Building Our Future by Discovering Our Past

Looking back over 2006, Dallas Genealogical Society had quite a year. We had outstanding educational programs for our monthly meetings, several successful seminars and the Mining for Genealogical Treasures Institute. Not only did our attendees have a good time, they learned many new techniques, and the society was able to donate $40,000 to the Dallas Public Library. The members can be proud to be a part of such a successful organization.

With all the successes we had this year, you might think the officers would be happy. Instead they have set the bar even higher next year. Our emphasis next year will be on even more education. The overall theme is "Building Our Future by Discovering Our Past." The Beginner Series and the Spring Symposium should help bring even more people into the library to do genealogical research that also will bring in more new members.

Next year there will be even more educational programs as a result of our ever-expanding list of Special Interest Groups. Be sure to check out our website for the meeting times and dates for all the groups. If you haven't found a program that excites you about researching your family history, then please let one of the officers know what other topics are needed.

All these new meetings and programs suggest that 2007 will be an interesting and thought-provoking year. As the new events are scheduled, the challenge will be to avoid overworking our volunteers. The board hopes that other members will step forward to assist in registration, meeting setup, and serving refreshments. DGS even has volunteer jobs for those who cannot come to the library regularly. Be sure to send an email to volunteer@dallasgenealogy.org if you can help even a few hours a month.

The future of the Dallas Genealogical Society is in the hands of an excited group of volunteers. Years from now, who knows what will be reaped by the seeds that we sow this year? The possibilities are endless. How will you help build the future of DGS?

Jeri Steele

HAPPENINGS AROUND DPL’S 8TH FLOOR VOLUNTEER DESK

Becoming a volunteer is a great way to get involved and meet others. We encourage those of you who may be just starting out in your family research to volunteer a few hours a week or a few hours a month. This is a wonderful opportunity to become familiar with the genealogy section of the library and spend some time greeting visitors and meeting fellow researchers.

Please join our terrific group of volunteers by selecting one of the open opportunities or join our substitute list. We are looking for individuals to fill in when a regular volunteer is out. This is a good way to spend a few hours on your own research and volunteer a couple of hours at the volunteer desk. And a fantastic perk is free parking!

Open positions at the volunteer desk:

- Mondays: 3:00 – 5:00 p.m.
- Tuesdays: 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.
- Wednesdays: 9:00 – 11:00 a.m.
- Thursdays: 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.
- Thursdays: 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.
- 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Friday each month: 9:00 – 11:00 a.m.
- 2nd Friday each month: 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

This is a great opportunity to get involved and support DGS. Please email the Volunteer Coordinator at Volunteer@dallasgenealogy.org or call Susan Holman at 972-484-9680.

Another great volunteer opportunity is the position of AV coordinator. As DGS expands the number of Special Interest Groups, we need someone to manage and operate the Society’s audio-visual equipment. If you’re interested, please contact Tresa Tatyrek at 972-539-7452 or sig@dallasgenealogy.org.

DGS General and Special Interest Group meetings are held at the Dallas J. Erik Jonsson Central Library 1515 Young Street in the Plaza Level Auditorium, unless otherwise noted.

DGS General Meeting
Usually Meets on the Fourth Monday

Our monthly meeting begins at 7:00 p.m. with our speaker presentation to follow about 7:30 p.m.

Come early. We begin at 6:00 p.m. with refreshments and fellowship, and at 6:30 p.m. everyone is invited to the informal Q & A session.

At 6:30, Lloyd Bockstruck (or substitute) hosts a pre-meeting discussion where members and visitors can ask any genealogically-related question. We expect that in any group of Dallas genealogists, most questions can be answered by someone in that group. After stopping off in the East Room for refreshments, see what you can learn and share. Please, no food or drinks in the auditorium.

The theme of this year’s monthly meetings is “Your Family History: It’s Not All on the Internet.” The topics will be emphasizing sources not on the Internet and skills needed to make the best use of data found on the Internet. Be sure to check the website for future speakers and topics.

Speaker: Tresa Tatyrek

Just getting started with your family research? DGS has just the thing for you: a series of topics for budding researchers to help in your quest for knowledge about your family.

