SOUTH-WESTERN PRESBYTERIAN NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS

Abstracted by Helen M. Lu

NOTE: Volume I of these abstracts was published in The Dallas Quarterly, September 1989; Volume II was published in The Dallas Quarterly, December 1989. The first half of Volume III was published in The Dallas Quarterly, March 1990.

INTRODUCTION

These abstracts are from obituaries, death notices, marriages and biographical sketches published in the Southwestern Presbyterian, New Orleans, Louisiana, for the dates given herein.

The Southwestern Presbyterian began publication February 25, 1869 and continued through December 30, 1908, after which time it merged with The Central Presbyterian and The Southern Presbyterian to form The Presbyterian of the South.

Published weekly, these papers were four pages each. The marriages and obituaries were usually on page three, but not always. Biographical sketches, memorials and tributes were likely to be found on almost any page.

Although only a few, if any, obituaries and marriages were published in each issue, they were from a large area. Most were from Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Arkansas and Texas, with a few from Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, South Carolina and elsewhere. While the majority of individuals, in the abstracts, were Presbyterian, some were of other denominations.

The microfilm used for these abstracts was filmed for the American Theological Library Association, Board of Microtex Project, 1971. Microfilm copies were obtained through the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, Montreal, North Carolina. Microfilm used for these abstracts have been donated to the Genealogy Section, J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, Dallas.

IN MEMORIAM. Milledgeville now in the third quarter of the first century of its existence, has already a long list of sons and daughters whose childhood and youth were spent within her borders, and who, their pilgrimage being ended, now sleep in her beautiful cemetery, or rest beneath the quiet shade of other burial places. At the Sweet Chalybeate Springs, Virginia, whither she had gone in hope of recovery, on the 8th inst., Mrs. Mary Flinn passed through the pearly gates, and entered upon the rest that remaineth. She was the daughter of R. M. Orme, Esq., so

DEATH OF DR. LELAND. From a private letter just received, we learn that Rev. A. W. Leland, D.D., the venerable Professor Emeritus of Pastoral Theology in Columbia Seminary, has just passed away. On last Thursday, he quietly and peacefully fell asleep. The writer says: "with his splendid white beard, the large manly form, I never saw him looking so magnificent in life as he did in death." As is well known to the Church, Dr. Leland has long been laid aside from active service. His former chair is filled by Rev. J. R. Wilson, D.D.

DEATH OF REV. A. R. GRAVES. Letter from Bro. Bartlett, conveys the intelligence of the unexpected and sudden demise of one who has for many years identified with the Synod of Miss., as one of the most active and conscientious members. Oakland College, November 11th, 1871. My Dear Dr.: Rev. Mr. Graves, died last Monday morning (5th) of Yellow Fever. On Tuesday, of the preceeding week, (Oct. 31) he buried his youngest son, Scott, who died of the same disease. Every member of his family here have been sickened, but recovered excepting himself and his son. Yellow Fever has been raging in the College grounds in a very violent form, for a month, my two children have had it lightly. It has appeared in a mild form in Prof. Adam's family but in Mr. Shaffer's family (who occupy the Common's house) and Mr. Graves family (who are in the President's house,) it has assumed a very malignant type. Each of the families lost two members, (a son and daughter out of Mr. Shaffer's) The sickness has been wholly confined to the grounds, it being singularly healthy in Rodney. Your friend and ob't serv't, W. F. V. Bartlett.

REV. Z. BUTLER'S CALL TO THE MINISTRY. [Abstract only of this long biographical sketch.] Rev. Zebulon Butler, D. D., was born in Wilksbarre in Wyoming Valley, Penn., Sept. 27, 1803. His father was an officer in the Revolutionary army under Washington. The name of his mother's family was Lord. He was educated in the College of New Jersey and graduated in 1822. He abandoned the study of medicine in the Fall of 1823, entered the Theological Seminary at Princeton, N. J. Dr. Alexander one day placed a letter in his hands. It was written to Dr. Alexander by some citizen of Vicksburg, Mississippi. The letter requested that some young man from the seminary be sent there to preach the gospel. Rev. Butler agreed to go. He reached that place in the Fall of 1826, being twenty three years of age. There wasn't a house of worship of any description in the place, not any Presbyterian church organization and only a few individuals who had any interest in religion. A feeble band had recently been organized into a Methodist church, who were supplied by Rev. John Lame, a devoted Methodist Minister.

