A fund of $2730.01 was generated by Dallas Genealogical Society members and friends to purchase Revolutionary War Pension Record Applications for the Dallas Public Library on November 29, 1979 in honor of the society's 25th Anniversary. Lloyd Bockstruck accepted the funds on behalf of the Dallas Public Library. Lloyd is head of the Genealogical Department. He wasted no time in spending the money that was donated. Early on the morning of Nov 30, he sent the order off to Washington.

Some of you may be surprised to learn that everything was ordered in reverse alphabetical order. (Lloyd's decision) Don't worry--those of you who ordered specific reels--they were ordered first. He felt that those searching names at the end of the alphabet always have to wait so long to get to their name that he thought he would surprise them. Money continues to come in, but the library still needs approximately $820.00 for the rest of the set. Your donations would still be greatly appreciated.

CIVIL WAR LETTERS OF CONFEDERATE CAVALRYMAN AND DALLASITE, THOMAS PAYNE WORTHINGTON

Submitted by: Haaael W. Beckett & Edward W. Sameull, Jr.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The explanations and notes by Beckett & Sameull will be done in italics.

On his twentieth birthday, Thomas Payne Worthington, Dallas, Texas plantation owner & operator-to-be, rode northward with his three brothers as part of the Bolivar Troop of the Mississippi Cavalry, to defend his home against the Yankee enemy. It was south of Green- ville, Miss., and his military unit, Company A, 1st Battalion, Mississippi Cavalry of the Confederate Army. This article concerns itself with the trials of camp life in the field, skirmishes and battles, and at last the trauma of imprisonment, as told in the words of Thomas Worthington, himself, in his letters written home.1

Born March 17, 1842, at Belmont, Thomas, the third son of Dr. William Waring Worthington2 and great uncle of the writers of this article, was a long time resident of the Dallas area. Besides owning and operating the extensive Palmetto Plantation near Belmont, he owned much land in and around Dallas. As a cotton farmer, the cotton-rich Dallas area attracted Thomas to move from Mississippi to Texas in the second decade following the War Between the States. Thomas was married to Celeste Arlene Royster in 1877, and they are buried side by side in Oakland Cemetery in Dallas. He died February 17, 1927.3

The twenty year old Thomas was five feet seven inches tall, had brown hair and blue eyes and an olive complexion. He is remembered in later life as a gracious, immaculate gnome with perfectly round bright blue eyes, a white moustache above a lovely smile—and no hair at all on his skinny head.4

He was the next-to-last son of Dr. Worthington and Elisabeth Payne, having been preceded by twin brothers Edward and William, and followed by Charles, & two sisters Sallie & Mary. As the four young brothers rode north, untrained in war, they had youth and enthusiasm & knowledge of the terrain and its people. More than that—they were bringing into the Miss. Cavalry theirs own horses and body servants. The Confederate Army needed every man and steed available, for it was badly underequipped.

Thomas was not a big man in size but he went to war determined to help win it for the South. From the following letters which he wrote home to his family, it is obvious that he was no swashbuckling braggart, but a plain, single minded man determined to get a job done to win the war for the South.

Life in the Cavalry was hard, especially to one raised in easeful surroundings. In his bulletin home, he tells of bad food, then zero food, constant malarial chills, and bitter winter weather.

His letters are addressed to his mother—Elizabeth Payne Thomson Worthington; father Dr. William Waring Worthington; Sallie Worthington (later to marry Haaael Offutt Samuell—his compiler's grandparents; and Mary Worthington, later to become Mrs. John Kerr Nutt. He refers to his brothers as Will—William Waring Worthington, Jr., later to marry Lillie Flournoy; Ed—Edward Thomson Worthington; and Chas—Charles Thomson Worthington, both of whom will remain bachelors. Uncle Free is Preston Thomson, the younger brother of Elizabeth Payne Thomesn Worthington, and Uncle Sid is Sidney Rodea Thomson, the older brother, both of Georgetown, Scott County, Ky. They are the children of Charles Thomson and Sally Payne of Georgetown, Scott County, Ky.

Thomas' letters are not "literary", and he has a "flew" eccentricities of spelling, but his handwriting is beautiful, bold and assured. This is remarkable because all the letters except the later ones from the P.O.W camp were written hastily by bifouaux—on whatever scrap of paper could be found, and were often written on a trunk or even a saddle. The mail was sent to Egg's Point on the river, and couriered by whatever man happened to be traveling in that direction.

But it is best to let the letters speak.

