Annual DGS Writing Competition Is Announced

The Dallas Genealogical Society is sponsoring an Annual DGS Writing Competition for original material submitted by members and non-members, hobbyists and professionals. Entries may not have been published previously. Submissions must be sourced as outlined in Evidence Explained by Elizabeth Shown Mills.

Multiple entries per person are allowed, but only one award per person will be given.

You can find all the details on the DGS website or in the latest issue of the DGS Newsletter.

1940 U. S. Federal Census

Great news! The indexing for the 1940 census is over 79% finished. Texas is 64% finished. The western states are all done and are already searchable. Looks like the census will be completely indexed and searchable within the next few months, thanks to all the great volunteers.
