PAST PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

On behalf of the 1988-1989 Executive Board of the Dallas Genealogical Society (DGS), it gives me a great deal of pride to report that the Society is in excellent condition. We have had an incredibly busy year, an incredibly successful year and an incredibly profitable year. In the past twelve months several works in progress were completed, new projects begun and brought to a successful conclusion, and still other projects begun for future completion.

To give credit where credit is due, may I start by saying that the officers and directors I had the pleasure of serving with on the 1988-1989 Board were fifteen of the hardest working and most dedicated people in the history of DGS. It was their commitment, along with the involvement of a large group of volunteers, that enabled DGS to have such a good year. On my part it has been a distinct learning experience to work with such a flexible and open minded group of people. We can all take pride in what they accomplished through teamwork, and it is my pleasure to have been a part of that team.

What were our activities and accomplishments this year? To begin, we set about to make our community more aware of DGS, genealogy and the fine collection of research materials in the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library. To do this, we first took our "show on the road" by participating in the Cultural Fair at Eastfield College on October 19, 1988, where Madilyn Crane and I talked to the students and instructors about genealogy.

On April 27, 28 and 29, 1989, we accepted an invitation to exhibit at the Preservation Marketplace of the Annual Conference of the Texas Historical Commission held in Dallas at the Sheraton Hotel. For three days, Joan Thompson, Kelvin Meyers, Helen Lu, Bill Jacoby and I visited with folks from all over the state about local history, genealogy and preserving records. We also sold DGS books and forms.

May 17, 18, 19 and 20, 1989, we took our "show" to St. Paul, Minnesota and exhibited at the Ninth Annual Conference of the National Genealogical Society. Pat Hatcher and I talked to many hundreds of the more than sixteen hundred attendees of the conference about DGS, Dallas County, the excellent materials and research facilities located in our area and, most importantly, the genealogy section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library. A twelve page booklet entitled RESEARCHING IN DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS was specially prepared for this trip and handed out in St. Paul. Ably assisted by Jeanne Tabb and Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck, Pat and I also sold DGS forms and attended sessions geared to improve our genealogy know-how. Again this year, Lloyd distinguished himself as a knowledgeable and popular speaker at the conference.

Executive Vice President and Workshop Chairman, Barbara Baylis, deserves the lion's share of the credit for planning and executing our successful fall and spring workshops. In an effort to meet the needs of all our members, the fall workshop was transformed from a workshop for beginners only into a series of classes for the beginner, intermediate and advanced genealogist. These classes were conducted by members of DGS. The Spring Seminar featured the well-known and popular speaker, Dr. George K. Schweitzer, from Knoxville, Tennessee. Both workshops were well attended and profitable.

In September we began our year of programs with the nationally known speaker, Antoinette Jones Seagraves, on the subject of researching in Pennsylvania. Vice President for Programs, Kelvin Meyers, brought us seven more diverse and interesting programs to round out the year and add to our knowledge of genealogy. In January, Pat Hatcher and Bob Johnsey were instrumental in forming a DGS Computer Interest Group, which met one hour prior to the regular meeting in January, February, March and April. The large number of interested participants attending justified the demand for such a group.

Vice President for membership, Dorothy Bruce, reported that DGS ended the 1988 year with a membership of 733. The 1989 renewals and new memberships are steadily climbing to that figure and surely will surpass it. A new membership brochure was introduced in October. Entitled YOUR PERSONAL INVITATION TO JOIN, it details the DGS goals, objectives, projects, meetings, workshops and publications. Bruce Moseley headed the committee that designed the brochure. A companion brochure detailing all the DGS books, microfilm and forms for sale was printed in May.

The DGS Newsletter underwent a facelift under the direction of newsletter editor, Margret Pearce. It grew from a one sheet, legal size flier to an eight page, 8½ by 11 format. Queries were moved from THE DALLAS QUARTERLY to the newsletter. This enabled more queries to be published monthly, giving them wider readability. Society news, library news, genealogical tidbits, notices of local and national seminars and workshops, and reviews of periodicals and family publications were included in addition to the notices of DGS meetings and workshops. Nine newsletters were published in the 1988-1989 year. We also published four issues of THE DALLAS QUARTERLY, which continued to be beautifully edited by Madilyn Crane and her staff this year. An effort was made by both editors to follow nationally recommended standards for publishing genealogical newsletters and quarterlies.