Sessions are held on the 3rd Saturday of each month in the McDermott Rooms on the 8th floor of the Dallas Public Library's J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, 1515 Young Street, in downtown Dallas. They begin at 1:00 p.m. and run up to 2 hours. Afterwards, students who elect to stay in the library to research will be mentored by DGS volunteers.

These sessions are free to anyone who is interested. We do need you to register, however, because of space limitations. To register, go to:

www.dallasgenealogy.org/education/beginreserve.htm

If you plan on attending all 11 sessions and would like a notebook with forms and all the handouts and receive a certificate at the Awards Banquet, there is a fee of $25.

ANNUAL REPORTS
JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER 2006

PRESIDENT
JERI STEELE

The DGS calendar year changed in May 2005 to a true calendar year extending from January 2006 through December year-end. The 2006 year started with the adoption of several by-law changes or additions that were part of this changeover process.

Dedicated members of the 2006 Board worked vigorously and, with the help of many members-at-large, we
- Celebrated with the L-1 and 8th floor staff the achievement of the 50th DGS Anniversary
100,000 Book Challenge
- Donated significant funds and resources to the Genealogy Section of the Dallas Public Library
- Enjoyed excellent speakers at General meetings, the Lecture Series, and the Institute
- Created a new VP of SIGS and increased attendance at well-organized special interest group meetings
- Held several seminars, the Institute, and a well-attended trip to Salt Lake City
- Held a very successful biennial writing awards
competition
- Initiated, documented and managed projects in a business-like fashion
- Continued to improve our business processes to efficiently use the people and resources needed to run the Society

My heartfelt thanks to all the dedicated 2006 Board members and members-at-large whose help and support ensured the success of our many projects. Without you we would not have the society that we have. Our warmest thanks go to the dedicated staff and management of the Genealogy Section of the J. Erik Jonsson Library whose help makes staging our events and the day-to-day use of the wonderful genealogical collection an absolute joy.

It was very encouraging that many of the Board returned again this year to serve you, the members. The officers have not rested; instead they are planning even more exciting events being planned for 2007! We look forward to helping everyone discover more about your past
through the Dallas Genealogical Society.

Director of Publications
Robert Tidwell

The past year was a relatively smooth operation for Publications.

Several times during the year, handouts for general meetings were obtained at no charge to DGS.

At the beginning of the year, our printing (flyers, handouts, and syllabi) was done by Office Depot on Greenville Ave at Lovers Lane. A couple of times we were shorted a few copies, but they made up the difference quickly both times.

After not needing to have Office Depot print anything for us for several months, a change was made to CopyMax at the end of the year. Prices are comparable and DGS is already recognized as a tax-exempt organization with Office Max Corporation.

Turnaround time for most jobs has been 2-3 days from both locations for up to about 5,000 copies.

Our journal was printed again this year by Bradley Graphics and Print. Owner Margaret Bradley continues to work from both Dallas and Galveston. This year’s journal was printed and drop-shipped to Terry Reep’s house in about 3.5 weeks.

Director of Publicity

This position was vacant for most of the 2006 year and mailings and notices were done by other Board members or volunteers.

Director, Volunteer Coordinator
Susan Holman

For the 2006 year, January through November, we had a total of 3,696.10 volunteer hours.
GENERAL DGS NEWS

DIRECTOR, SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS (SIGs)
TRESA TATYREK FOR JOHN Wylie

The DGS membership voted on some by-law changes the first part of the year and one of the changes was to create a new Board position, the Director of Special Interest Groups. This year we added a number of new groups to the already established Computer Interest Group with Gene Burris as its leader, African American Genealogy Interest Group with Donald Payton as its leader and Speakers Round Table with John Wylie as its leader. We started the following groups this year:

Advanced Methodology Research Group—Elizabeth Kutz, leader

Digital Preservation Group—John Wylie, leader

DNA Research Group—Don Raney, leader

Family Tree Maker User Group—Tresa Tatyrek, leader

German Research Group—Nancy Scott, leader

Internet for Genealogists Interest Group—Tresa Tatyrek, leader

MacGen Reunion Group—Happi McQuirk, leader

Native American Research Group—Joy Dunaway, leader

North Texas The Master Genealogist User Group—Jeri Steele & William Dow, leader

Writers Interest Group—Ann Williams, leader

Each Group has its own reminder mail list group and the leader a DGS email address. The end of 2006 saw Gene Burris 'retire' from his long leadership of the Computer Interest Group and we want to acknowledge all that he has done for the group and the Society. Marti Fox is stepping up to the plate and taking the leadership role for the group in 2007. More groups are planned to begin in 2007, so keep an eye on the website and this newsletter for their arrivals!

