohio Revised Code but there is also some obligation to oblige those who want to see the records thus created.

As Chief Deputy Clerk in the Huron County Probate Court and as a professional researcher of many years, I am often amused by the researchers who come to our office. There is no way to standardize people and their approach, but I do feel it should be a major concern of the Ohio Genealogical Society and of all instructors, to make researchers aware of some "dos and don'ts". Most researchers try to coexist with courthouse clerks, but the others have said and done things which might explain why the clerks react as they do to genealogists.

For instance, the researcher who arrives late and wants to stay even later; the researcher who doesn't have a pen or paper; the researcher who criticizes the handwriting and content of 100-year-old records; the researcher who brings in his lunch from the local "greasy chicken" palace; the researcher who brings his/her children along to be amused (or to amuse) the entire courthouse; and even the researcher who tried to make her own copies on the court's copy machine. We don't want to forget, either, those who have eight or ten books out at one time and piled on top of each other so the bottom one gets smashed sufficiently and the binding broken; the researcher who puts marriage record 23 in the slot where will record 8 belongs; and the researcher who tells you a long story about the ancestor being sought, and then later wants you to analyze the evidence found in the Court records.

It has always been my belief that a researcher should be aware of the history of the area, the hours of the courthouse, or other research facilities, and should be equipped with pen and paper. The "five and dime" is just down the street from Huron County's Courthouse, and more than once a person has been directed there to obtain supplies.

It is impossible, of course, to make everyone think the way I do, but researchers should be aware of rules of good operation. I believe this also applies to those who write for information. Did you ever fail to receive a reply? Nine chances out of ten it was because you didn't send return postage. Our Court's budget is tight, and there is no room for postage for research letters and I don't believe there should be. Including return postage is always good manners, and will usually bring you an answer. Oh, perhaps you're one of those who writes and asks for everything on the Johnson family of Peru Township. In case you didn't already know, courthouse records are by topic and usually chronological, not arranged by family.

I could go into several more specifics, but I think I've made the point that there are two sides to this question and sometimes "bad" researchers have turned the clerks against "their kind" in general. It is also my opinion that anyone who uses the phrase "public servant" is damaging an already fragile relationship. I know that I am a public employee, but I also pay my share of taxes and therefore am not a public servant. But then, the man I buy my auto from is a public employee, too. I support him by buying an auto from him, just as I support my grocer by buying from him. So, you see, aren't we all public servants/employees of one kind or another? We must all please the public who spends money with us, to the best of our ability.

Please do keep in mind that your attitude and manners are of prime importance while working in a public facility.

Remember "Do unto others..."!!

METRO PAST - THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS

Margaret Ann Thetford*

26 December 1886

A sad accident occurred about a mile and a half up the West Fork in Fort Worth this evening. A young man named Louis F. Golden lost his life in attempting to save a young lady, Miss Emma Howe, from drowning. About 2:30 this afternoon the couple left the city for a boat ride on the river, and had reached a bend in the river at which point the water is some 10 feet deep, but very snaggy. The boat struck one of these snags and was capsized, when the couple were thrown from the boat into the water, the young lady sinking immediately to the bottom.

12 January 1887

Mrs. McCormick, who resides on East Elm street, yesterday found a lost 5-year-old boy on the corner of Elm and Market streets and took him to her home.

TRAVELS OF GEORGE MAYSE

Madilyn L. Crane*

This is the story of his travels as written by George Mayse. The spelling is his, punctuation is mine; Madilyn L. Crane.

