Dear Mr. Bockstruck:

We are delighted to know of your interest in becoming a member of the Order of the Crown of Charlemagne.

I enclose a work sheet and a set of instructions. Please read them carefully before you begin to fill in the work sheet, as they may answer any questions you may have.

Please ask both your endorsers to sign the work sheet; then return it to me with your proof and your check for $200 for your life membership. It is not necessary to have the work sheet notarized. These papers should be returned to me within six months, but if you should need more time you may ask for it.

We will be very pleased to have you as a member of our Order. If I can be of any help, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Lloyd,

Enclosed please find your verified Work Sheet for the Order of the Crown of Charlemagne, together with one copy of the final form. When you have typed the final application and had it notarized, please return it to me together with two Xeroxed copies and the Work Sheet for the final verification. Also, please be sure to type in the names of your sponsors on the final form. You do not need signatures.

Sorry that there are so many notations on the paper, but I like to have as many place names and dates as possible. The book by Siegfried Rosch is the best and most recent volume dealing with the descendants of Charlemagne. I have not been able to find out if Degener in Neustadt ever published a second volume of this work.

I look forward to receiving your final papers.

Sincerely,
Order of the Crown of Charlemagne

INSTRUCTIONS

The following directions must be followed closely.

1.—Every name should be given in full, with particular attention to maiden names of wives, and record of marriages. State authentic available sources by volume and page. Where reference is made to unpublished records, a photostat or certified copy should accompany this pedigree. This also includes family genealogies, pedigree charts, tombstone, cemetery and Bible records. The Title page of the Bible should accompany the record pages which should be copied or photostated in full.

2.—All Lineage Charts must be type written and submitted in duplicate. No carbon copies will be accepted.

3.—Incidents connected with the Candidate’s life and public services, his or his wife’s immigrant ancestors and family traditions, including items likely to prove of interest to the Order’s historian or to the Candidate’s posterity may be added on a separate page. Do not type these data on the lineage papers.

INSTRUCTIONS

The following directions must be followed closely.

1. Every name should be given in full, with particular attention to maiden names of wives, and record of marriages. State authentic available sources by volume and page. Where reference is made to unpublished records, a photostat or certified copy should accompany this pedigree. This also includes family genealogies, pedigree charts, tombstone, cemetery and Bible records. The title page of the Bible should accompany the record pages which should be copied or photostated in full.

2. All Lineage Claims must be type written and submitted in duplicate. No carbon copies will be accepted.

3. Incidents connected with the Candidates life and public services, his or her wife's immigrant ancestors and family traditions, including items likely to prove of interest to the Order's historian or to the Candidate's posterity may be added on a separate page. Do not type these data on the lineage papers.