Two books were completed and added to our inventory of publications on early Dallas County records. Margaret Ann Thetford chaired a committee that compiled and published, DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS: GENEALOGICAL DATA FROM EARLY CEMETERIES, VOLUME II, in January. The 1988-1989 Publications Director, Margaret Ann Hudson, completed, MARRIAGES, DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS, VOLUME II, BOOKS F-H, 1887-1895, in May. This book is at the printers as this report is written with a mid June publication date. Both of these books are fine additions to the DGS inventory. We are grateful to all the volunteers who worked to ready them and indebted to the hard working chairmen, Mrs. Thetford and Mrs. Hudson. Throughout the year Research Director, Adrienne Jamieson, and her group of volunteers continued to compile material for volumes III of both the cemetery and the marriage book series. Typing has been started on both books for future publication.

The project for 1988-1989 was to enlarge the collection of military records by purchasing GENERAL INDEX TO COMPILED SERVICE RECORDS, WAR WITH SPAIN (119 rolls of microfilm) and VOLUNTEER SOLDIERS OF THE PHILIPPINE INSURRECTION (19 rolls). We also chose to continue the "adopt a book" project enabling many soft back books to be hard bound and placed on the shelves of the Genealogy Section. A $5.00 donation will bind one book or set of periodicals.

We are indeed fortunate to have one of the nation's ten best genealogical research collections here in Dallas. The Genealogy Section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library continues to grow under the capable and knowledgeable leadership of Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck and his excellent staff. At our Annual Business Meeting in May, DGS did its share to help continue the sections growth by presenting our annual gift in the amount of $10,000. This annual donation is a gift from the genealogical community as a whole. It is a gift from every genealogist that paid DGS dues, sent in unspecified donations to DGS, attended a DGS workshop or bought a DGS book, form or one of the new DGS canvas tote bags or two year calendars introduced this year. An additional check for $150 was also presented at this meeting as a memorial to our deceased members. As an added bonus at the annual meeting, it gave the board a great deal of pleasure to honor Bill Jacoby with a life membership in recognition and appreciation of his many contributions to DGS, the library and Dallas County.

I want to thank the membership for its confidence in me by electing me to the DGS board for the past four years. I have enjoyed serving as Recording Secretary, Vice President for membership, and Executive Vice President and Workshop Chairman. But most of all, it has been my greatest pleasure to serve as President of the Dallas Genealogical Society. Thank you for that experience and honor.

SOUTH-WESTERN PRESBYTERIAN
NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS

Abstracted by Helen M. Lu

INTRODUCTION

These abstracts are from obituaries, death notices, marriages and biographical sketches published in the Southwestern Presbyterian, New Orleans, Louisiana, for the dates given herein.

The Southwestern Presbyterian began publication February 25, 1869 and continued through December 30, 1908, after which time it merged with The Central Presbyterian and The Southern Presbyterian to form The Presbyterian of the South.

Published weekly, these papers were four pages each. The marriages and obituaries were usually on page three, but not always. Biographical sketches, memorials and tributes were likely to be found on almost any page.

Although only a few, if any, obituaries and marriages were published in each issue, they were from a large area. Most were from Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Arkansas and Texas, with a few from Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, South Carolina and elsewhere. While the majority of individuals, in the abstracts, were Presbyterian, some were of other denominations.

The microfilm used for these abstracts was filmed for the American Theological Library Association, Board of Microtex Project, 1971. Microfilm copies were obtained through The Historical Foundation of The Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, Montreat, North Carolina. Microfilm used for these abstracts have been donated to the Genealogy Section, J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, Dallas.

Married Feb. 22d, 1869, by the same, at the residence of the latter, Mr. Robert McKenzie and Mrs. Margaret C. Graham, both of New Orleans.

Died on Thursday, Feb. 11, at 3 1/4 A.M., after a lingering illness, Joseph B. Gribble, aged 54 years, native of Barnstable, England, and the past thirty years a resident of this city.

