DGS Website Recognized
The Texas State Genealogical Society (TSGS) has selected the DGS Website as one of the three best Genealogical Websites in the State of Texas for 2011.

DO YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE?
Come join us at the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, 1515 Young Street, Dallas, TX on Saturday, October 22, 2011 for the Dallas Genealogical Society's one-day workshop "DO YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE?"

Choose between two tracks (Getting Started or Technology) or mix and match sessions from each. Attendees will receive a syllabus with materials from all sessions.

Registration is $20 with a reduced parking rate of $2.00 (underground library parking garage).
Lunch on your own. Click here to register online or download registration form.

Family Search to add Texas Death Certificates!
Family Search is in the process of adding browsable images of the 1977-1986 Texas Death Certificates. Images now available are January-August 1978 with more to follow.
War of 1812 Pension Files

Fold3 (Footnote) has 91,000 plus War of 1812 Pension Files searchable for free. They are being added to daily in alphabetical order. They are 1% complete so you may have to wait awhile for your pensioner if your surname starts with U, V, W, X-Y-Z!

New Online Cemetery Database

DGS rolled out its new online cemetery database at the October meeting.

There are 13 Dallas County cemeteries in the database. Many of these were to have been part of volume 6 of Data from Dallas County Cemeteries, which was never published in printed form. It also includes eight of the thirty sections in Oakland Cemetery. Other cemeteries will be added in the future, including an updated version of Oak Cliff Cemetery. Look for info on the Kleberg/Glenn Cemetery, Trinity (Wilmer) Cemetery and Eagle Ford Cemetery shortly!

To access this data base on the DGS Website:
- Click on Resources on the top menu bar.
- Click on Cemeteries on the Resources page.
- Select the cemetery which you wish to search.
- Once you have reached the database through a specific cemetery, you may select "All" to conduct a search across all cemeteries in the database.