Warm Springs Bath Co. Va. May 1873

At your request I give you something of my private and public life. In 1804 I came to the Warm Springs when a boy of 16 years old as a stone keeper for a gentleman by the name of Thos. Kinkead. I remained with him four years, I then was one of the deputy Sheriffs for Bath County, a very large county about 60 miles from E to W by 55 miles from S to N. I served two years 1808 & 9. I then had a desire to travel. I fell in with a gentleman by the name of Hugh McLaughlin who lived at --- Warm Springs a short time before. He began telling me about a trip or journey he and Mr. Towles, late of Spottsylvania Co., now living in Greenbrier Co. had gone down the Mississippi to Louisiana to Point Coupe with about twenty five negroes for sale. I told him I would like to see the country. He then said, come along with us, we are going down the Mississippi again with negroes, Dec 1809. I then consented to go along with them, they had a flat bottom boat built on Kanawha. I remained in Lewisburg about six weeks before the company were ready to set out, which party consisted of McLaughlin, Towls, Dr. Chas. Lewis, above mentioned, Alex Kitchen of Monroe Co. & myself. They had a carriage & two horses, a wagon & four horse & saddle horses. A friend of mine came to me and said, "As you are going down the Mississippi I will give you a letter of introduction to Gov. John Steel late of Rockbridge Co." When we arrived at Kanawha a short distance below John Jones, we camped near the Ka. built up fires, the weather being very cold and lay down to rest. The next morning when we awoke found ourselves 9 or 10 inches under snow, we were very comfortable. We boarded with Mr. Jones about ten days before the boat was finished, it was then launched in the Kanawha. I sold my horse, the others took theirs on the boat with them, there were fire places on the boat for our selves and negroes. We descended the Ka. Ohio & Miss rivers, and landed at Natchez Feb 1810. Remained there about four or five days at the boat landing at the bottom of a steep hill. I went up to the City (?) inquired where the Gov. resided, which was at the suburbs of the city. I handed my letter of introduction to him, he read it and after talking awhile asked where I was from, and where going. I told him from Va to Louisiana & perhaps to New Orleans to see the country, how long did I expect to remain at Natchez. I told him only a few days, he then said come and jine with him tomorrow, which I did. We had a very fine dinner & wine, which I relished very much after my boat fare. We then went on our way down the Mississippi and had to land at a little village near fort Adams, in consequence of the high winds, making it some what dangerous to proceed in a flat bottom boat. We had frequently to draw to shore on account of high winds. I went up to the village and inquired if they knew of a young man by the name of Hugh Connell. He lived on my Fathers plantation, with his father and mother when I was a small boy. This Hugh came to the village that day, he was a deputy Sheriff under his fath Wm. Connell. Went down the Mississippi to Point Coupe where we remained six weeks. We put up at the house of ( ? ) Zleon Poidrap, who was in Congress at that time. McLaughlin & Towls put up at his house the year before. He invited them to come to house if they should come that way again. He was a bachelor and the wealthiest man in Louisiana. His nephew managed for him in his absence. Point Coupe is a little village fronting the Mississippi river about one hundred and fifty miles above New Orleans. The population, nearly all French, polite & hospitable. We were asked to dine with them frequently. The side boards were loaded with good things. The first thing brought to the table was gumbo soup a favorite dish with the French, but I did not relish very well. The soup being removed another plate was placed before us with some good eatables the 3rd plate being removed I was pretty well satisfied. That routine of plates was kept up six times. I was not accustomed to more than 3 plates including soup plate. After removal of all plates then came on the wine, (which was not indulged in too freely). After rising from the table we received invitations from several gentlemen to dine with them, which we did. The ceremony & routine went through with as above stated. Two of our company & myself took the skift which we had attached to our boat, with two negro men to roe, and went down the river about eighty miles to an outlet of a stream of water on the west side of the river that formed some small lakes. There were some friendly Indians settled there, we hired an Indian as a pilot through the most difficult part of the lake, which was near the end. About seven miles from Attacapas, (pronounced Attuckapaw). The State is laid off into Parishes, something like our counties. We walked through prairies, seeing thousands of cattle. About three miles from the Church night came on us, we lay down by a bayou. You can discover an current in the water, timber on each side. After laying down on the grass a short time the mesquites came down upon us as though they would devour us, we protected our selves the best we could, by our handkerchiefs on our faces & gloves on our hands, I slept very little if any that night. Next morning we went to Attae-Church. There being a pretty good house of entertainment we put up we remained in the village about three weeks. The staple product is sugar & cotton, it is a prairie country. The western portion of the parish borders on the sea shore. We found the french very polite and hospitable. We were invited by a frenchman to come and stay with him one night, which we did, he lived seven miles from the Church. We walked and the weather being warm and nearly gave out. We walked back next day to the Church & my feet were pretty well blistered. A large majority of the population are french and Roman Catholics. We returned by the lake and river up to Point Coup. We then set out for our homes in Va (I purchased an old gray horse at Point Coup) on the 2nd day of June 1810. We crossed the river at Point Coup, Hence through the state of Mississippi to Natchez the seat of Government. In 150 miles, we there purchased some provisions to last us through the Chocktaw and Chickesan Nations of Indians, before we got through the Indian Nations our provisions gave out. There were some log cabins along the road owned by the half breed americans married to Indian Squaws. Some of them keep a kind of entertainment fare. Cornbread & meat some places corn for our horses. After we had traveled some distance in the Chocktaw Nation, my old gray horse gave nearly out, we put up for the night at a house kept by a white man, he was not at home. His wife was a good looking woman pretty well ( ? ) for that section. Spoke English very well, had a very good farm & dwelling, appeared to have some stock and negroes. I went out to the stable, and saw some horses, I told a negro man my horse was nearly given out & would like to buy another. Said he had one, pointing him out, that he would sell. He asked fifty dollars which I agreed to give it. I went into the house to see his mistress, she said the horse belongs to him, and any bargain I would make with him would be all right. Two gentlemen overtook us the next day. One of them with his saddle bags heavily loaded with silver dollars. He asked me if I would let him put them on my led horse. I told him yes he led the horse and traveled with us several days. Passing through Nashville, Tenn. they left us. I then led the old grey up into Kentucky some distance, and traded my two horses for one. Coming up through Ky. an old gentleman overtook our party of five or six. I with one of them was riding in front, the old gentleman got in conversation with some in rear, inquires were made about their travels, learning that our party had been down the Mississippi and were returning home to Va. The old gentleman asked some of them if they knew any thing about a young man by the name of George Mayse, they said yes, there he is before you. He came up and shook hands with me, made himself known to me as my Uncle, who married my Mothers Sister. I went home with him in Clark County, and remained with him a day or two, my party went on home to Greenbrier & Monroe Counties, Va. I traveled on home by myself on the third horse. I remained at my Fathers a few months. I then went to read Law under the direction of Genl Samuel Blackburn, with John Brown a school mate & neighbor in the summer of 1810.

