THE SOCIETY PAGE

The Dallas Genealogical Society was founded in 1955 with the following objectives:

- TO CREATE, FOSTER AND MAINTAIN INTEREST IN GENEALOGY AND FAMILY HISTORY.
- TO RAISE STANDARDS OF GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH THROUGH EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS, WORKSHOPS AND THE PUBLICATION OF DATA.
- TO PROMOTE THE COLLECTION AND PRESERVATION OF MATERIAL RELATING TO THE EARLY HISTORY OF DALLAS COUNTY AND THOSE PIONEERS WHO SETTLED THE AREA.
- TO COPY, INDEX AND PUBLISH RECORDS, DOCUMENTS, INSCRIPTIONS AND OTHER GENEALOGICAL SOURCE MATERIALS.
- TO SUPPORT THE GENEALOGY SECTION OF THE DALLAS PUBLIC LIBRARY.
- TO STIMULATE THE EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION BETWEEN SOCIETY MEMBERS AND GENEALOGICAL RESEARCHERS ACROSS THE NATION.

MEMBERSHIP: The Dallas Genealogical Society is a non-profit, federally tax-exempt organization. Individuals, libraries or societies may apply for membership. Annual dues are $12.00 for the calendar year if paid by January 31, after January 31 they are $14.00. All current members receive the quarterly journal and the newsletter.

QUARTERLY: The Dallas Quarterly publishes source material and articles of general interest concerning Dallas County and Texas. Manuscripts together with a cover letter giving the Society permission to publish the material should be submitted to the Editor at the DGS mailing address. While our intention is to present original authoritative articles, the Dallas Genealogical Society and the editor of The Dallas Quarterly cannot be responsible for the accuracy or publishing rights of the material furnished by others.

QUERIES: Queries are printed in the DGS NEWSLETTER. They do not require a Texas connection and are free to members of the Dallas Genealogical Society. Non-members should include $3.00 with each query submitted. To eliminate correspondence and delay we reserve the right to abbreviate or condense. Queries should be addressed to the Query Editor at the DGS mailing address.

BOOK REVIEWS: Any book donated to the Dallas Genealogical Society relating to genealogy or family history which is currently in print and available for sale will be reviewed in The Dallas Quarterly. The book will be placed in the Genealogy section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library (1515 Young St.) of the Dallas Public Library System. All publications to be reviewed should be sent to the Dallas Genealogical Society together with price and complete ordering information.

ACT CONCERNING WILLS.

Heretofore no person in Texas was permitted, by Act of January 28, 1840, to dispose of more than one-fourth of his property by will, to the prejudice of his children; but the following Act of the last adjourned Session, gives every one the same right to dispose of his or her entire property by will, that all persons enjoy during their lifetime:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, That all persons are hereby authorized and permitted to dispose of their own estate, real or personal, by will or otherwise, and that the thirteenth and fifteenth sections of the act of January 28th, 1840, entitled "An Act concerning Wills." and the provisions of all other acts, so far conflict with this, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. That this act take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Passed July 24, 1856.

BOOK REVIEWS

by J. Bruce Moseley

Any book donated to the Dallas Genealogical Society relating to family history or genealogy which is currently in print and available for sale will be reviewed in The Dallas Quarterly. The book will be placed in the Genealogy Section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library of the Dallas Public Library System. All publications to be review should be sent to the Dallas Genealogical Society together with price and complete ordering information.

ANCESTOR LINEAGES OF MEMBERS TEXAS SOCIETY/NATIONAL SOCIETY COLONIAL DAMES SEVENTEENTH CENTURY. Compiled by Jeanne Mitchell Jordan Tabb. 1991. Hardback, 6" x 9", 291 pages. Name indexed. $40.00 plus $2.50 P&H. Order from Clearfield Company, Inc., 200 E. Eager St., Baltimore, MD 21202.

Jeanne Tabb has abstracted the application papers of Texas Society members, National Society Colonial Dames Seventeenth Century. In alphabetical order she lists the names of original ancestors upon which membership is based, and includes their colonial service, spouse(s), children and their spouses. Dates and places are entered where available. The member's name and national number follow each of the more than 1700 entries. Over 7000 names from these abstracts appear in the index.

What an interesting book! I spent an entire evening browsing, and was rewarded by finding two of my own ancestors. It's very easy to check the presence of a particular name. If it's listed, there will be some great little nuggets of information available. The volume itself is well organized, nicely printed and handsomely bound. Mrs. Tabb has my utmost admiration for processing so much detailed information in such a meticulous and thorough fashion. If you're looking for a quick reference on "Who's Who" in early America, and I do mean early (pre-1701), this is for you.

PIONEER FAMILIES OF MICHIGAN—BOVEE, DELINE, MIKESSELL, ARGERSINGER, WILLETT, BURT. Five volumes. Carol Jean Mikesell Frey. All volumes are softback, 8.5" x 11". Complete set of five volumes is $71.50 plus $5.00 P&H. See below for individual volume price. Order from the author, 4921

Volume I: Migration of MEYSSEL/MEIXELL/MEICKSELL families from Baden, Germany to Pennsylvania in early 1700's; MICKSELL/MIKESSELL families in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Michigan, 1700 to present. 147 pages. Name indexed. $20.00 plus $3.00 P&H.

Volume II: ARGERSINGERS in New York and Michigan, 1800 to present. 63 pages. Name indexed. $10.00 plus $3.00 P&H.

Volume III: Descendants of John DEVINE (1777-1843) who lived in New York and fathered eleven children in two marriages between 1804 and 1827. Five of these children moved to Michigan. 194 pages. Name indexed. $20.00 plus $3.00 P&H.