Died at his residence in Union Co., Ark., on Oct. 31st, 1871, Alexander McKinnon. He was born in 1806 in Cumberland Co., N. C. He was one of the original Ruling Elders of the Mt. Pisgah Church, Tallapoosa Co., Ala., having been there ordained about the year 1840 by the Rev. Robert McAlpine. In 1857 he moved to Oakland, and at the organization of Three Creeks Church he was elected again to the office of Ruling Elder.

Robert J. Breckinridge was born at Cabell's Dale, Kentucky, on the 8th of March, 1800. He studied successively in Princeton, Yale and Union colleges, graduating at the latter in 1819. widow," there is much to be lamented in this untimely departure but we sorrow not even as others which have no hope.

Margaret Mercer McNair. A solemn and impressive scene was witnessed at eventide on Tuesday last. It was the funeral of one who had reached the advanced age of seventy four years. Her children, grand children and great grand children were there. She was a native of Pennsylvania, born at Pittsburg, May 27th, 1797. In early youth she came to New Orleans as a guest of her aunt, the late Mrs. Wm. Brand. Her social relations were with the ancient families of the city. In 1817 she married the late Robert H. McNair long a prominent elder in the Presbyterian church. Her eldest son Robert H., Jr., long superintendent of the public schools fell at the battle of Shiloh. Her other son Henry after arduous service during the war survived but a few months the return of peace. Two daughters after marriage, died leaving several children. These daughters and numerous grand children and great grand children survive. Mrs. McNair attended the first Protestant service held in this city, at the State House, conducted by a Methodist clergyman whose name is not recalled. She encouraged all later efforts joining heartily in the services of the denominations, Methodist Episcopal as well as her own. She aided the first Episcopal efforts of the Rev. Mr. Hull, the founder of Episcopacy in the city. To Rev. Dr. Cornelius she rendered the aid and sympathy which his earnest zeal inspired, and which led to the brief but brilliant career of Sylvester Larned. Her home as long as it existed was the scene of Christian hospitality. All the ministers from abroad who visited the city participated therein making her home their own. Many happy hours has the writer passed there in the society of such men as the Breckinridges, (all of them), Chase and Chamberlain. She was one of the 24 founders of the First Presbyterian Church of which Mr. Larned was Pastor. She left New Orleans with the refugees of May 1863 and remained at the residence of her son-in-law, Chas. McGehee, Esq., near Woodville, Miss., until a few weeks ago.

Married at the residence of the bride's mother, New Orleans, Jan. 18th, 1872, by Rev William Flinn, Joseph J. Cannon and Miss Cora Bella Jay. All of New Orleans.

Married at the residence of the bride, Jan. 22nd, 1872, by Rev. Wm. Flinn, James Simpson and Mrs. Elizabeth Drummond. All of New Orleans.

1 February 1872, Vol. III, No. 50

Married Jan. 26th, 1872, by Rev. Wm. Flinn, Mr. Peter F. Wiese of New York to Miss Mary Carmichael of New Orleans.

Died in Columbia Co., Ark., on the 13th of Jan., Mrs. C. A. Foster, a native of Anson Co., N.C., aged forty six years. She lived a few years, in Barbour Co., Ala., where she made a public profession of religion, and connected herself with the Presbyterian Church at Pea River. From thence, she removed with her father, Mr. Christopher McRae, in 1844, and settled in Union Co., Ark.; and was united in marriage with Dr. Wm. B. Foster, in the year 1850. Mrs. Foster was one of the little band of believers, who constituted the Church at Mount Holly, at its organization, from which she was dismissed to unite with others in the organization of the church at Honduras, in the year 1869. Husband and children mentioned. M. A. P. The Southern Presbyterian and the Christian Observer and Commonwealth, (at Louisville) will please copy.

8 February 1872, Vol. III, No. 51

Died Feb. 1st, 1872, in this city at the residence of her son-in-law, H. T. Bartlett, Mrs. Ann McComb, in the 76th year of her age. She was for many years a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was one of the original number at the organization of Thalia Church.

