DGS 2013 Writing Contest Time to Cross the Last "t" and Dot the Last "i"

The Dallas Genealogical Society reminds all potential entrants to the 2013 Writing Contest that the deadline for submissions is Saturday, August 31.

The contest will accept original material, not previously published, from members and non-members, hobbyists and professionals.

Among the judges will be J. Mark Lowe, a professional genealogist, author and lecturer.

Submissions will be judged on accuracy, clarity, and style. Winners will be announced at the annual DGS Awards Luncheon in December 2013 (winners need not be present), and will be published in a future DGS publication.

For more information see the Contest Guidelines and the Entry Form.