March 18th 1862

Dear Father

Under the roar of cannon I will write you a few lines. Lincoln's gun boats are now in a bout a mile and a half from our batteries they are firing loud and fast they have three gun boats and 4 transports I don't think they can pass this place. We have had a pretty hard time since we left home. We landed at Tiptonville, and walked across to this place (island No. 10) a distance of five miles. We are very badly provided for the negrows have to stay in tents and cook their own provisions and I have to eat with them we haven't any cooking utensils worth anything all we have is what we borrow. I have slept in the tent with the negrows one night. I have been here four nights and I have not taken of my clothes. I am well and been well all the time. The negrows are all well. Dan has had a little cold but is nearly well now I have written all the news so I will close. I remain your affectionate son.

Escaping the Yankee siege and ultimate capture of Island No. 10 three weeks later, the Mississippi Cavalry moved south acting as a cavalry screen to prevent General Ulysses S.
Grant from gaining information of Confederate forces that had taken severe casualties at Shiloh. The absence of Northern pursuit enabled the cavalry to extend its screen from Memphis to Corinth along the boundary between Mississippi and Tennessee. From Senitobia in Tate County, Miss., Thomas was able to dispatch the following letter to his sisters, Sallie & Mary:

Senitobia August 1862

Dear Sallie & Mary

There is a man here going to Boliver Co I will write a few lines to you and get him to send it to you. We got here day before yesterday. Ed is not here he stayed behind to burn cotton and was taken sick. I have heard from him. he had a chill. There is not much the matter with him he will be well in a day or two.
I was offered $50 for my mare when I was coming to the (illegible) day before yesterday I did not take it because I was a good ways behind the company with a sick man and if I solde her I could not get another without walking about 100 miles I like (illegible) better than I did on the river. The way we eat on the river was The people would have our provisions cooked and cooked very mean and set out all the meat in a large tray: the bread the same way, and a tray or a bucket of mush we had no plates pans knives forks or spoons when dinner was announced, you never saw such running and grabbing & snatching. when we wanted a piece of meat we would just pull a piece off(f) and the way we eat mush was a bout a dozen get a round a bucket or tray and dip the mush on a paddel and take it in his mouth and take some more the same way. And those who were two lazy to make paddles to eat mush would eat it with his hands that did not soot me. We have gone into messes now. Bill does very well now if he will continue so. Well he solde the carriage horses he took a way from home for $260. There is a bout 100 men in this company. Wherever the Yankeys have been a long the river they have destroyed evrything. They have taken a way the negrowns mules wagons meat salt molasses and evrything they wanted on some who places they took evry negro mule wagons and burnt the meat and knock the heads out of the molases barrels. Give my respects to all enquiring friends. to Miss Georgie and Miss Eva Butts. as I have written on all the paper I can get I will close I send my love to father and Mother

TPW

From a rest area in northern Mississippi where his father, Dr. Worthington, had been able to visit him, Thomas wrote to his mother and sister Sallie on successive days, describing his participation in the great October battle of Corinth, where General Beauregard was able to delay the advances of the cautious Yankee General Halleck into northern Mississippi. In a letter first to his mother and then to his sister Sallie, he said:
(A sheet of paper folded, address read: Mrs. E. P. Worthington, Belmont, Miss.)

Oct 15 1862

Dear Mother

We received the cloths you sent to Us by Father. The cloths came in play very well for I was trying to buy some janes cloths. Janes sells at five dollars a yard. shoes and boots at the same proportion. William and Birt got furloughs for 60 days. Evry Fellow in the company is trying or has tried to get a furlough. it has made me home sick. before they got furloughs I was perfectly satisfied.
but I am home sick and have chills evry ten days of two weeks.
I was at the battle of Corinth and had pretty hard time of it but is does not go hard with me but I dont like it by any means. I shot one shot at the battle of Corinth, and we found the Yanks were two strong for Us and we left. That was the worst managed fight we have evr had. Mr. Wheat is a bout to get a discharge the sergeon of our regiment offered to sign a discharge for him He is in very bad helth. As I have written you all the knews so I will close.
Father and William will give you all the knews. I remain your affectionate Son

Adams and all the Young Ladies. I had forgotten Miss Bettie Miller and tell her I would like to have some more black berrie cordial such as she sent Ed. That Col Pinson Will & I drank up as I have written all the knews I will have to close.
I remain your brother