In the year 1819 I took a trip to Missouri with two gentlemen from Pendleton County. Passing down the Kanawha valley through Ky to Lexington stopped at Versalles, Woodford Co. a few days, where I had some friends from Bath Co. My horse four years old appeared to be leg weary and not able to go on. I left him with a farmer until I returned, purchased another horse. We went through Frankfort, crossed the Ohio river at Louisville, passing through Indiana, Illinois to St. Louis, hence 25 miles crossing Mo river on the west side at St. Charles a french village passing on up the river bottom we came to a stream of water we crossed over in a canoe and swam our horses, on our way up the river we had to lay out in the woods, that night we heard wolves howling some short distance off. The next morning we traveled on to a house where we got breakfast & corn for our horses. On our way I called to see old Mr. Danl Boon, his house was a short distance from the road we were traveling. My companions went on about two miles to a house where we intended to stay all night. On going into the house I saw a very genteel lady, wife of Mr. Boon's Son who was in congress at that time. I asked if Mr. Boon was at home, she said he was on the farm, she would send for him. Before he came in, I picked up a book on the table. The Mountain Man in prose & verse the life of Danl Boon, I asked the lady what old Mr. Boon thought of it, she said he did not like it as well as he did the book published at Pettsburg of his life. The Mountain Man, it was in such high flown language that he did not understand it. After he came in the house and conversing awhile. I told him I had a receipt for an entry of some land signed by Squire Boon, given to me by a gentleman in Pendleton County, and to make some inquiry of him, he said that the receipt was signed by his brother Squire Boon, he supposed the land was some where about Louisville, Ky. I then began to make inquiry about the settlement of Ky and Mo, he appeared to be very communicative during the short time I remained with him. The land was very rich corn waist high in the month of May. During our journey up the river bottom, it rained nearly all day & night. We lodged that night with a very poor man & family. Had no corn for our horses, his house was some what leaky. I don't remember whether we got anything to eat or not. We got up very early next morning and traveled about seven miles, came to a river called rock river found it b--oming full did not know what to do. We were informed there was a house of entertainment two miles on our way, from the river, we knew ( ? ) horse could swim. The road on the opposite side of the river slanted down, if we had gotten below the road going out, probably we might have been drowned. Our horses swam finely and came out exactly at the right place. We went on to the house above mentioned to breakfast, remained there all day dried our clothes. We went on through Howard County, passed Boons lick where salt water was boiling up out of the ground in a bold stream. Hence to Chariton river, which empties into Mo river about two hundred miles above St. Louis. We then turned our faces homeward. Came down the road leading through the prairies to St. Charles, where my companions left me. They crossed the Miss. above the mouth of Mo river. My horses back being hurt I had to travel Slowly. I came down to St. Louis crossed the Miss went through Illinois crossed the ? river at Uniontown, Union county, Ky. Passing through Frankfort, the seat of Government and Lexington calling at Versailles for my horse I had left there and led him home.

