Genealogy Articles on DGS Website

Patricia Law Hatcher, CG, FASG, has written many articles and books on genealogy. Among these are 103 articles she wrote for Ancestry Daily News between 2000 and 2006. The articles deal with methodology, sources, colonial life, problem solving, and adventures encountered in research. She recently reformatted the articles into pdf versions for the DGS web site. The first articles are on the web site now.