Thos P Worthington

Although the letters of October 15 and 16 do not indicate the location of Thomas' unit, it would appear from the following letters that he had spent most of October in Holly Springs, Marshall County, Mississippi. His description of the fighting between the two cavalrymen suggests that his unit may have remained in reserve for a prolonged period after Corinth and morale had been somewhat impaired by the constant pressure of the Northern Armies.
Holly Springs Oct 28 1862

Dear Mary & Sallie

Mr Wheat has been discharged from the army: and will start for home tomorrow. I will take this opportunity to write a few lines. There is no news to write and therefore I cannot write much. We had a quite exciting little time at our tent yesterday morning, between Ben and another boy, they wanted to fight but we would not let them. You never saw two little bucks rave & snort like they did but they did not fight. Ben was not to blame till he was justified in trying to fight. We lost Bills mule sometime ago. I found it a few days ago, a negro was riding it & I made him give it up, Charley was a long with me at the time and did not know the mule and it had its year clipped of and brads all over him. I am in fine health now and have been ever since father left. As I have written all the news I will close. Give my love to Mother and father give my respects to Miss Georgie. I remain your affectionate Brother.

Dear Father & Mother

Mr Wheat is going home tomorrow I will take this opportunity to write you a few lines. I wish you would send me those blankets you fixed up for me last spring and send me two towels. I have found the mule. I have sent William a box of caps that is nearly full. Give my respects to all enquiring friends I remain your affectionate son

The following two letters from Camp Coldwater on Lake Arkabutla reflect the discomfort of troops held idle too long under arduous weather conditions. The Confederate Army appears to have been no different than other armies at other times with its late issue of equipment to fight the winter cold. The letter of Thomas' older brother, Edward Thomson Worthington, not only reflects the health and supply conditions of the Mississippi Cavalry but seems to have taken a more realistic viewpoint of the peace rumors stimulated by the British and French recognition of the Confederacy. Nevertheless, these rumors were a reflection of a lowering of troop morale in a unit kept inactive while the Northern enemy was placing adjacent units under pressure and inflicting casualties upon them.

Camp Coldwater Nov 2nd 1862

Dear Mother

I had another chill yesterday—though today I feel all right again. Yesterday was a big day with us drawing clothing—it put me very much in mind of our negroes drawing cloths at home. Everybody seems anxious to draw and looking as ragged and dirty as possible.

Thos and Chas both keep in fine health also Ben but Will and I both have chills once in a while. We have had lots of company work to do in the last three weeks writing out discharges & making out muster rolls & etc. I wrote Mr Wheat four or five days ago.

No news of interest since he left

Oct 28 1867

Thos P. Worthington

Colde Water camp Nov 2nd 1862

Dear William

All Sanders is going to start home today. I will write you a few lines by him. Mr Wheat started home a few days ago. I wrote to you all by him & expect he is there by this time. We drew pantaloons roundabouts & overcoats yesterday. I drew a roundabout and overcoat. We were guarding two prisoners last night. Ed and Dr Blanchard were guarding them and let one of them get away. They were put under arrest for letting them get away. We drew tents yesterday. As I have written all the news I will close. Give my respects to all enquiring friends

Thos P Worthington

After prolonged idleness, Thomas' unit again had a chance to fight and his unit performed well for a second time against the forces of General Grant as evidenced by the praise his company received from their battalion commander. Following this fight, much talk began of a major redeployment of Mississippi Cavalry to the south against the Yankee threat created by the capture of the Port of Mobile. Should Northern forces from this direction link up with Grant's forces from the north, the Confederacy would be split in two. Thomas' home at Belmont would be in the path of these advancing enemy forces. Thomas writes:

Lumpkins Mills Nov 26th 1862

Dear Sallie

I received your letter yesterday and one blanket, sent by Mr Stewart. We are having some very disagreeable weather now. I expect that our company will be sent down on the Gulf of Mexico. Coln Jackson tolde Capt Herin that he would send him.

