The Dallas Genealogical Society was founded in 1955 with the following objectives:

TO CREATE, FOSTER AND MAINTAIN INTEREST IN GENEALOGY AND FAMILY HISTORY.
TO RAISE STANDARDS OF GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH THROUGH EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS, WORKSHOPS AND THE PUBLICATION OF DATA.
TO PROMOTE THE COLLECTION AND PRESERVATION OF MATERIAL RELATING TO THE EARLY HISTORY OF DALLAS COUNTY AND THOSE PIONEERS WHO SETTLED THE AREA.
TO COPY, INDEX AND PUBLISH RECORDS, DOCUMENTS, INSCRIPTIONS AND OTHER GENEALOGICAL SOURCE MATERIALS.
TO SUPPORT THE GENEALOGY SECTION OF THE DALLAS PUBLIC LIBRARY.
TO STIMULATE THE EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION BETWEEN SOCIETY MEMBERS AND GENEALOGICAL RESEARCHERS ACROSS THE NATION.

MEMBERSHIP: The Dallas Genealogical Society is a non-profit, federally tax-exempt organization. Individuals, libraries or societies may apply for membership. Annual dues are $12.00 for the calendar year if paid by January 31, after January 31 they are $14.00. All current members receive the quarterly journal and the newsletter.

QUARTERLY: The Dallas Quarterly publishes source material and articles of general interest concerning Dallas County and Texas. Manuscripts together with a cover letter giving the Society permission to publish the material should be submitted to the Editor at the DGS mailing address. While our intention is to present original authoritative articles, the Dallas Genealogical Society and the editor of The Dallas Quarterly cannot be responsible for the accuracy or publishing rights of the material furnished by others.

QUERIES: Queries are printed in the DGS NEWSLETTER. They do not require a Texas connection and are free to members of the Dallas Genealogical Society. Non-members should include $3.00 with each query submitted. To eliminate correspondence and delay we reserve the right to abbreviate or condense. Queries should be addressed to the Query Editor at the DGS mailing address.

BOOK REVIEWS: Any Book donated to the Dallas Genealogical Society relating to genealogy or family history which is currently in print and available for sale will be reviewed in The Dallas Quarterly. The book will be placed in the Genealogy section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library of the Dallas Public Library System. All publications to be reviewed should be sent to the Dallas Genealogical Society together with price and complete ordering information.

PAST PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

On June 1, 1989 the newly elected board of the Society took their offices and started planning the business and activities for the coming year. By the time our first board meeting was held in August, much work had been done. The summer's planning was put into action and from it a wonderful year evolved.

Dallas Genealogical Society continues to grow. As of August 1, 1989 the total membership stood at 712 and had grown to 734 members of the end of May 1990.

In August 1989 the board voted to discontinue the commercial label and mailing list service and have members of the Society do it on a voluntary basis. This past year nearly 17,000 labels were printed at a cost to the Society of less than $75, which saved approximately $1,000.

The publications brochure was updated and reprinted. A mass mailing was made in March 1990 to libraries, societies, etc., across the U.S. The result of this mailing was just beginning to blossom by the time this board left office, but we feel confident that the Society will reap orders for sometime to come.

DALLASEARCH, A Guide to Genealogical Resources in Dallas County, Texas was updated and printed. This booklet gives information on genealogical research sources in the Dallas Public Library as well as in the Metroplex area. This is a wonderful tool for visitors and residents alike to find their way around Dallas, genealogically.

Also our How To Trace Your Ancestors, was reprinted this year and is made available in the Dallas Public Library as well as to be handed out at various functions. Work continues on preparing more Dallas Co. marriage records and cemetery inscriptions for future volumes to be published.

DGS accepted a donation of Abstracts from the earliest Texas Baptist and Texas Presbyterian newspapers. These are soon to be published in microfiche form. Also, the Society accepted 4 volumes of Texas Methodist Newspaper abstracts, already published, and 2 other volumes which are soon to be released. All proceeds will go to benefit the Society.

Our meetings this past year were well attended as were the Fall Symposium and the Spring Seminar, which were successful and informative.

The May 1990 business meeting ended our year of labors and thus provided fruits of those labors to the cause of genealogy. At this annual business meeting the Society gave $5,000, honoring Carol Kupfer, the designer of our logo, directly to the Genealogy Section of the Dallas Public Library. In addition, $3,000 was added to the 1920 Census Fund, the census will be released in March 1992.

We as a Society can be proud of the 1989-1990 year of DGS. It provided information and education to our community about genealogy and we also supported the Dallas Public Library for all to use.

It has been my pleasure and honor to have served as your President for a third time.

Helen M. Lu
INTRODUCTION

These abstracts are from obituaries, death notices, marriages and biographical sketches published in the Southwestern Presbyterian, New Orleans, Louisiana, for the dates given herein.

The Southwestern Presbyterian began publication February 25, 1869 and continued through December 30, 1908, after which time it merged with The Central Presbyterian and The Southern Presbyterian to form The Presbyterian of the South.

