DGS Meeting on Saturday, May 1st

DGS General Meeting on Saturday, May 1st begins at 10:30 a.m. with a social hour. The meeting itself begins at 11:00 a.m. Our featured speaker is John Sellers. His presentation is "Dusty Books and Musty Rooms" A Texas Courthouse Study- A general overview of courthouse research, etiquette, and procedures. The lecture will address all types of courthouse records and how to access them. Probate and deed records will be emphasized as well as unique Texas records and laws. The general meeting ends at 12:30 p.m.

DGS Board will meet at 1:30 p.m.

The J. Erik Jonsson Central Library is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturdays.

There will be a March for Immigration in downtown Dallas beginning at 1 p.m. at Santuario de Guadalupe on the corner of Ross and Pearl. The march will go down Pearl Street to Cesar Chavez Boulevard (formerly South Central Expressway) and then turn right on Young Street to City Hall. The turnout is not expected to be as large as the 2006 march.

It is recommended that you approach the library from the west on Wood Street in order to park in the library parking garage. When leaving the library after the meeting from the parking garage, turn right onto Wood St., then left on Ervay St and left again onto Jackson St. When you reach Griffin turn right or left to go north of Ross or south to I-30. At that point you should then be able to go back east if you need to go that direction.