Geneva BROWN, 923 Forrester, Richardson, Tx. 75080. I am researching some missing ancestors; can anyone help me? I am seeking information on my great grandfather and great grandmother, Daniel R. RUSSELL and Temperance (FRANKS) RUSSELL of the Edinburg Township of Neshoba Co., Mississippi. He died sometime after 1866 there and I do not know what happened to her.

The 1860 Mississippi Census of Neshoba Co. gives Daniels occupation as farmer and Temperance as a patcher. I have been told by some family member that he was a steamboat captain. He was struck by lightning while helping to build a school, church community center. There were ten or eleven children; Mary, Benjamin, Francis W, and possibly a Bud came to Texas with an older sister Margaret b 1840 Edinburg Miss and her husband Duncan McMILLIAN. METRO PAST - DALLAS MORNING NEWS

8 January 1887

This afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock J.N. Emery, connected with the drug house of H.W. Williams, entered the warehouse back of Houston street and discovered a young fellow named Harvey Boles taking a lot of bottles. Emery called him to talk, asking what he was doing. The fellow answered that he was seeking a place to sleep. The story not being credited, Emery caught hold of the fellow, who drew a knife and plunged the blade of it into Emery's arm, inflicting an ugly gash. He held on to the youngster, however, and turned him over to the police, who lodged him in jail.

9 January 1887

Anna Jones and Mrs. Martha Baker, the latter carrying a child wrapped in a thin shawl, both en route to Fort Worth, near which their father lives, got stranded in the city and were forced yesterday to apply for aid to the Mayor, who gave them temporary quarters at the city hospital. The child is sick. The Mayor later in the day furnished the poor women, out of his private resources, money to take them to Fort Worth, besides paying the account for their board and lodging during the previous night.

16 January 1887

A story-and-a-half log cabin on Lemmon Avenue, caught fire yesterday, and a strong wind prevailing, was burned to the ground. The value of the structure was its landmark qualities. It was built in 1835 by Mr. Brandenburg, some of whose descendants reside in Dallas County, and was adapted to resist Indians, as the walls were of cedar logs two feet through. It was probably the only log cabin in the city.

19 January 1887

Mr. C.A. Read, of this city, has contrived an important Telephone Resonator, which gives great satisfaction to all who have used it. As explained in the circular, it is an attachment that fits any Standard Blake Transmitter (as used with the Bell Telephone). Its object is to increase the transmitting power of the telephone transmitter, by throwing the voice through its amplifying and resonating chambers with greater volume of sound and greater penetration. Thus your correspondent at the other end of the line receives your words more easily and distinctly.

20 January 1887

The digging for gold on Mr. Scott's farm, west of the river, goes on without interruption, and hope continues to smile on the workers like a lottery ticket. Tradition has it that gold was buried in the neighborhood of Dallas by a party of Spaniards who were driven to the last ditch by a band of Indians.

23 January 1887

About 8 o'clock yesterday morning Michael McManus, a member of the Santa Fe bridge gang, was killed at the bridge about a mile south of the city by a piece of timber 12-by-12 and 20 feet long falling on him. The gang had been divided so as to work a portion of the hands on the bridge and the remainder on the ground. As the train passed over the jar, it is thought, caused the loose plank to fall and strike McManus, whose jaw and neck were broken, causing instant death.

24 January 1887

Mrs. J.S. Daugherty, Mrs. A.A. Johnston and Prof. Rosecrans, State Sunday School evangelist, organized a Sunday School yesterday at Daugherty's Station.

31 January 1887

Justice Braswell yesterday summoned a jury to inquire into the cause of the death of John Gavion, aged about 65, who died suddenly at the residence of his nephew, Pat Burke, near the Houston and Texas Central section house, in the southern quarter of East Dallas, at 12:30 p.m. yesterday.

12 February 1887

The horse belonging to Albert Lacy which, with a horse belonging to Thomas Brandenburg, was stolen from Main Street several days ago and was found yesterday by Sheriff Lewis in the timber several miles south of the city.

18 February 1887

About noon yesterday a daring robbery was committed in the feedstore of Mr. James McKeand, 1229 Elm Street. Mr. McKeand had just gone to dinner when the thief, it is supposed, entered by the back door and going to the safe, the combination of which was off, wrenched the money-drawer out with a cottonhook. A $20 bill which Mr. McKeand had put in the drawer was captured by the thief.