Published weekly, these papers were four pages each. The marriages and obituaries were usually on page three, but not always. Biographical sketches, memorials and tributes were likely to be found on almost any page.

Although only a few, if any, obituaries and marriages were published in each issue, they were from a large area. Most were from Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Arkansas and Texas, with a few from Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, South Carolina and elsewhere. While the majority of individuals, in the abstracts, were Presbyterian, some were of other denominations.

The microfilm used for these abstracts was filmed for the American Theological Library Association, Board of Microtect Project, 1971. Microfilm copies were obtained through the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, Montreat, North Carolina. Microfilm used for these abstracts have been donated to the Genealogy Section, J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, Dallas.

Published: New Orleans, Louisiana
Editor: Henry M. Smith, D.D.

22 February 1872, Vol. IV, No. 1

We are called to record another instance of that chastening which seemeth not for the present to be joyous, but grievous. On the morning of the 13th inst., Mrs.
Victoria C. Atkinson, wife of the Rev. C. M. Atkinson, was removed by death. Having secured a home for his family in this city early in last January, Bro. Atkinson went over to north Louisiana to do the work of an evangelist. On his return near the close of the month, he found Mrs. Atkinson unwell. She was taken sick on the sixteenth anniversary of their marriage. W. T. H., Canton, Miss., Feb. 16th, 1872.

29 February 1872, Vol. IV, No. 2

Rev. B. N. Sawtelle, Pastor of the church at Tuscomb, died on the 13th inst.; a correspondent of the Presbyterian and Index, contributes the following interesting statement regarding him: His family being large and his salary small, he toiled with his hands to support them and still preach the gospel. During the war while living in the country twelve miles from Tuscomb, he for a length of time walked into town every Sabbath to fill his pulpit, and without receiving any salary at all. For ten years he was never absent from a single meeting of Presbytery or Synod. He was in the forty first year of his age. [Article on page 2]

Died Feb. 1st, 1872, at the residence of her son-in-law H. T. Bartlett, Esq., Mrs. Ann McComb, relict of the late J. S. McComb in the 76th year of her age. Mentions two sons, three daughters, with other kindred and friends who were around her dying bed. [Place not given.]

7 March 1872, Vol. IV, No. 3

Mrs. Mary Mead Hardie, widow of the late Major John Hardie, departed this life at Thornhill, the family residence, in Talladega Co., Ala., Feb. 18, 1872, in the 59th year of her age. She was the daughter of Rev. Isaac Hall, and was born in New Kent Co., Va., in 1812. When she was quite young, her father moved to the vicinity of Huntsville, Ala., where she was married in 1828, to the late John Hardie, a merchant from Scotland who a few years after, settled in Talladega Co. In 1848 she was left a widow with nine children and two orphan nieces most of them quite young. At an early age they all became pious and united with the Presbyterian Church, the church of their parents. All have been spared except one niece, the late Mrs. P. Levisée of Shreveport, La. All have prospered in the best sense of that word. Six of the sons, the seventh being too young to go, were in the late war, and all returned at its close. Four of them are efficient Ruling elders in the churches in Montgomery, Selma, and New Orleans. A. B. McCorkle, Feb. 23, 1872.

14 March 1872, Vol. IV, No. 4

No marriages or obituaries published in this issue.

21 March 1872, Vol. IV, No. 5

Married by the Rev. Wm. Flinn, March 14th, 1872; at the residence of H. T. Bartlett, New Orleans, Mr. John H. Chidester of St. Louis to Miss Anna A. McComb of New Orleans.

Dr. Eddy for many years Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Newark, N.J. She united with the church at the age of 14. The loss of two sweet children left her home silent, and perhaps helped to turn her pious sympathies to the children of the poor in our city; whom she loved to gather in Mission, Sabbath and Industrial Schools to which zeal gave a living impulse. A sorrowing husband, two aged parents, with brothers and sisters and a large scale of kindred and friends, are called to suppress the selfishness of their grief in the joy of her immortal ascension.

Married in the Presbyterian Church in Raymond, Miss., on the 21st of March, 1872, by Rev. J. R. Gilland, assisted by Rev. W. B. Bingham; Mr. John D. Gilland, son of the officiating minister to Mrs. Emily J. Sherard of Raymond, Miss.

Died in Amite City, La., March 13th, 1872 in her 49th year, Mrs. Mary E. Marr, wife of G. W. H. Marr, Esq. She was the daughter of Charles McCarroll and Elizabeth Higdon, and was born in Jefferson Co., Miss., in which State she was reared and married, removing with her family in 1856 to the city of New Orleans. She was a member for eighteen years of the Lafayette Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, whose services and ordinances it was her delight to attend; a privilege in great measure denied her since 1865, when her health began to decline. She left a husband and children.

Died at Bonham, Texas, March 22nd, 1872, Howard Livingston, only son of Mr. Howard L. and Mrs. Louisa Morse Parmele, aged 17 months and 5 days. G. M. S.