CAUSES OF DEATH

While most of the diseases and causes of death given in the mortality schedules are easily identified, there are some that seem strange or quaint to us. "King's evil" is another name for "Scrofula", a tuberculosis of the lymphatic glands, a disease of children and young adults. The name originated in the time of Edward the Confessor, with the belief that it could be cured by the touch of the king of England.

"Quinsy" is an acute inflammation of the tonsils. "Hives" is an allergic reaction characterized by raised wheals on the skin. In itself it wouldn't be fatal, apparently children who were said to have died from hives actually died from croup.

"Consumption" is a wasting away of the body, formerly applied to pulmonary tuberculosis, now known to be an infectious disease. "Dropsy" is a shortened form of hydropsy meaning the presence of abnormal amounts of fluid in the body, it is really a symptom rather than actual cause of death.

These definitions came from an article, "Diseases and Death in the Nineteenth Century: A Genealogical Perspective" by James Byars Carter, which appeared in the NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY QUARTERLY, Volume 76, Number 4, pages 289 through 301. This article has a glossary of nineteenth century medical terms which is very helpful in deciphering the listed cause of death on mortality schedules or other extant death records.

EXCERPTS FROM THE LEDGER OF JAMES FRANKLIN HEAD

by Jan McFarland

INTRODUCTION

James Franklin Head was a Baptist minister who served many churches in southern Illinois and northern Texas. He kept a ledger, starting in 1872, in which he listed the marriages, baptisms and funerals that he performed; churches and protracted meetings that he organized or served; ministers and deacons that he helped ordain. In this same ledger, he also kept a personal journal from January 27, 1878 to November 1900, which deals with day to day life in north Texas. Finally, in the same volume he has set down his family record (starting with his grandfather) giving dates and places and further information on many family members.

Jan McFarland, who serves on the Board of the Dallas Genealogical Society as Publications Director is a second great granddaughter of James Franklin Head. Jan owns the original ledger and plans to publish the ledger in its entirety; in THE DALLAS QUARTERLY, we will publish the lists of marriages, baptisms, and funerals plus some excerpts from other parts of the journal. In the last issue of THE DALLAS QUARTERLY, volume XXXVI, number 1, the lists from southern Illinois were published and in this issue are the lists from north Texas.

In the previous issue, excerpts were edited for spelling and form but the passages given below are transcribed as written in order to give the reader the true feel of the ledger.

Any Book donated to the Dallas Genealogical Society relating to family history or genealogy which is currently in print and available for sale will be reviewed in THE DALLAS QUARTERLY. The book will be placed in the Genealogy Section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library of the Dallas Public Library System. All publications to be reviewed should be sent to the Dallas Genealogical Society together with price and complete ordering information.

A GLIMPSE OF THE PAST - THE HARNESS FAMILY HISTORY. Harold Duncan Harness. 1983. Hardback, 6" x 9", iv plus 209 pages. Name indexed. $27.50 postpaid. Order from the author, 1607 Dogwood Lane, Bel Air, MD 21014.

Mr. Harness has written a chapter on each of the immediately preceding five generations of his paternal ancestry. He begins with his third great grandfather, Michael Harness, who lived in what is now the eastern panhandle of West Virginia during the middle 1700's, and follows subsequent westward migration of the succeeding generations to Illinois and Missouri. Then come five chapters which are his autobiography. The last chapter provides vital information on 540 descendants of Michael Harness, with references noted to over two hundred source documents. The numbering system for these descendants is easy to follow and all names are indexed.

My initial reaction to A GLIMPSE OF THE PAST was one of reservation when I saw that five of the eleven chapters were about the author himself. However, those five chapters provide a marvelous opportunity to get to know and like Harold Harness. Here is a military and civil serviceman who has turned out what many of us are trying to produce--a family history which our family and descendants will take pride in and enjoy. His writing is entertaining and the material well organized. The printing and pictures are of medium quality, but the binding is attractive and first rate. If I were a descendant of Michael Harness, I'd definitely want a copy of this book for my own.

RED RIVER COUNTY, TEXAS DEED ABSTRACTS (VOLUME 20) 1846 - 1855. Joyce Martin Murray. 1990. Hardback, 6" x 9", 192 pages. Name, place and slave indexes. $30.00 plus $2.50 P&H. Texas residents add 8% Sales Tax. Order from the author, 2921 Daniel, Dallas, TX 75205.