Died on Friday morning, Feb. 12, on the wreck of the steamer Mittie Stephenson, Mrs. Amelia J. Lyon, wife of Mr. T. L. Lyon, of New Orleans; and at the same time and place Frank Marks, son of Mrs. Lyon.

Death of Mr. John Whiting, of Montgomery, Ala. He had been suffering from erysipelas in the head before leaving his home for New York, on business connected with the South and North Rail Road Company, of which he was President. While at Washington, as he was coming down stairs at his hotel, his foot slipped upon an imperfect step, and he was thrown violently upon his head a considerable distance. A few days afterwards the accident resulted in his death. He expired on the 5th inst., at the Astor House in New York. On Tuesday, the 9th inst., his remains reached the city and were borne to the family residence by a large number of his fellow citizens; the whole of the Presbyterian Church and community. He was buried Friday, the 10th inst., after appropriate funeral services in the Presbyterian Church. G.H.W.P., Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 16, 1869. 29 April 1869, Vol. I, No. 10

Died at Pass Christian, Miss., April 19, 1869, John Edward Caldwell in the 54th year of his age. He was the youngest son of Elias Boudinot Caldwell of Washington city who was Clerk of the United States Court twenty five years. He was the grandson of Rev. James Caldwell of Elizabethtown, N.J. who was chaplain and missionary for Gen. Washington's Army. His uncle John Edward Caldwell, who, at the death of Rev. J. Caldwell, was adopted and educated by Gen. Lafayette, published the first Presbyterian Magazine in the United States. His end was peace. "Blessed are the dead that died in the Lord." [Abstracted from article following his obituary]: J. E. Caldwell, formerly of New Orleans. His brothers in the Howard Association, in the City, will long remember his labors, in the cause of suffering humanity. He was the youngest son of Elias B. Caldwell, who together, with Robert Finley and Gen. Mercer, laid the foundation of the Republic of Liberia, by their organization of the American Colonization Society; which in the opinion of the writer, will yet, be blessed in the redemption of Africa. Rev. Dr. Palmer was invited to the Pass, to receive him into the Church of his father, whose prayers and pious example had taught him the "way of life." Rev. Mr. Cameron mentioned.

Married in the First Presbyterian Church, Galveston, Texas, by Rev. Dr. Bunting, Oct. 6th, 1869, Samuel B. Russell, Esq., and Miss Cornelia C., daughter of Rev. Jonas Johnston, all of Grimes Co., Texas.

The friends of Rev. Stuart Robinson, D.D., will learn with sympathy and sorrow of his recent bereavement. It is contained in the sad intelligence that Laurence C. Robinson, his only surviving son, died of consumption, Oct. 2. His death occurred at St. Paul, Minnesota, whither he had gone for the benefit of his health. He was a young man of fine promise, and it is needless to say that his death occasioned wide-spread grief.

28 October 1869, Vol. I, No. 36

Married at the Presbyterian Church, in Florence, on the afternoon of Tuesday the 19th, by the father of the bride, the Rev. Wm. H. Mitchell, D.D., R. D. Martin, Esq., of the firm of Martin's Sons, Cyress Mills, to Miss Mary Mitchell.

Died, Oct. 19th, 1869, in the city of New Orleans, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Fannie Perkins Smith, wife of the Hon. A. B. Levisse, of Shreveport, La. She was born in Jefferson Co., Miss., thirtieth of June 1835; and was left at the age of five years in the care of a widowed mother. The fruit of her christian training was matured in her connexion with the visible Church, at the early age of twelve years. In 1863 she was married to Hon. A. B. Levisse, a resident of Shreveport, who survives, with an infant of only six months. Besides these, of her immediate kindred there gathered beside her tomb only a brother, who has himself but just drank the cup of widowed bereavement, and the venerable mother whom the last few years have rudely stripped nearly all the ties which bound her to life. Since the above was written, her little babe has passed away from earth.

Sallie Edith, daughter of Lewis C., and Sarah H. Norvell, died at Pass Christian, Miss., on the 23d Oct., aged 7 years, 4 months and 16 days.