Died on Wednesday, April 24, 1872, at 2 o'clock a.m., Isabella, eldest daughter of Greville and June Ewing, aged fourteen years, nine months and twenty one days. [NOTE: Place not given.]

9 May 1872, Vol. IV, No. 12

Died at Westwood, Miss., at the residence of Charles McGehee, Esq., on the 25th of April, 1872, James Wilson Lea, in the twenty fourth year of his age. Five years ago he professed the faith which "dwelt also in his grandmother, Lois, and his mother, Eunice." P.

A MOTHER IN ISRAEL. Many throughout the bounds of our Southern Church will learn with sorrow, of the death of Mrs. Susan R. Markham, May 1st, at the residence of her son-in-law, Judge Sleeper, Waco, Texas. The name of Mrs. Markham is identified with the history of the Vicksburg Church. From the foundation of that church she has been one of its most devoted members. She died in her 72nd year. [NOTE: Tribute published May 23, 1872.]

16 May 1872, Vol. IV, No. 13

Married on Thursday, 9th of May, 1872, in Thalia Street Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, by the Rev. Wm. Flinn, Mr. Konrad Fuhri to Miss Sallie J. Flinn, daughter of the officiating minister. All of this city. No cards. Southern Presbyterian of Columbia, S. C., and Central Presbyterian of Richmond, VA., please copy.

Died at his residence in New Orleans, May 2nd, 1872, Mr. Henry Thomas Bartlett, aged 54. [NOTE: See Memorials below.]

MEMORIALS OF MR. HENRY T. BARTLETT. Few men have lived in our city leaving a brighter record. He was born in East Windsor, Conn., Jan. 23, 1818. The son of a clergyman distinguished in his day for the soundness of his views and the piety of his heart, he was reared in the bosom of the church and was brought to the saving knowledge of the truth at the early age of thirteen. In 1843, he removed to the city of New Orleans, and has long been known in its commercial circles as an honorable and successful merchant. He died on the 2nd of May, 1872. On the last day of April he made enquiry about his mother-in-law. Said he what day of the month did dear mother leave us? He was told, on the first of February. Well, he said, let me go the first of May, and that day his sister-in-law asked him how many May days is this that you have seem? "Fifty-four, and this is the happiest one of all in my life." His wife and a brother mentioned.

23 May 1872, Vol. IV, No. 14

TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF MRS. SUSAN R. MARKHAM. In our paper of May, the 9th, a simple notice was given of the recent decease of this venerable lady. Susan Railey Markham was born in Woodford Co., Ky., near the town of Versailles, Jan. 15th, 1801. Her parents were Virginians; and her father, Thomas Railey, by maternal descent, a Randolph, and cousin of Mr. Jefferson. In 1825 she married Mr. William Fleming Markham, a native of Goochland Co., Virginia, a grandson of Judge Fleming of the Supreme Bench of that State. After the birth of a son, they removed to Jefferson Co., Miss., where, on profession of faith, she united with the old Harmony Church, in the early ministry of Zebulon Butler. Removing to Vicksburg, she was one of the little band of six who founded there the Presbyterian church. With two of that number, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonnell (a daughter of John Henderson, of Natchez) she helped to gather from the hills and hollows of that broken town its first Sabbath School, in which her labors were constant and continued, bearing precious fruit. Of her six children, one was taken in infancy. She saw her second son, dedicated as Samuel was, accepted as a minister of the Word, and her two daughters married to Christian men, in whose pleasant homes, her old age freshened by their loving children found comfort and repose. Her younger son, slain in battle, gave to his country a life he had already given to God. For her husband's conversion she waited long. For thirty three years he sat beside her in the sanctuary, a veil between them. At length it lifted, and for two years christian communion they saw eye to eye. In 1860 he "went before." Age did not abate her Christian ardor. As twice before in Vicksburg, so again in New Orleans, and Waco, Texas, she rendered substantial and effective aid, giving and working for the erection of the houses of worship, built by her son and nephew. In the last named of those places, the homes of her daughters, she rested from her labors. She died May 1st 1872, in her 72nd year.