Dallas Genealogical Society
I wish we could go there or any place else to get a way from here for we cant buy any thing a tool. I have just see an obituary of Dr. B. F. Kingseath. I am in fine health Bill had a chill a few days but is well now. Edwell had a chill but is over it now. Mr Ireland had a chill today. I was in the fight at Holly Springs but we were not in the fight the other side of Holly Springs. Our company is the only company that did any fighting Col Jackson praises our company very much he says that our company is one of the best company's in the service. As I have written all the knews I will close give my respects to all enquiring friends. Give my love to Mother Father & Mary I remain your affectionate brother

Dear Mary

As I have time to write you a few lines this morning I will try to do so you must excuse bad writing as I am writing on my Cartridge box and cannot write on it well, which you will see: there is not any knews of importance. I expect we will go down on lake Pondchatrain at the gulf of Mexico I wish we can go there or somewhere else so we can get a way from here. It has been a long time since I have received a letter from you. You must do better than you have been doing. As I have written all the knews I will close I remain your affectionate brother

Around the beginning of December, redeployment of the Mississippi Cavalry began. From Lumpkin Mills, the unit moved to Abbeville where troops and horses were moved by rail south to Jackson, located in "a bad looking country as I have seen in some time." Thomas' discomfort from malaria (chills) was further compounded by "nemocia," apparently from riding on top of the railroad cars. By mid-December 1862, the weary and tedious travel connected with this strategic maneuver from Northern Mississippi to the Lake Pontchatrain area of Louisiana was completed. The story of that redeployment from both Thomas and Edward follows:

Jackson Miss Dec 3rd 1862

Dear Father

William was here last Saturday and Sunday. He started to Mobeal Sunday evening and was to be back yesterday or today. For fear we will leave here before he gets back I will write and leave this letter in Jackson for him. We are having very bad weather it rained all day yesterday and last night. I have been sick I had something like malaria for four or five days but I am nearly well now I had a cold for a long time. Coming down on the cars from Abbeville I had to ride on top that made my cold worse. I wish they would send us a way from here. There is some cases of smallpox in Jackson. This is as bad a looking country as I have seen in some time. We have not had a blade of fodder for our horses since we have been here, fodder can not be had in twelve miles of here and most every thing else is scarce as fodder flour sells at 40 cts per pound bacon at 75 cts butter at $2.25 per pound. We cant get any such articles; at that price Will Mason bought a common case knife and sent Bill out the other day to see if he could get anything to eat or drink when he got back I asked him what he found he said he could get a gallon of buttermilk for a dollar and a half. he would take the juge and get some. I tolde him we would do without buttermilk a while longer. As I have written all the knews I will close I remain your affectionate son

Dear Mother

I have an opportunity to send a letter by Mr. Oens he is going through our county to Boliver Knew is very scarce I cannot write a long letter We left Jackson Monday before last and got here last Tuesday. We traveled very hard it was very hard on our horses. Several dyed on the way. My mare did not stand the trip well; she is very stiff now. If we stay here long I think I will get her well. I would rather be here than at Grenada. It is very pleasant weather: and the citizens say it never gets any colder. We cant buy any thing but sweetpotatoes. they sell at $2.00 a bushel We get as much corn as our horses will eat. There is an oldged grass that the horses eat, that helps some. If we had shotguns and small shot We could kill ducks squirrels & partrodges I never saw as many partrodges as there is a bout here and you can ride in five steps of them and they wont fly. Chas has gon out with his Manarde rifle to kill partrodges. I dont think we will have any fighting to do here. There is a bout one thousand men here. Jon Webb is quartermaster of the post I saw him a few days ago. He was dressed as fine as a fiddle, and riding a fine horse. I think John is having a better time than he did before the war and I know a better time than after the war. Not only John Webb but all small officers without exception. As I have written all the knews I will close give my love to Sallie & Mary I remain your affectionate

Dear Mother
We are just through our long & tedious trip from Jackson Miss. We have come through some of the poorest and piniest country that I have ever seen, though had much better fare than one could expect. Had plenty of forage for our horses & could occasionally get a warm supper or breakfast. I have begun having chills again. In the last three days I have had three chills out to day. I have missed my spirits though I feel badly from the effects of my chills. I would put in for another furlough but the Capt asked me to wait awhile and he would try to get off with me & go home with me. So on these terms I have postponed the pleasure of being home. This country is nothing more nor less than a wild spring swamp. We will have nothing to do as long as we remain here no fighting nor excitement. Schooners from New Orleans occasionally come in through Lake Ponchartrain and into Lake Mattamoras (Lake Maurepas?) to Manshack pass & there sell their cargo & occasionally Yanks come in the same way but land. They will have tough work getting to us now as the swamps are full of water & there will be no way for them but to wade waist deep two miles. We have no news of interest.