21 February 1887

Yesterday evening the little 6-year-old son of Mrs. Williams, in East Dallas, got hold of a pistol which, under his inexpert operations, was discharged with the effect of shooting off one of his fingers and lodging in the arm of his little sister. Dr. Ewing dressed the boy's wound and extracted the bullet from the little girl, who underwent the severe operation without the use of anesthetics.

28 February 1887

At 12:45 a.m. a fire which had already made considerable headway was discovered in the residence of Mrs. Phelan, northwest corner of Wood and Akard streets, which consumed the building in about twenty minutes. The spread of the flames was so rapid the family was unable to save any part of the furniture, and a trunk or two were the only things secured.

4 March 1887

Mr. J.T. Williams, a native of Dallas County, is in the city as a commissioner for Wichita County to solicit aid for the drouth sufferers, many of whom, he says, are from Dallas County. He asks only for seed with which to revive the agricultural energies of his county. He will call on the merchants.

16 March 1887

Mrs. Jennie Holpin, of Temple, arrived in the city yesterday in search of her husband, who she says ... has been taken sick in Dallas. She came here to nurse him, but being unable to discover anything about his whereabouts is very much distressed.

17 March 1887

Four years ago Messrs. J.W. Webb and Richard Cohn bought 37 and one-half acres near the Episcopal College for $60 an acre, or $2,250. Yesterday they sold 28 and one-half acres of that property to the Kansas City investment Company for $30,000.

1 April 1887

The time of the District Court yesterday was largely tied up with the case of Mrs. Bella Moore vs. the Western Union Telegraph Company, the suit being for $5000 damages arising from the alleged failure of the company to forward a message sent by her from Mount Pleasant to her husband in Dallas acquainting him with the sickness of their child, who subsequently died and was buried among strangers.

9 April 1887

W.H. Gibson, a foreman painter, through the turning of a joist on which he was walking in the Turner Hall, fell to the floor, a distance of 30 feet, sustaining serious internal injuries. He is attended by Dr. Sherrod.

13 April 1887

Martha Wilson was before the mayor yesterday on the charge of appropriating and keeping Annie Fuller's clothes. The mayor turned the accused loose.

14 April 1887

William Fleming, the peanut merchant, yesterday discovered a boy in an attempt to tap his till.

15 April 1887

J.M. Johnson, who a few nights ago was arrested on the charge of carrying weapons, was discharged yesterday by the mayor. It appeared that the defendant had been entrapped.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

As your new editor I feel its appropriate to introduce myself. I find myself getting excited about the quarterly and I am looking forward to sharing my enthusiasm! To date I have had a great deal of help from a lot of people within our Society. Mary Helen Bregal turned over the files to me and spent a great deal of time preparing a list of the many duties of the editor. The staff at the Dallas Public Library has been a great help and it should be noted that Lois Hudgins is the person who types the Acquisition List. Many others have provided information and support: Renee Smith, Margaret Ann Thetford, Kelvin Meyers, Lloyd Bockstruck, Margaret Ann Hudson, Helen Lu and Lea Markhoff. Dorothy Roberts and Mary Helen Bregal have offered to help with the proof reading. Now I would like to acknowledge two others who have given their time and support in helping with the quarterly. Karen Downs, has been a member of the Society for about two years, and is a wonderful typist. She has, in a very short period of time, typed the deed records and retyped the acquisition list on to the computer. Karen will be responsible for entering the majority of the materials you will find in the quarterly. Next is Margret Pearce who has assisted in the layout of the quarterly and proofreading.

In 1982 a request was made to the members to send in their family pedigree charts with the intent of publishing a second volume of the Society's members charts. These charts have been recently rediscovered and will be placed with the items available for publication. I was also excited to find several other items previously submitted by members for publication in the quarterly. These items are presently being sorted and they will be available for publication beginning with the December 1987 issue.

I now would like to call on you to provide materials to be published in the quarterly for the enjoyment and use of all the members of the Society. Please contact me with any ideas you might have concerning the contents of our publication and keep in mind it is your quarterly and your ideas are very important. Also, anyone interested in assisting with the typing, proof reading, layout or materials to be included, please let me hear from you.

Now to tell you a little about myself and my family, we live in Richardson. My husband, Rod, is the computer expert of the family and our son at age six is starting first grade this year. I do bookkeeping for a small engineering firm and with my partner have published a family book. I am presently working on another book for publication and of course I'm working on The Dallas Quarterly! I'm looking forward to an exciting and rewarding year.

Sincerely,

Madilyn L. Crane