Died, at 3 o'clock a.m., on Saturday the 11th May, 1872, at her residence in West Feliciana, La., Mrs. Eliza C. Hamilton, in the seventieth year of her age. She was the daughter of Duncan Stewart and Penelope Jones his wife, and was born in Montgomery Co., Tenn., on the 18th Oct., 1802. She married on the 11th of June, 1818, in Wilkinson Co., Miss., to Col. Wm. S. Hamilton, by the Reverend father of the Methodist Church, Wm. S. Winans. Died in Wesson, Miss., at the residence of Rich'd G. Latting, her only son, Mrs. Cynthia Van Matre in the sixty-eighth year of her age. She was a native of Massachusetts, but at a very early period of her life removed with her parents to Ky. Her parents, educated and thrifty people, had caught the spirit of adventure which characterized so many of the people of that day, and after spending some time in Ky., they erected a keel boat and with their ten children floated down the waters of the Cumberland, the Ohio and the Mississippi to find a home on the shores of the great river which were then becoming fairly opened to the enterprise of new settlers. For the Territory of Louisiana, had then been lately acquired by the United States. They made their way to a point in Arkansas then known as Vilmot, subsequently as Point Chicot, opposite the town of Greenville in Miss. Here in 1822 the subject of this notice was married to Richard Latting of New York, one of the settlers, and seven years after was left a widow with only one surviving child, Richard G. Latting, at whose house she died. In 1833 she was married to J. Van Matre. He soon after removed a short distance to the site of the town now known as Columbia, Arkansas where he erected the first frame house. Sickness, and the influx of the population which infected the towns of the Mississippi forty years ago, together with the loss of the lands which they had settled, and to which they supposed their title undoubted, led to a removal, and they started for Texas, by way of New Orleans. Providential circumstances detained them in the city for some months when they relinquished the purpose of settling in Texas and concluded to remain. This afforded to Mrs. Van Matre the opportunity which she had long desired, and she united herself with the First Presbyterian Church bringing with her, her son then twelve years old and giving him in Baptism to the Lord. DEATH OF A NATIVE CHOCTAW PREACHER. Skullyville Co., Choctaw Nation. Mr. Editor: It becomes my duty this evening to drop you a few lines to inform you and the readers of your most excellent paper, of the death of Rev. Bolin Perry, a Choctaw native preacher, who was employed last Conference to ride Mosholatubbee circuit. He was about forty-eight years of age, and departed this life on the 7th of April, 1872. He had been occupying the local ranks in the ministry for about eighteen years, and has been riding a circuit, most of the time since he had been licensed to preach. He had a Choctaw education, at least could read and write in Choctaw, and also could read a little in English, which was a great help to him in his preaching. --Western Methodist. W. F. Folsum.

Died on the 14th of June, 1872, in the city of Boston, Mrs. Nannie Nye McMillan, only surviving child of Mr. William T. and Mrs. Theposa C. F. Mayo, of New Orleans. This young wife and mother, was born in the city of New Orleans, Oct. 9th, 1840, united with the Presbyterian Church in 1856, at the age of sixteen, and was married in Nov., 1866, to Mr. Robert McMillan. Like most of the Lord's hidden ones, she passed under the rod of his gracious discipline, in the burial of two infant children, leaving one daughter of two summers, to solace the grief of parents and husband, who mourn for the loss of her. The parents who are now childless, and the widowed husband, have only the priceless memory of a love that was tender and cheerful.

daughter of the late Woodson and Agnes McMurtry, long residents of Natchez, Miss., where she was born Oct. 1st, 1848. She united with the Presbyterian Church, of which the Rev. Dr. Stratton was pastor, in her eighteenth year. Just fourteen months from the day of her burial, she came to us a stranger, on a visit to relatives. She was soon a favorite in the social circle and an earnest worker in the Sabbath School. Being very severely burned by an oil explosion in Jan., she endured great suffering month after month, until the 14th of July, when the silver cord was loosed by the hand of death. The most faithful medical attendance, the kind attention from friends, the tender nursing of a devoted mother who hastened to her from a distant home, and daily prayers in her behalf could not save her life. ELDER JOHN S. HOLT. The death of this venerable man, who departed this life on the 22nd inst., at the house of his son, Dr. Alfred C. Holt, in New Orleans, is worthy of more than a passing notice. Had he lived a few more weeks, he would have been eighty-six years old, forty of these years he was a ruling elder in the church of his fathers, first at Woodville, Miss., and subsequently in Galveston, Texas, and for the last sixty of them (itself a long life time) a professed disciple of Christ. He entered the war of 1812. Constrained at last by advancing years to retire from the active pursuits of life, for a few years past, beneath the roof of a beloved son, and cherished with all the tender assiduities of love, he had been quietly, peacefully, awaiting the longed for summons to depart.

REV. SAMUEL DAVIES, ONE OF THE GREAT LIGHTS OF THE LAST CENTURY. Samuel Davies was born in New Castle Co., Delaware. He was, on both sides, of Welsh extraction. He received the rudiments of his education from his mother. His higher education he received at the best schools in the country. In his twenty-third year he was licensed to preach by the New Castle Presbytery, and, about a year afterwards was ordained as an evangelist. He was immediately appointed as a missionary to labor among some destitute congregations in Virginia, and Episcopalianism, was, of course, the established religion. Presbyterians were Dissenters, and it was difficult for their ministers to obtain permission to exercise their ministry to the colony. [Details of permission granted given.] Mentions his collision with Peyton Randolph, the King's Attorney General. The result of his conflict with Mr. Randolph was the extension of his license rather than its contraction. Says Dr. Sprague in his Annals of the American Pulpit: "His residence was now in Hanover about twelve miles from Richmond...." In 1753, Mr. Davies, in company with Rev. Gilbert Tennent, made a voyage to Great Britain in behalf of New Jersey College. On his return he found the country in the midst of the French and Indian War. On the 20th of July, 1755, occurred Braddock's terrible defeat, which spread gloom and despondency through the colonies. Three days after this, Mr. Davies preached his celebrated sermon on "The Defeat of General Braddock," in which he called upon his countrymen to show themselves Britons and Christians, and to make a stand for the blessings they enjoy. [Other titles and subjects of sermons he preached were listed.] In 1758, he was chosen, president of New Jersey College, as the successor of President Edwards. His connection with the college however, was short, about a year and a half. His sermons were collected and published after his death, and are still read by the old people of the country with great interest. --Banner of Peace.