Lloyd’s Lineage Lines

More than forty years ago I set out on my quest to discover the ancestral homes of my ancestors. With six of my great-great-grandparents born in Europe, I believed that discovering the background of the rest of my ancestors would be an attainable goal. Fortunately, the first ancestral line I selected happened to have been in my home county in Illinois from the days when it was a territory. Even though I had no one to guide me in my quest, I visited cemeteries, the local newspaper office, the public library, the courthouse, and interviewed a host of kinfolk gleaning genealogical nuggets. Within a few weeks I learned that my great-great-great-grandfather was Joseph McAdams, a veteran of the Revolutionary War. The Daughters of the American Revolution had placed a marker on his grave attributing to him the service of another veteran of the same name who was an officer from Virginia. I had seen stories in the local newspaper about the activities of the local D.A.R. chapter so I made inquiries and secured an introduction to some of the members. It was from one of them that I learned about pension applications so I placed a request with the National Archives for the file of Joseph McAdams. I learned that my ancestor was a private and a pilot from Orange County, North Carolina. He was born in York County, Pennsylvania and not in the Tar Heel State as reported in the county history.

I now had a much better command of the research process. Immersed in the study of biology, I knew about the scientific method. I formulated a hypothesis. I gathered data. I evaluated the facts and reached a valid conclusion. I no longer recorded statements as facts.

I asked if there were male counterparts to the DAR. Certainly there was no such organization in my county or any adjoining county, but one of the members of the D.A.R. determined that I could contact a fellow in Chicago. Although I had lived my entire life in Illinois, I had never visited that city and shared the attitude of most people outside of Cook County that it was an alien place. My contact there explained that there were three organizations for male descendants from Revolutionary War participants. He belonged to two of them and recommended that I apply to the Sons of the Revolution.

For the first time I realized that out of my gathering of facts, I had relied on verbal testimony alone. I had no documentary evidence for the dates and places of nativity, death, and marriage from myself via the intervening generations back to Joseph McAdams. I set about fortifying that shortcoming. When I had finally assembled the exhibits to prove the pedigree that I had claimed, I completed the lineage application and submitted my application to the SR. In due course, I learned that my petition had been favorably received. The one who had verified my papers told me that it was one of the best sets he had ever examined.

Upon joining the library nearly thirty-four years ago, I soon met one of the most delightful D.G.S. members I have ever encountered, the late Margaret Scruggs Carruth. She invited me into her home and showed me the magnificent genealogical library she had assembled. She belonged to every hereditary society for which she had eligibility from the First Families of Virginia to Descendants of Colonial Lords of the Manor. One of her most memorable pieces of advice was for me to do likewise, but I was unprepared for her next revelation. She said that neither she nor her mother had ever joined a lineage society if someone else already belonged by right of descent from the same ancestor. Genealogical research was to be furthered by making new ancestral discoveries.

She believed that lineage societies were an excellent insurance policy for preserving lineages and for making them accessible to others interested in their own families. I had joined the S.R. and the S.A.R. using Joseph McAdams as my propositus, but many others had already done likewise so I set about filing supplemental applications on my other Revolutionary War ancestors who had gone “unrescued from oblivion” by their descendants. Over the years others have contacted me and expressed their appreciation for my allowing them to discover their own ancestry through our mutual forebears because they found my work in the records of lineage societies.

Founded in 1955, the Dallas Genealogical Society (DGS) is the oldest, continuously functioning organization of its kind in Texas. It is a nonprofit, tax-exempt corporation and a member of the Federation of Genealogical Societies (FGS). We have approximately 900 members.

The object of this society shall be: to create, foster, and maintain interest in genealogy; to assist and support the genealogy section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library in Dallas, Texas, or its legal successor; and to collect, preserve, copy, and index information relating to Dallas County and its early history.
