Special Interest Groups

African American SIG - The next African American SIG meeting will be held on Saturday, January 15 from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm at the Dallas Public Library. Airy Wilkins or Dr. Prince will be speaking on "Research."

Jewish Genealogy SIG - The next Jewish Genealogy SIG meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 18 from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm at the Dallas Public Library. This month the group will continue working on quick reference guides for Jewish genealogy.

DGS members look for a membership survey by e-mail in the next week.

Volunteers Critical to Success of Non-Profit Organizations

Your DGS and the Genealogy Section of DPL could not operate without the many hands of the volunteers who give of their time and talents. Let's see who some of them are and some of what they do.

Liz Thurmond - picks up the DGS U.S. Mail, sorts it, scans it and routes it to the appropriate DGS officer. She follows up on queries about mail and checks gone astray. She reviews DGS Journal articles prior to publication.

section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library in Dallas, Texas, or to its legal successor; and to collect, preserve, copy, and index information relating to Dallas County and its early history.

Susan Morris - provides reports to the library staff which tracks where patrons are from using the sign-in sheets at the DGS Volunteer Desk that many other volunteers help to insure are signed each day.

Adrienne Jamieson - processes all the Family History Library microfilm and fiche orders, a task she used to do as part of her job at the library.