M. F. MAURY. Matthew Fontaine Maury was born on the 14th day of Jan., 1806, in a family of French origin, who settled in Spottsylvania Co., Virginia. His aptitude for a maritime career soon revealed itself. Appointed midshipman at nineteen years of age, he sailed on a voyage around the world, which lasted not less than four years. On his return he underwent with success his regular examination, and was appointed sailing-master of the man-of-war Falmouth. Shortly afterward he received the commission of Lieutenant, and took part in the expedition to the Southern Seas, from 1831 to 1834. The American Government, in order to utilize his scientific knowledge, confined to him the astronomical work of the expedition. Relieved from the voyage, he was entrusted with the depot of charts and nautical instruments, and received the appointment of Superintendent of the Hydrographical Board, in Washington City, and in order to complete the studies to which he has devoted his whole life, employed all the resources which that high position offered him. He was later made captain. His many accomplishments and awards are given. He served in the Confederate Army. One of his sons fell on the field of honor; his property was destroyed and he himself went into exile in Mexico. Received cordially by Maxmillian, he was appointed at once Imperial Commissioner of Emigration, performing its duties with that perfect fidelity and ability so characteristic of the man. Since the destruction of the Mexican Empire, Commodore Maury has been hard at work in Virginia, seeking to develop the resources of his mother state, and trying in every way to stimulate and protect the growth of agriculture. He is respected and beloved by all who know him and is one of the greatest of Americans now living.—Kansas City Times.

DEATH OF MERLE D'AUBIGNE. The cable announced the death of this great man on the 21st Oct. He died at his home in Geneva, Switzerland, full of years and honors. He was seventy-eight years old. We speak of him as a Preacher, a Theological Professor or a Historian. He was born in Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 16th, 1794 and was the third son of Louis Merle, a merchant of that city, whose father married the daughter of a French nobleman, D'Aubigne. From his paternal grandmother, according to a Swiss custom, Professor Merle derives his surname, D'Aubigne. He was educated at Geneva and Berlin. At the period, in 1816, Robert Haldane, of Scotland, went to Geneva, and led by the wonder working providence of God, gathered around him a few students of divinity, to whom he talked about their souls and the way of life through faith in Jesus Christ. He found them profoundly ignorant of the fundamental truths of the Gospel. The subject met Robert Haldane at a private house with some other friends... So that, if Geneva gave something to Scotland at the time of the Reformation; if she communicated light to John Knox, Geneva has received something from Scotland in return in the blessed exertions of Robert Haldane. After completing his studies at Geneva, he attended Neander's lectures on Church History at the University of Berlin. In 1817, he was ordained to the ministry, and became pastor of a Protestant French church at Hamburg, Brussels where he was the favorite preacher of the King of Holland. He was author of many works. He had an ample fortune, and lived in a villa commanding a view of the lake, just on the outskirts of Geneva.—Ass. Ref. Pres.

26 December 1872, Vol. IV, No. 45

DEATH OF DR. PORTER. Austin, Texas, Dec. 16th, 1872. It is made my melancholy duty to announce to you the death of our beloved brother, Rev. A. A. Porter, D.D., pastor of the Presbyterian Church in the city of Austin, Texas. He died on Sabbath morning, Dec. 18th On the next day the funeral service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Dodge, pastor of the Baptist church. He leaves a wife and six children. Fraternally, Henry McDonald. Resolutions published, following the obituary, submitted by Z. T. Fulmore, Clerk.

Married at the residence of Mr. J. M. Wiggins, on the 12th of Dec., by the Rev. W. N. Dickey, Mr. Joseph Huffington to Miss Emma Taylor, all of Rusk, Cherokee Co., Texas.
TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF REV. SYLVESTER LARNED. A rich and noble trophy hath death taken in him, the saddening news, of whose departure, has just reached us. [NOTE: this beautiful long memorial gave no personal data regarding his birth, date or place of death.]

THE DEATH OF JOHN KNOX. Sabbath, Nov. 23d, 1572, was the day of "the fast appointed on account of the French massacre" Monday, the 24th, was the last day he spent on earth. About three o'clock in the afternoon, one of his eyes failed and his speech was considerably affected. He desired his wife to read to him the 15th chapter of the First Epistle to the Corinthians. She also read other chapters to him later in the day. About eleven o'clock he gave a deep sigh and said, "Now it is come."