Jno. Webb & Nelson Warren are our quartermasters here Your affectionate son

Ponchatoula La Dec 19th 1862

Dear Sister Sallie & Mary
Edward expects to start home in a few days and as I have nothing to do and all the boys are a way I will write you a few lines. The soldiers gave a party in town a few nights ago each one gave five dollars toward it. Ed Will & Chas went to it I did not go. I dont know any young ladies and did not have any clothes fit to wear to a party, and besides I can find other ways to spend five that will do me more good and I will enjoy it more. There were three hundred and fifty yankees came by here on their way to Newoollens that had been exchanged. some of them we took at Davis's Bridge fight just before the fight at Corinth. I think they are fighting at port hudson. We hear terrible cannonading somewhere in that direction. William did not get his transfer to Uncle Presses regiment he is here but I expect he will get it. I have written to you by every one that I thought would take or send my letters to you. I have received very few letters from you. William receaved a beauquet to day from a (illegible) girl one he got acquainted with the other night at the party. We have had several false alarms of the Yankees coming but I dont think the Yankeys will ever come here. I think we are stationed here to prevent mingling. You must write every opertunity. You have to send letters for you dont know how glad we are always to get letters from home as I have written all the news I will close I remain your affectionate brother.

Dear Mother & Father
We were stationed at Clinton La. for a while. I saw Dr Camp & Mr Louis Our old preacher. I had a very bad sore throat out there. My tonsils and glands were enlarged. Dr. Camp doctored me and he seemed to do all he could for me. was as cleaver and polite as could be. I was at his house several times. Dr. Camp & Mrs Camp tolde me to give their respects to you all when I wrote home. we are fixed up here very well. We are living in houses that some troops built: and left it very neat. as in the best house. we are in a frame cabbin and have stables for our horses. But we live pretty hard. Poor beaf and corn bread. We can by partrdges at fifteen cents a piece, and rabbits at 50 cents: very few we buy at that price. My Mare is nearly broak and I tryed to get a detail to go home after a horse but, I could not go I think I can get to go after a while. You must not send me a horse for I expect to be home befare long. My throat is nearly well. Give my respects to all enquiring friends. As the news are scarce I will close I remain your affectionate brother.

The long period of inactivity for the Mississippi Cavalry came to an end. Northern forces had begun their concentrated effort to gain full control of the Mississippi River in order to split the Confederacy in two. The Yankees had already tried to seize Port Hudson and open the way to Vicksburg. Confederate forces in and about Port Hudson, which included Thomas’ unit, initially proved to be too much for the Yankees to handle.

For Thomas, the renewed fighting began on March the 14th. Thomas describes the fighting as follows:

Dallas Genealogical Society
Dear Sallie & Mary

Mr. Montgomery is going to start home tomorrow I will write a few lines by him. We are just out of a scout. We have been getting negroes to work on the fortifications and railroad. I think there will be a very big fight at Vicksburg, but I will think we will whip them. Every one seems confident that we will be victorious. The 2 Kentucky regiments is camped close to us. Henry Payne & several other boys from Georgetown are in it. John Webb & Will Cammel are in it. My mare died some time ago. The Government has furnished me with a horse. While we were out on a scout Alec turned Edwards horse loose to graze & he has not been heard from since. Charley Bill Sam & Alec have been looking for him for several days and have heard nothing from him. I expect someone stolde him. The Government is presssing a great many negroes to work on the fortifications and railroad. And a great many horses and mules for army purposes. The horse I have is one they prest. I think after this fight is over at Vicksburg I can get a furlough to go home. I have been trying to learn where Uncle Pres is but I cant finde out. We will start to join our regiment tomorrow. I saw Col Gale this morning. We are in fine health. As I have written all the news I will close. I remain your affectionate brother.

Thos P Worthington

In anticipation of the coming great battle, Thomas was aware of the need of his slaves, who had accompanied him through all of the fighting, to communicate with their families and friends. Using their words and expressing their thoughts, he wrote in their names as follows:

The buildup for the coming battle of Vicksburg continues. Morale was high in anticipation of the clash with the Yankees. Thomas' unit has increased its reconnaissance activities and Northern reluctance to reveal their strength and intentions has given Thomas, at least, a false sense of Yankee combat capabilities in the area. His unit has moved northwesterly from Mechanicsburg to Jackson, placing it closer to the scene of the impending battle. Thomas wrote:

Meccanics Burg Yazoo CO. June 26 1863

Dear Father & Mother

I will write you a few lines by Mr Suten he is going to starte home this evening. We went on a scout yesterday. We went in twenty miles of Vicksburg & in four miles of the yankeys we tried to draw them out but they would not come. We are in Genl Crawsby's brigade. George Blackburns company is with us. I saw Mr A Montgomery in Jackson--I wrote to you by him. I think after this fight is over at Vicksburg I can get to go home. I am certain we will whip them-there are plenty of provisions in Vicksburg, to last the army a long time. I understand that the Yankees are dying by hundreds daily, if that is the case I dont think the big fight will come of for sometime yet. I dont want to go home untill after the fight. I want to be there. We are all well. As I have written all the knews I will close. I remain your affection son

