DGS Recognizes 2014 Award Recipients

Members and guests of the Dallas Genealogical Society met on Saturday, December 13, 2014, for their Annual DGS Awards Luncheon. Each year DGS recognizes individuals and organizations for their hard work and dedication to the genealogical community that contributes not only to a successful 2014 for the Society but also to the genealogy community as a whole. Award categories and 2014 recipients are:

AWARD OF MERIT – LYNELL BENNETT MOSS AND FRED MOSS

This DGS Award of merit is presented annually to a DGS member who has consistently contributed time, talent, expertise, and abilities to the Society over a period of years.

Honoree: Lynell Bennett Moss and Fred Moss have been frequent contributors to the genealogical community in a variety of ways. Lynell is the prime organizer and Director of The Great Family Search Conference that is presented free of charge annually to our local genealogical community. She is a member of the Texas State Genealogical Society and the National Genealogical Society. Lynell and Fred have made many contributions to the Dallas Genealogical Society, such as an annual presentation to a DGS General Meeting which updates members on the FamilySearch web site and search software. In addition, Lynell has extracted information from the 1890, 1900, and 1930 Dallas County Mortality Schedules for the Mortality Schedule database on the DGS web site. Fred serves as the Legal Advisor to the Federation of Genealogical Societies, an active participant on the Records Preservation and Access Committee, and an advocate of the Genealogists' Declaration of Rights.

Fred and Lynell Moss accept Award of Merit from Jean Larson, DGS Vice President.

HERITAGE PRESERVATION AWARD – DALLAS MEXICAN AMERICAN HISTORICAL LEAGUE (DMAHL)

The DGS Preservation Award recognizes an individual, group, or organization that has contributed to the collection, preservation, and conservation of varying types of genealogical and historical materials.

Honoree: The Dallas Mexican American Historical League was established in 2008. Its mission is to research, collect, document, and preserve the city's Mexican American history and to educate the public on the historical and cultural experiences and contributions of Mexican Americans in Dallas, Texas, beginning from the Justine Foster, DMAHL VP, and other league members accept award from DGS member Cheryl Freeman (back right).