Married in New Orleans, Dec. 30th, 1872, by the Rev. H. M. Smith, Leo Aryall, and Mrs. Mary Bond.

In Memory of Mrs. Louisa Ligon Woodridge. On Saturday morning, Dec. 21st, we buried, in the beautiful cemetery of Henderson, Ky., the mortal remains of Mrs. Louisa Ligon, wife of Rev. Jahleel Woodbridge, for many years pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place. Mrs. Woodbridge was born in Georgia; but while yet a child removed to Louisiana where her girlhood and womanhood were spent. There she married Mr Woodbridge, then pastor of the church at Baton Rouge and with him resided a short time in that charming little city. In 1854 she accompanied her husband to Henderson, Ky., where many of her happiest years were passed. After a long and useful pastorate here, Mr. Woodbridge was induced to accept a charge in Missouri, but the failing health of his wife in that too vigorous climate compelled him to seek a more southern home. One year ago, they went to Wesson, Miss. She sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, Tuesday, Dec. 17th, 1872. [NOTE: This name spelled three ways as underscored above. It was spelled Woodbridge when used several other times in obituary.]

On the 2nd of Dec., death invaded the home circle of Capt. John A. and Mrs. Helen E. Avent, and took one of their happy number. John A. Avent, Jr., at the age of 14 years, a noble boy he was and of fine promise. [NOTE: Place not given.]

TRIBUTE TO REV. A. A. PORTER. When it was announced that Abner Porter was dead, thousands of friends of Zion mourned a grievous loss to the whole Church. He began his ministry at Bethsalem and Benton's Hill, in 1842. He also ministered at Charleston, S.C., in the second Presbyterian Church for a time during the absence of the pastor, and in Glebe Street, which he organized and contributed largely to build up by his ability, zeal and faithfulness, in Selma, Ala., in-[left blank] Dist., S. C., and then in Austin, Texas where he spent the last 3½ years of his life. He had many afflictions, having been often bereaved. Father, mother, brothers, sister, wife and children were taken away from him, and being a man of strong domestic attachments, these losses were sore griefs to his soul. C. A. S.

Married on the 24th of Dec., at Belle Vue, the residence of the bride's father, Gen. W. C. Means, by Rev. Luther McKinnon, Rev. Thomas C. Johnson, of the 4th Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, to Miss Bettie M. Means.

16 January 1873, Vol. IV, No. 48

Married on Thursday, 2d Jan., 1873, at 8 o'clock, p.m., by Chancellor Waddel of the University of Miss., Pryor Lea Bailey, Esq., and Miss Mattie Bradford, both of Charleston, Miss.

Married Dec. 20th, 1872, in Madison Co., Miss., at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. C. M. Atkinson, Mr. Jessie Lee and Miss Dora Smith.

23 January 1873, Vol. IV, No. 49

Died in Yazoo City, Miss., Jan 9th, 1873, Mrs. M. J. Shepherd, wife of Mr. R. C. Shepherd. She was the daughter of Mr. J. W. Fuqua and born in Benton, 1843. She was early subjected to the vicissitudes of orphanage and grew up to womanhood amid the privations of civil war. She united with the Presbyterian church, 1864, and was married in 1868. J. W. K.

30 January 1873, Vol. IV, No. 50

Married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Neil Bouie in Union Co., Arkansas, by Rev. J. T. Davidson, Mr. W. D. Eskew, of Louisiana and Miss Kate Bouie, of Arkansas.

Mrs. Tabitha D. Martin the daughter of Caleb and Nancy Manly, was born on the 6th of Aug., 1803, near Spring Hill, Tenn. She was united in marriage to the late James Martin, a prominent citizen of this county, on the 24th of June, 1824, in Lawrence Co., Tenn., and came immediately with him to Florence, Ala., in which community she lived up to the time of her death, which occurred on the 7th of January, 1873. In 1830 she made a profession of faith in Christ at a female prayer meeting held at Mother Brandon's in Florence. Soon after her conversion, she united with the Presbyterian Church. Earlier the lamented Dr. Mitchell, who was her pastor and intimate friend for more than 20 years, said to the writer:" We have some remarkable women in our charge, women of whom any church should justly feel proud, real mothers in Israel." Two of these remarkable women have since passed away. Mrs. Mary Coffee, widow of the late Gen. Coffee and Mrs. Martin. She left children. A Friend.

6 February 1873, Vol. IV, No. 51

In the death of the great Geographer, Commander M. F. Maury, the civilized world will sympathize with us in a common loss. He has been ailing since last October, and was it is said about 62 years of age. [Notice only, p. 2. NOTE: See longer biographical article, 14 November 1872.]
Died in New Orleans, La., aged 17 years and 21 days, Marion Louisa, fifth daughter of Rev. Dr. B. M. and Mrs. Mary A. Palmer. The eldest daughter had died, and within fifteen months just past the two younger ones followed. M.