The company got into a little fight a few days ago. William captured a mule. I was not in it. My horses back was to sore to ride so I had to go with the wagons. Jeff & I have been following the wagons a bout a month on account of our horses. Genl Johnson has ishued an order allowing the men in each company furloughs for two weeks until all have been furloughed. I think I can get a furlough sometime. You may not look for me untill I do get one. I joined the army to stick it out & I am going to. If every soldier would get tired & just quit we could not Vicksburg has fallen, the Yankees have succeeded in splitting the Confederacy, and the large force of Confederate troops under Pemberton on the bluffs overlooking the Mississippi are prisoners of Ulysses S. Grant. Thomas' cavalry unit has pulled back from its forward position at Mechanicsburg to the village of Brandon, several miles east of Jackson. Thomas talks of furlough and the possible reassignment of brother William. Idleness has again set in. Thomas writes:

Little does Thomas realize at this point in his service with the Mississippi Cavalry that it will end within a month and he will be on his way to a Yankee Prison-of-War Camp.
NOTES

July the 25th (18)60

Dear Brother & Sister

I embrace my pen to inform you that we are all well and sincerely hope that these lines may find you all enjoying the same blessings I have noting (sic) of much importance to write. We have had a very dry season this year and crops of all sorts is cut very short. Wheat was frozen out last winter A manner have raised it is worth two dollars per bushel. Corn will not make a half a crop and it is thought will be worth $1.50 cents per bushel. Bacon is worth from 15 to 25 cents a pound. Cows & calves is worth from 10 to 15 Dollars. oxens from 40 to 75 Dollars a yoke. good horses Breeding mares & mules all bear a good price. Yet notwithstanding The prices of produce and stock times is hard and money scarce Owing to the failure of crops. Land unimproved is worth from 2 to 10 Dollars per anhor (sic) The country is settling up Way fast and improving rapidly yet society is rare and good citizens scarce (sic) this portion of Texas has a good number of Lawless outlandish characters they bucher (sic) one another up occasionally. Then we have another class of citizens we call abilationists (sic) whose ohnly (sic) business appears to be To excite the poor negro to deeds of Blood shead and Violence and they cause a many one of the poor fellows to get their necks stretched or Burn at the stake. On the 5th of this month there was some 15 or 20 business houses burnt and some dwelling houses and grain and property Distroyed to a vast amount all of which is supposed to be the work of abolition emisaries and A plot has been discovered for the niggers to rise on Election day the first Monday in Augt and make a general masacre (sic) But whether it is true or not is left for time to reveal. I will now inform you that we are all settled in this country I expect for life. We enjoy good health and are all getting along tolerable well in this worle favors (?) or at least have plenty to eat and wear and if Providence Should continue to favor us we have no fears of the future. Evan Price is settled in 4 mile of us and is getting along finely he has 7 Children (sic) and all boys but one. James is living in one mile of us he has 7 children one of which is dead all boys but one. They are all well and doing well. Bleck and children is living with us his wife has been dead 3 years he is single yet and from present appearances likely to remain so he has a good farm and plenty of stock around it he has one child dead & 3 living 2 boys and one girl. Jackson is living in one mile of us he has 2 children one boy and one girl Sarah Jane lives in a mile & a half. She married a man by the name of Joshua Lee. She has 3 children all boys. Thus you see our our(sic) Posterity is almost all of the male kind and if we should live to be a hundred years old we expect to have descendants enough to make a considerable army or People a great nation. Marthy, Louisa, William and Pylinia are all living at home but I don't know how long they are going too. Marthy and Louisa are whaling great big girls plenty big to marry. I expect will marry the first good chance (maybe wont wait for a good chance I don't know) Enough (sic) of my nonsens at present. We Occashionly (sic) get letters from Sally Williams. Henry Williams is Dead and Addelene is married again and I expeckt (sic) from what I hear is doin bad enough. So bad that sister Sally and the children has left them and gone back to their Old place. The last account I had of Moses Hodge and family they were living in Bedford Cty Tennessee.
They were all well. And now Dear Brot & Sister we will close our letter by making a few requests. We want you to write soon and often And write how you are getting along in the world. And as thorough a Description of your country as you can give. And above all we wish to know whether you continue to pratice the faith you once professed of the Gospel. There is some very fine churches of Christians in this Country but none sufficiently near for us to unite with. But notwithstanding our lot is cast in heathen lands yet we still preserve our creed (the Bible) and perform our religious obligations as well as we can. We have now already exceeded our limits and will now come to a close fail not to write soon and often. We would be glad to see you and if the Distance was not so great we would stop over some of theses (sic) times. But considering our age and the Distance we have no hope of ever meeting you on Earth. But may we all be enabled by the Grace of God to Enter in through the gates of the City of the promist (sic) Jerusalem and be made partisipants with the children of God. There Dear Brother & Sister we hope to meet you to part no more.