Volume IV: Covers the POOL, PROUTY, BURT and WILLITT/WILLETT families from the early 1800's in the mid-Atlantic states to Michigan and elsewhere up to the present. 168 pages. Name indexed. $20.00 plus $3.00 P&H.

Volume V: The ancestors and descendants of Hendrick BOVEE, born 1781 in New York, died 1846 in Michigan. 176 pages. Name indexed. $20.00 plus $3.00 P&H.

These five volumes cover the author's antecedents. Each book begins with her pedigree chart, which goes back as much as twelve generations on some lines. The rest is principally family group sheets, with a hodgepodge of records, documents, maps, pictures, newspaper clippings, and interesting historical narrative thrown in for good measure. The family group sheets start with an early ancestor and appear in descending order along the lines of the pedigree chart to the present. Extensive documentation is shown on each group sheet. The index in each volume pertains to that volume only.

A tremendous amount of work has undoubtedly gone into gathering, recording, and presenting all the records in this family history. The books contain a huge amount of information. However, it is such a monumental job that I found it cumbersome and difficult to use. Also, the printing quality does not do justice to a number of the pictures and many of the documents and records are illegible. Still, wading in could be worthwhile for early Michigan researchers.

TEXAS SCHOLASTICS, 1854-1855, A STATE CENSUS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN. Gifford White. 1991. Softback, 5" x 8", 494 pages. Family name indexed. $30.00 plus $3.00 P&H. Order from Heritage Books, Inc. 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Suite 300, Bowie, Md. 20716.

In order to establish an equitable distribution of public funds, Texas conducted a census of school children in 1854-55. In most counties the census takers reported the names of parents and children, along with statistical data. These lists have been copied and recorded in TEXAS SCHOLASTICS. Missing are the data for those counties for which only statistical summaries were made, and all the counties whose names begin with A-D for which the records have been totally lost (alas, there went Dallas!).

What we have here is a list, by school districts within counties, of names of 1854-55 Texas residents who had school age children, and in many cases, the names of those children. Over 5000 family names appear in the index, with many of those names referenced to multiple pages. This is an important supplement to the 1850 federal census of Texas, which was not totally complete. It can also help identify families who arrived in the period 1850-55.

TEXAS TELEPHONE SYSTEM

Reprinted from the Texas Almanac and State Industrial Guide, The Encyclopedia of Texas - 1945-46. Published by A. H. Belo Corporation.

Page 272

The first telephone line in Texas extended from the editorial rooms of the Galveston News to the home of Col. A. H. Belo, publisher of the Dallas News. Colonel Belo had attended the Centennial celebration in Philadelphia in 1876 and had seen the fascinating exhibit of Alexander Graham Bell's telephone. He returned to Galveston determined to install a telephone at the earliest moment possible. The first exchange was opened in Galveston, Aug. 21, 1879, and the first long-distance line was between Galveston and Houston in 1883.

EAST DALLAS RESEMBLED A SMALL TOWN IN WORLD WAR II ¹

by June Rayfield Welch

June Welch has taught history at the University of Dallas the past 24 years. His recently-published book, his 17th is Tell Me A Texas Story.

To anyone growing up in Gainesville during the Depression, Dallas was the great city of Texas. We did not imagine that, in many ways, "Big D" – or "Big Friendly" – was then only an aggregation of communities. That fact was suggested by a taped reminiscence of Mrs. Ruth Collins², who said, "I loved East Texas when I was a girl. And I loved East Dallas."

In World War II, Dallas was – perhaps – just Gainesville and Bonham and Sherman writ large.

Life in Texas was much the same, regardless of the size of a town. The only air conditioning anywhere in Texas was owned by cafes and theaters with signs promising "20 degrees cooler" interiors. Families spent time outdoors. In the evenings, neighbors and kinfolk sat on front porches while children "played out." They chased fireflies and scuffled and got hurt and sought comfort from their mothers. The evening would conclude on a sour note, with parents calling for their children to come in – it was bedtime. Every child obeyed the unwritten and unspoken rule against responding or complying until the parent's tone was appropriately menacing.

Mrs. Collins³ claimed that East Dallas had the "top Corner drugstore of the world," where young people could sprawl on the floor, read comic books from the racks, and perhaps buy a nickel coke in the course of an afternoon.

Wondering where her son had gone after classes ended at Woodrow Wilson High, a mother could call the druggist, who would report the last sighting of the young fellow or summon him to the phone if he would leave his comic book.

Mrs. Collins said, "We wouldn't have thought about raising our children without the help of that good man."

During the war, she wrote her soldier sons every day. Should she run out of stamps, Mrs. Collins could order a roll of three centers charged to her account and delivered to her home. There was no profit in selling stamps, and the delivery and extension of credit were simply expenses the merchant incurred for his customers' convenience.

When boys the druggist had hosted entered the armed forces, their parents brought photographs in new uniforms, and the merchant displayed them in a hug frame. He never realized how much the people of East Dallas loved him, Mrs. Collins believed. And when his Navy pilot son was lost at sea, he could not have known how deeply the loss was felt by hundreds of people he had had never met.

¹. "The War" or – as Archie Bunker termed it – "WW 2, the big one."

². Her son, the late Congressman James Collins, let me hear the recording.

³. My wife, Lynda Chalk Welch, lived in Ruth Collins Hall while she attended Baylor University.

DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS, MARRIAGE BOOK "K"

These marriages were copied in the order in which they were recorded. The surname was listed first for your convenience. If two spellings of a name are given, this was due to one spelling on the license and another on the return. Continued from September 1891.