13 February, Vol. IV, No. 52

DEATH OF REV. J. W. MORE. Central Presbyterian. He died at his home in Arkansas, on the morning of the 28th ult. An extended notice will be prepared and sent by the Rev. Dr. Welch of Little Rock. Our Church has lost one of the best of its ministers. He went to that part of the country in the beginning of his ministry, when it was a wilderness, and his arduous labors through a long life have borne abundant fruit to the glory of God, and the building up of his Church. Among the many excellent contributions of his pen in the columns of the Central Presbyterian during the last seven years, our readers will remember with special interest those which appeared under the title of "Reminiscences of a Pioneer." They contain a graphic account of the incidents in his own ministry, and are in many respects fully equal to "a Pastor's Sketches" by Rev. Dr. Spencer; and it will gratify numerous friends that arrangements are making to have them issued in a volume by our Committee of Publications.

The Vicksburg Presbyterian Church has sustained an irreparable loss. On the 17th of Jan., Mrs. Agatha A. M. Emmanuel, wife of Dr. Morris Emanuel departed this life. Born in Virginia of a family distinguished by the public services and personal worth of its members, she brought with her to Vicksburg, to which she came nearly forty years ago, the qualities that secured her at once the esteem of that young and ambitious community. The Rev. J. R. Hutchinson, the recollection of whose ministry is still fondly cherished by the older members of the church, was pastor during a portion of Mrs. Emanuel's early residence in Vicksburg. Under his ministry, though brought up in a different branch of the church, she made a public profession of religion. Little more than a year ago Mrs. Emanuel was called to part with a son, a noble and promising youth, who was devoted to his mother. Before the wound thus made had ceased to bleed, the mysterious Providence of God deprived her of three little grandchildren, one after another in rapid succession. R. P.

From Baltimore "American," Jan 30th, '73. Mr Geo. Peter Hoffman, late Chief Clark in the Publishing and Advertising House of Messrs. Griffin and Hoffman, No. 4 South st., died Jan. 30th, of a pulmonary affection. He had been employed in Messrs. G. & H.'s establishment since it opened in 1867. He lived for a short while in California, and also in Europe, but was a native of Baltimore, being a son of the late Peter Hoffman, one of the earliest and most prominent merchants of Baltimore. He was in his fifty-first year.

This column is the family number corresponding to family number on the 1880 Population Schedule; however, this column was not filled in in Enumeration Districts 54 through 57. J.W. Wright, Enumerator District 56 states that his list is taken from sexton and undertaker's certificates. J. G. Leigh, Enumerator District 57 further states that the lists were not done by wards but the enumerators each took part of the list. PR in this column means the information was taken from Physician's Returns.

[Editor's Comments: There are two additional columns in the original that have not been transcribed. One is headed "If the Disease was not contracted at the place of death, state the place." The other is headed "Name of attending Physician." The first column was rarely filled in while the name of the physician was usually noted.

The instructions to the enumerators stated that when it was not possible to make a positive statement, as when an age could only be estimated, the entry should be enclosed by parentheses. Some entries had a line through them and some spaces were left blank. These are reproduced in the transcription. ??'s were added to indicate that something was written but I could not determine the exact word, letter or number.]

BOOK REVIEWS
by J. Bruce Moseley

Any Book donated to the Dallas Genealogical Society relating to family history or genealogy which is currently in print and available for sale will be reviewed in THE DALLAS QUARTERLY. The book will be placed in the Genealogy Section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library of the Dallas Public Library System. All publications to be reviewed should be sent to the Dallas Genealogical Society together with price and complete ordering information.

THE NOELL FAMILY - A WESTWARD JOURNEY FROM THE NETHERLANDS, VIRGINIA, GEORGIA TO TEXAS. Milton J. Noell, Millard D. Noell and Frances Dennis Truman. 1990. Hardbound, 9" x 11". iii plus 230 pages. Name indexed. $34.00 postpaid. Order from Millard Noell, 10827 Clearbrook Lane, Dallas, Texas 75218.

One of the satisfactions I find in reviewing genealogical works is getting to know something about interesting and admirable people that I haven't had a chance to meet in person. THE NOELL FAMILY - A WESTWARD JOURNEY provides a case in point. Thanks to Millard Noell, who is a DGS member, and his two first cousins, I have now been introduced to their family. The story covers thirteen generations, but the part that fascinated me most dealt with the last 100 years in northern Dallas County.

This book begins in the Netherlands in the mid-1500's. The name was NOWE at that point, later becoming NOEL, and finally NOELL after the family had come to Virginia a century later. Inside the front cover is a remarkably extensive chart of the first nine generations, which the first half of the book details. The remainder deals with Sidney Smith Noell, who came to Dallas County from Georgia in 1875, and his descendants -- many of whom are living among us today.

The binding, printing, and illustrations in this volume are of a very good quality. The index lists over 500 persons, about a quarter of whom bear the title surname. Whoever did the narrative is to be complimented; the writing is clear and easy to read, but always warm and loving. The absence of a continuous numbering system made it a little difficult for me to find my way among the relationships, but this lack is offset by numerous charts which depict the intricacies of several generations at a time. What a wonderful gift the authors have given to Noell descendants!