The Rev. Franklin Ford, died suddenly in Shreveport, La., about 10 o'clock on morning of the 24th of Sept. 1869, in the sixty-first year of his age. He was born in Kentucky, in 1809. When only three or four years of age his parents moved to Rapides Parish, La. While in College he made a profession of faith. To qualify himself for his high and holy calling, he went to Princeton Seminary, and attended a course of Theological Lectures, in that school of the Prophets. The whole of his ministerial life was spent within what is now the bounds of Red River Presbytery. Here he lived, labored, died and was buried in his field of success. He, S. P. Helm and J. E. Davidson sent a petition to the Synod of Mississippi, to organize them into a Presbytery, which petition was granted. According to the resolution of the Synod of Miss., the above named ministers met in Minden on the 10th of Sept. 1854. Rev. Ford was elected Moderator and during the Sessions of Presbytery he was elected State Clerk, which office he filled until his death. For a number of years, he labored in Rapides Parish. Frequently Sexton, Choister, and Preacher. Thus he labored and toiled on, and organized a few public churches, until the Providences of God directed him to Shreveport. In Shreveport and Minden, he labored for eighteen years. At the time of his death, he was Principal of the Shreveport Institute. W. C. D., Shreveport, La., Oct. 22, 1869. Christian Observer and Commonwealth please copy.

11 November 1869, Vol. I, No. 38

25 November 1869, Vol. 1, No. 40

Married Thursday, Nov. 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. Thos. R. Markham, Mr. Henry A. Farrell to Mathilda Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. Lynd. All of New Orleans.

Died Oct. 17, 1859, on the steamer Salada, above Memphis, Tenn., Rev. Nelson P. Chamberlin, of Thibodaux, La., aged fifty-one years. A paper sent from Wheeling, Va., the home of his daughter, gave to the friends of the excellent and esteemed Brother, in this brief notice, the first intelligence of his entrance into that blessed rest which remaineth for the people of God rest of, exceeding sweetness to his enfeebled frame and weary years since, paralysis, began its stealthy, ereeping work, its slow and sure approaches so subduing the strong man that, in two years, he lay bound hand and foot, more helpless than a new born babe. His life and labors were mainly passed within the bounds of the Synod of Mississippi. Born in New York, in 1818, he came in early life to the Southwest and, in 1842, graduated at Oakland College, near Rodney, Miss., beginning, in the town of Grand Gulf, in that State a three years theological course, at Princeton, N.J., his ministerial career. After a few years of labor, among masters and servants in the pleasant and refined communities bordering the Mississippi River, in Claiborne Co., Miss., and in Tensas Parish, La., above the opposite Grand Gulf, he was called to Thibodaux, in the Parish of LaFourche, and thence, a few years later to the town of Carrollton, on the Mississippi River, above New Orleans. Three of four years of affectionate call, to his former charge, at Thibodaux. Leaving New Orleans, last April for Wheeling, to be under the care of his only child, a daughter, whose opening womanhood had been to him an offering of filial devotion, the chill of October air of Western Va., sent him southward, seeking the soothing influence of a more genial climate. His body rests in the Pine Ridge Church yard, near Natchez, Miss., beside his wife and boy. M., New Orleans, Nov. 15, 1869. [NOTE by abstractor: Above underscored year as published, likely intended for 1869.]

Rev. Zebulon Butler, D.D. It is largely more through his influence than that of any other single individual that Port Gibson became as distinguished for its public and private morality, its churches, and its schools, as it has previously been for the absence of all these. He enter upon his labors here as minister of the Gospel in the year, 1827. There were at that time only two members of the church which he represented living in the town. Both of these are still alive. No special monument has ever been erected to his memory by this people is owing to the disasters and poverty of the past ten years. On last Sabbath morning the congregation assembled at the Presbyterian Church were delighted to find a handsome tablet inserted in the wall of the Church near the pulpit, with an inscription to his memory. This memorial, consisted of a white marble slab in a frame of polished black marble, was prepared at the Lewis Marble Works, Port Gibson, Miss. The funds necessary for its erection were contributed by the friends of the late Dr. Butler without regard to denominational connection. The inscription is as follows: Sacred to the Memory of Zebulon Butler, D.D., The founder and for 33 years the pastor of this Church. A devout and exemplary Christian, An Evangelical Divine, A Scriptural and Eloquent Preacher, A faithful Pastor. Born Sept. 27, 1803, Died Dec. 23, 1860.