This is the second volume of abstracts of Red River County deed books which Mrs. Murray has done. It begins with instruments recorded immediately after Texas became part of the United States and includes all those filed through the year 1855. During the Republic, Red River County had covered most of northeast Texas so Volume 2 contains material from Cass, Delta, Grayson, Hopkins, Lamar, Morris and Titus counties prior to their creation. In addition to deeds, there are records of powers of attorney, wills, deeds of gift, bonds, mortgages, and bills of sale. All these documents are made up of names, dates and places of genealogical interest. Beside the full name index and place index, there is an index of slave names which may or may not be of much help; it contains only the person's given name. Reference must be made to the abstract if connection with the owner's surname is desired.

Again we are indebted to Mrs. Murray for providing ready access to a wealth of material heretofore buried deep within the dusty vaults of a remote county seat. Her abstracts are thorough and easy to understand, and this is a handsome little volume. Today Red River County is so small and out of the way that I was amazed to find it encompassed such an important portion of Texas during the period covered by Volume 2, reaching very near the Dallas Area. This could be a beneficial resource for those with early northeast Texas ancestors.

Genealogical Publishing Co. has once more provided us with a generous sampling of their latest offerings. The following four books are of excellent quality and can be ordered from the company, 1001 North Calvert Street, Baltimore, MD 21202. P&H is $2.50 for the first book ordered and $1.00 for each additional book.

INTERNATIONAL VITAL RECORDS HANDBOOK. Thomas Jay Kemp. 1990. Softback, 8½" x 11", 355 pages. $24.95.

Contains application forms and ordering information for birth, marriage and death certificates from all fifty states and sixty seven countries and territories. Availability of vital records, their location and cost are listed for each of these political divisions. You are encouraged to photocopy the form you need, follow the instructions and send the fee and completed form to the appropriate record office. Do you need a birth, marriage or death certificate? If so, Kemp's HANDBOOK can be a big help.

GERMAN-AMERICAN NAMES. George F. Jones. 1990. Hardback, 6" x 9", 268 pages. $25.00.

According to George Schweitzer, half of all Americans have some amount of German ancestry. If true, then every second person in the U.S. can use this book to find the meaning of an antecedent's name. Over 12,700 names, giving spelling variants and meanings, appear in an A - Z dictionary. A lengthy Introduction discusses the origin and significance of both given names and surnames, name sources, variations, and some of the special characteristics of German-American names. Each dictionary entry is referenced to a numbered paragraph in the Introduction. I wonder if Dr. Schweitzer knows his name means his ancestors actually came from Switzerland?

PASSPORTS OF SOUTHEASTERN PIONEERS 1770 - 1823. Dorothy Williams Potter. 1982, reprinted 1990. Hardback, 6" x 9", xi plus 449 pages. Indexed. $32.50.

It's hard for us to think of needing a passport to travel within a portion of the United States, but that was once the case. Most of the passports which appear here authorized passage from Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, Georgia, North and South Carolina through Indian or foreign held territory east of the Mississippi in the period 1770 - 1823. Dorothy Potter has researched state libraries and archives to provide us with this compact listing of an unusual genealogical source record. One can quickly check the index to see if any ancestors appear; if yes, the when and where, and perhaps even the why of their travel is revealed.

THE RESEARCHER'S GUIDE TO AMERICAN GENEALOGY (2ND EDITION). Val D. Greenwood. 1990. Hardback, 6" x 9", xiv plus 623 pages. Indexed. $24.95.

Now you can find everything you ever wanted to know about genealogy but didn't know where to look. A brief sampling of topics covered would include: how to do research, evaluating evidence, using libraries and reference materials, organizing finding, and conducting successful correspondence. Some of the sources discussed are newspapers, vital records, census returns, and wills, plus land, court, church, military and cemetery records. One chapter deals with using computers in genealogy. There is a liberal assortment of helpful charts and illustrations. For me the best endorsement for THE RESEARCHER'S GUIDE is that it is used by the National Genealogical Society as the basic text for their home study course. I'm a little intimidated by this book, however; it most surely will show up all the things I have been doing wrong!