Beckham County lies along the western border of Oklahoma where it adjoins the east boundary of the Texas Panhandle. It's not quite halfway from Oklahoma City to Amarillo. Ural Cemetery is in the eastern part of the county, about ten miles south of Elk City. It contains graves that date from 1894 to the present.

Anna Gray, a member of DGS, has put together a unique little roster of the tombstone inscriptions in this cemetery. She provides a diagram of the property, and a detailed listing of close to 700 graves. What makes her work so unusual are seventy line drawings of headstones and markers. The artwork is quite good and I was surprised to find that the drawings probably do a better job of providing information than photographs would. 210 surnames are listed in the index, with the most frequent references being to ALLEN, DAVIS, GRAY, JONES, MARTIN, MUSIC, POWELL, AND ROGERS. Thank you, Mrs. Gray, for this resource for western Oklahoma researchers.

Author Arnold has given us a brief dissertation on the technical aspects of kinship. It's so short I get the feeling some digressive material was thrown in to take up space. However, in spite of being essentially a dictionary of kinship terms, the writing is light and clear. I quote the explanation of what "removed" means in referring to a cousin: "A first cousin once removed is one generation removed from the source—a first cousin. Think of it as linguistic shorthand: 'My first cousin once removed,' instead of 'My first cousin's child is one kinship generation removed from our original first cousin relationship.'"

If you have occasion to be concerned with the precise meaning of such exotic terms as consanguinity (degree of relationship between relatives), agnate kinship, or levirate marriage, here is an authoritative source.
RICHARD S. HICKMAN - LYDIA VEAL AND THEIR DESCENDANTS.
Paul and Alba Hickman Smith. 1990. Hardbound, 9" x 11", 281 pages. Name indexed. $25.00 postpaid. Order from the authors, 2420 Gantt Road, Alpharetta, GA 30201.

A year ago I reviewed three other genealogies by Mr. and Mrs. Smith: JOEL KELLEY and WM. B. SMITH DESCENDANTS. which were about Mr. Smith's ancestry, and FOLLETT, one of whom was Mrs. Smith's maternal grandfather. This latest volume is about her paternal great-grandparents and their issue, most of whom are Georgians. It is very similar to the earlier books -- printed from typed copy of marginal appearance on glossy paper and extensively illustrated with good quality pictures.

There is a lot of information packed into these 281 pages, but the organization of the material was confusing to me.
It was hard to tell when census records or deed book data stopped and the authors' narrative resumed. A modest amount of documentation is mixed in with the copy. The lack of any kind of charting or numbering system makes it difficult to keep up with who is descended from whom. The index, containing the names of over 3300 individuals, has quite a few references to BOWDEN, COOK, DAVIS, HILDERBRAND, KING, LYNCH, MOORE, PARKER, PATTERSON, ROCKS, SMITH, and TUCKER. If your research needs help in the area of Jasper County, Georgia (about 50 miles southeast of Atlanta), you might want to give this book a try.

STEPHENS COUNTY - MUCH TO BE CHERISHED. Breckinridge/
Stephens County Sesquicentennial Committee. 1987.
Hardbound, 9" x 11", 424 pages. Name indexed. $60.00 plus $3.00 P&H. Order from Swenson Memorial Museum, P.O. 350, Breckinridge, TX 76024.

Stephens is the fourth county west of Dallas, with Breckinridge, its seat, located fifty miles beyond Mineral Wells. This is a typical county history, nicely bound and printed, but made up for the most part with brief sketches of families who have lived or are living in the county.
The material is usually provided by some member of the family and is unauthenticated. Most entries have a small picture. Fifty pages are devoted to a history of the county itself which includes communities, schools, churches, cemeteries, post offices, businesses, clubs and organizations. Twenty-eight pages of paid-for memorials precede the index of approximately 13,000 individuals.

From a genealogical standpoint, this book might help some one who is having trouble researching this area get started with some names. Otherwise it will primarily be of interest to present or past residents of the county.

Editor's Comments:

[There was space for a number on the form which would correspond to the family number on the Population Schedule, unfortunately many times this was not filled in. One of the enumerators indicated that the death lists were divided up among the enumerators and the deceased were not necessarily from that enumeration district. Apparently, the entries with numbers were actually recorded by the census taker and the numbers seem to correspond with the family numbers on the Population Schedule.]

Every effort was expended to accurately transcribe the mortality schedules; however, some of the handwriting was extremely hard to decipher. The Mortality Schedule itself should be consulted if there seems to be a discrepancy.]

{to be concluded in Volume XXXVI, Number 4}

The 1850 and 1860 Mortality Schedules of Dallas County, Texas were abstracted in THE DALLAS QUARTERLY, Vol. XXXVI, No. 2. The 1870 Mortality Schedule of Dallas County, Texas was abstracted in THE DALLAS QUARTERLY, Volume XX, No. 3.