Married on the evening of Jan. 5, 1870, at the residence of the bride's father, in the town of Houston, Miss., by Rev. J. N. Carothers, Mr. J. M. Woodall to Miss Mary Belle Carothers, daughter of the officiating minister.

Died at her residence in Yazoo Co., Miss., on the 12th of Jan., Mrs. Rachel Norris McCann, aged 71 years. For fifty years she had been identified with the people of God. She was born in S.C., of that brave stout-hearted revolutionary stock. She emigrated with her husband to Greensboro, Ala., in 1823, and in 1843, to Miss., where her surroundings were not conducive to piety, or even morality. Purely feminine in her affectionateness and tenderness; she had also a masculine strength of purpose and energy, which was the result of her natural qualities, strengthened by her long widowhood of thirty years, and the cares of a large family, most of whom are member of the church she loved.

BOOK REVIEWS

by J. Bruce Moseley

Any Book donated to the Dallas Genealogical Society relating to family history or genealogy which is currently in print and available for sale will be reviewed in THE DALLAS QUARTERLY. The book will be placed in the Genealogy Section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library of the Dallas Public Library System. All publications to be reviewed should be sent to the Dallas Genealogical Society together with price and complete ordering information.

The following three books are by Paul and Alba Smith, 2420 Gantt Road, Alpharetta, GA 30201. Each is hardbound, 8 1/2" x 11", and has a full-name index. The books were printed from typed copy on glossy paper, and are extensively illustrated with good quality family pictures. The SMITH and KELLEY volumes use a simple but effective numbering system that assigns a birth order number to each person in each generation, with a decimal separating the numbers for each generation. (E.g., 11.2.4.2 is Paul Smith's number in the KELLEY book; he is the second child of the fourth child of the second child of the eleventh child of the progenitors, Joel and Letta Kelley.) All three books limit themselves to the descendants of a single couple. Primarily, the writing consists of brief, factual biographical paragraphs, but enough narrative of early family history and choice anecdotes are included to give these books a warm, personal flavor. Documentation references, usually to a contributing relative, are listed after each entry.

JOEL KELLEY. 1984. 297 pages. $25.00, postpaid. Order from the authors.

Joel and Letta Kelley were born about 1780 in South Carolina. They moved to McMinn County, Tennessee just after 1800, and had twelve children. The index of this book lists over 3500 people, with the most frequent non-Kelley surname references to Brown, Burnette, Burns, Coker, Fitzgerald, Johnson, Jones, McAlister, Miller, Smith, Williams, and Wilson.

FOLLETT. 1986. 115 pages. $15.00, postpaid. Order from the authors.

Although this book is principally about the descendants of Alba Smith's grandfather, William Herbert Follett, 1849-1908, it does go back to his fifth great grandfather, Robert Follett, who lived in Massachusetts in the late 1600's. William Herbert was born in Saugus, Mass., but after a colorful career with the Seventh Cavalry in Dakota Territory and ten years of ranch work, he settled in Pike County, Georgia. There he married Ella Frances Walker, with whom he had five daughters. Over 1500 individual names appear in the index of the book, with major surname listings beside Follett being Hilderbrand, Howard, Jones, Walker, and Webb.

WM. B. SMITH DESCENDANTS. 1987. 118 pages. $15.00, postpaid. Order from the authors.

William B. Smith, 1823-1899, married Frances Elizabeth Bell, 1832-1895. They moved from North Carolina to Georgia and South Carolina before finally settling around 1860 in what is now Hamilton Co., TN. Eight children were born to the marriage. This book covers over 1600 of their descendants. The most frequently mentioned surnames in addition to Smith are Cooley, Davis, Ellis, Kenner, and Ward.

ALIVE AND GOOD TO KNOW. Gerald Virtrue Post. 1988. Hardbound, 9" x 12", 386 pages. Indexed. $58.00, postpaid. Order from APSWIN, Inc., 14418 Hague, Dallas, TX 75234.