Yours Truly
A. P. & J. Duckworth

To: P. F. & Mary Luark & Family

P. S. I should have written sooner having received a letter from you some time last spring. But the letter was blown out of the house in a storm of wind and destroyed and I had forgotten the post office.
But finely we ascertained by the post office register A. P. D.

Dear Son & all yours this P. M. I am seated to answer yours dated May the 25th past, it came to hand safe week before last. I could have wrote sooner, but I wated to hear from your brother John, but no he has not wrote to me for 2 or 3 months, why I cant tell but I can tell you of many others of our long train of kin. in the first place I thank God I am well in health but my mind is not steady, only in one thing (i.e.) I am bound for the Kingdom, where peace & joy for ever reigns. I feel lonesome, ever since you Mother died, since Sam. died we keep a private house & all are very quiet as respects rude company, but our burgh(?) is all Irleligious, if I want to converse on the doctrine of Religion, I must go out from home but thank God I have the old Bible that I can read Our church meets once a month, sometimes oftener, by chance a preacher comes along, but our bretheren are all lay members, they are all lacking, & I know the reason, well you say Old man why dont you stir them up, they are all too well acquainted with this old scamp, if a stranger would come, he might be heard, but you know what our Saviour said, a Prophet can not be heard in his own country or in his own house they said is not this the son of Joseph (a carpenter) & his Mothers name is Mary & his sisters are they not among us &c, if I could have my way, we would at least meet every Lords day in prayer meeting, I was 4 years in K. Co.
they met every thursdy night & Lords day if no Preacher came along, in Wabash town I was there 4 months, well the Christian deciples met twice a week there, some times very few, yet I believe enough met to claim the Promise, that you know. I thought that Mary Ann would again unite with the church, but she has lived so long out that perhaps she is watching the backsliders (or more properly say) the hypocrits that are already enrolled on the Church book, but I tell the outsiders that no excuse I know there are thousands in this world that are stumbling over the hypocrits in Churches, but thats wrong, they must stand or fall before our great Redeemer in a coming day, I know that joining a church will not save a Soul, being Baptised will not save them, faith alone neither, but faith & obedience, as our great Redeemer said in the commition he gave his Apostles, go preach the Gospel to every creature, Baptising them in the name of the Father & of the Son & of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you &c (so say Mathew) Now my Dear Son & friends, I told you I was well, right, Mary Ann & her children are all so, she has 6 living children 3 of each sort, a girl & boy dead. her Mother & sister Ruth lives in Anderson town Ruths man is in the war & young Sally is married My folks a way in Va. are well, your Sister Anna is in Pa. her children by Wade is in Va. all well your Brother Wm. T. is still in Minasota, his 2nd wife is Dead, his son Lycurgas is in the war & John Elijahs son is in the army, & Andrews Son John & Sol. Hinnamans Son John all in the war this is a disturbing war & no hopes of peace, a few days past I read in a paper, stating of the war department that we had lost 200000 men now, & no hopes of peace. I doo thank God that none of my kin has died or been killed (i.e.) that I've heard of well this is Wendesday the 30th Ill try to finish my addiess (?) but speaking of the past winter we had the most open favorable winter, & scarcely no snow more so than I ever remember of in 40, for I have seen that many in Ind. & another new thing in these parts, last year we had a plenty of peach fruit, & this year also, we have mostly every year apples, but the peach has been very uncertain & wheat for 2 years has been good, & corn crops was good last year & looks well so far this year & thank God for it, seeing that we have so many in the war, & they must be fed it has been said by some that this war will not end in Old Abes term And then if Avolitionism (sic) rules what will become of our Nation I need not fear, but to think of the hundreds of my blood kin that is now in existence, for your baby makes 102 of my 3rd jeneration, & my 4th jeneration Nos 129 as I am informed (i.e.) there has been that live born, the many are gone from time & further there has been 4 of the 5th generation born tho only one is living, that is Geo. W. Blacks grand child, his daughter sent me a letter which I must answer next mail I will mail 3 this week one to Wm. T. one to you & one to Geos daughter & perhaps one out N. to my favorite friend that wants my likeness, well youl say, old man this will cost something, true, I wish you would send me some letter & Stamps I kept the P.O. 6 months, then my letters went & came free tho, you did not write to me then (I think) but perhaps you have not them in your Ter. well I think I have wrote plenty such as it but just now I have got a new pen point & holder & envelops & letter paper from a pedler only see how is does perform-----pleas answer soon & if any thing I have omitted that you desire to know then I'll answer in my next 4 days past I was 88 years old. if you have not name your baby call it Katharine or Lara as ever your Father till DEATH Jon Luark Sr.(?) for his son wrote in Fonetik adu Zinnsburgh, Feb. 25th 1863