Here is a book about people in the rural northeast Texas town of Pine Forest. It spans 140 years of history and genealogy for this Hopkins County Community. It tells how Pine Forest began and how it continued through pioneer days, the Civil War, the turn of the century, and on through the 1950's. Records included are deed, marriage, mark and brand, probate and inventory. In the genealogy section are short histories of 352 family heads, 96 pages of facts about individuals, and 493 three-generation family charts. Over 1700 family names and 9500 individuals are listed in the index. Surnames with more than 50 members listed are: Anglin, Bennett, Brumley, Bryant, Byrd, Crane, Culpepper, Day, Henley, Johnson, Jones, Long, McClure, McGill, McKinney, Minter, Parnell, Penn, Post, Ramey, Smith, Stephens, Stout, Truitt, Turner, Watkins, White and Williams.

There is a tremendous amount of information in this book. The printing, which is of excellent quality, is quite small (18 cpi). In a 9" x 12" volume, this means the typical page of text has 1500 words on it. The sheer volume of information turns out to be a problem. So much is there that the organization of the book is complex and cumbersome. I had a very difficult time making sense out of the three-generation charts as well as the numbered, alphabetized, and cross-referenced list of over 6000 individuals. For the determined, persistent researcher with an interest in Hopkins County, Texas, however, this could be a gold mine.

The following five books are hardbound, 5½" x 8½", of excellent quality materials and printing. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 North Calvert Street, Baltimore, MD 21202. P & H is $2.50 for the first book; $1.00 for each additional book.

A LIST OF EMIGRANTS FROM ENGLAND TO AMERICA 1682-1692. Michael Ghirelli. 1968, reprinted 1989. xiv + 106 pages. The list is alphabetized, and indexed for places and agents. $ 15.00.

The parentage, place of origin and age of each emigrant, person to whom bound or apprenticed, and destination are given if they are entered in the originals. About 1000 emigrants are listed.

A LIST OF EMIGRANTS FROM ENGLAND TO AMERICA 1718-1759. Jack and Marion Kaminkow. 1989. xxviii + 292 pages. The list is alphabetized, sequentially numbered, and indexed for places. $20.00

Origin, occupation, agent, years of service, destination, and age are given (but not parentage!). Over 3000 emigrants are listed.

THE WINTHROP FLEET OF 1630. Charles Edward Banks. 1930, reprinted 1989. xi + 119 pages. Subtitled "An Account of the Vessels, the Voyage, the Passengers and their English Homes from Original Authorities". Name, place and subject indexed. $ 13.50.

The Winthrop fleet consisted of eleven ships which brought seven hundred Britons to New England in 1630. Six chapters and fifty four pages of this book are devoted to a detailed story of the voyage. Appendix A, the bulk of this work, is an alphabetical list of the passengers. A brief biographical sketch is included for almost every one of them. Appendix B is a list of forty passengers who came at the same time to the same place in the "Mary and John", but who were not part of the Winthrop fleet.

FOUNDERS AND PATRIOTS OF AMERICA INDEX. National Society of Daughters and Patriots of America. 1975, reprinted 1989. 255 pages. $22.50.

This is an alphabetized listing of the Founders and Patriots who initiate each lineage which has been accepted by the Daughters of the Founders and Patriots of America. The INDEX gives the date of birth and death, date of marriage and name of wife, and name of state where Founder settled. Over 9000 names are listed.

THE ENGLISH ANCESTRY AND HOMES OF THE PILGRIM FATHERS. Charles Edward Banks. 1929, reprinted 1989. ix + 187 pages. Name and place indexed. $15.00.

After 25 pages devoted to the background of the people we know as the Pilgrims, and the story of the "Mayflower", the remainder of the book is devoted to whatever biographical information is available for each of 110 passengers of the "Mayflower", "Fortune", "Anne", and "Little James". John Alden, William Bradford, William Brewster, William Mullins and Myles Standish rate two or more pages, with the accounts ranging down to only a short paragraph for some of the lesser known members of the company. If you think you have an ancestor who came on the "Mayflower", here is your chance to check it out, and perhaps learn where they came from and who their parents were.