Dear grandson at last I am seated to answer your of Dec. past. I was on the alert to start out when I read it & I neglected to answer till I would return. I thank God I am in good health & our folks in the common sense of the word are well. yesterday, I came home, I have been N. only 10 miles I was off 2 weeks in Anderson; I was among our folks as you may learn from Ruth's address well Marcellus I am surprised to hear you say perhaps my cures might not take effect in your time, saying as tho Doctors were of little use in your parts, my gift of healing is not called doctor-spip (?) it is such as medison cannot touch. my cure is performed by a touch of the hands or a blow of the breath my cures are external sometimes internal as a child with the thrash or some cases in the mouth or throat, its a gift from God, I cant give it to any one, I cant sell it or learn it to any. when I die it is gone, such things as common doctors cant cure that is mine, such as cancers, wens &c, I think I learn by your address that you have a notion to marry well my advice to you is, strive to get a wife---------- a woman is easy comat, a married life is of all the most happy, yea I know it by experience but if you marry a woman, & not a wife woe be unto you, but my dear friend I charge you to be in the path of duty Remember you must BE prepar to meet thy GOD

Now when you see this say here is the writing of my old old grand father 88 years & 7 months lacking one day. fail not to answer this & tell me where I fail in telling you something that I could. I thank some of you for them letter ____ I would like to have some ten cents stamps As ever your grand parent till Death

BAIRD FAMILY LETTER

Submitted by W. D. Baird.

Ross Ave 623
Sept 10 Dallas (18)91

Mrs. E. A. Boliver
Very Dear Sister
I received your kind letter several days since. Was very glad to hear from you and that you were all well. To think it has been fifty years since I saw you mar-rried, and soon will be fifty since your dear brother and I were married. You have been greatly blessed you and your husband in being spared to each other so long.
Their is no one that can take or fill a husband's place. This I know from sad experience. I suppose few had as kind a husband as I had, he treated one with lover like affection as long as he lived, and tried to arrange every thing he could to make me comfortable after he went home, but it seems to me life has been only a burden since his death, their is always a restless uneasy feeling Something missing, both when sleeping and awake. I try to be cheerful and laugh and talk when I feel much more like crying. I do hope when the good Lord sees fit to take either of you you will not be separated long, but that you will be blessed with each others company to the end. I have been waiting to see if I could rent our house on the fifteenth, but have concluded it best to stay at home. Nannie Becker started to Ky last wee. Toms family were well the last little (while) I (hope) you will have a nice time on the fifteenth and that your brothers and sisters will be with you and your children and grand children. My love and best wishes. A. E. Baird

A NORTH COUNTRY ESTATE--The Lumleys and Saundersons as landowners, 1600-1900. Written by T. W. Beastall, published by Phillimore & Company, Ltd., London & Chichester, published 1975. 6½ x 9, hard cover, 249 pages, £4.50. Order from the publishers. Illustrated with black & white pictures and many charts of economic and historic value. Full genealogical charts of the Lumley-Saunderson connection. Has complete index. This book contains a fine collection of papers from the estates of the Earl of Scarbrough relating to three distinct properties of the Saundersons and Lumleys. Thsi book shows how economic, social and family considerations were interelated in the acquisition and development of landed property in the counties of Durham, Lincolnshire and Yorkshire for three centuries. It is a unique book that should prove beneficial in the study of economics of medium sized estates in England of that time period. There many other families mentioned in the book. It is a well written book.
